

A New Heart.

An anecdote was published many years ago, concerning the Indian Chief Teedyuscung, king of the Delawares. One evening he was sitting at the fire-side of a friend. Both of them were silently looking at the fire, indulging their own reflections. At length the silence was broken by the friend, who said, "I will tell you what I have been thinking of. I have been thinking of a rule delivered by the author of the Christian religion, which from its excellence, we call the golden rule."

Mind These Steps.

A Scotch exchange says: Stop shirking your duties. Stop neglecting to return borrowed books. Stop indulging in more than 100 pounds of self conceit to the square inch. Stop supposing that the world could not get along pretty well without you. Stop looking at the dark side of life. Stop giving way to fault finding. Stop furnishing your friends with the full particulars of your bodily ailments. Stop taking pessimistic views of men, things and the theory of the universe. Stop working too hard. Stop working not hard enough. Stop writing to famous men for their autographs. Stop procrastinating. Stop sending to newspapers "something I've just dashed off and haven't stopped to correct."

NASAL BALM TOTTENHAM, ONT., May 3rd, 1887. I have been troubled with nasal catarrh for the last five years. Seeing Nasal Balm advertised I procured a bottle, and although I have only used part of it, I do not hesitate to pronounce it the best remedy in the world for that loathsome disease, Catarrh. It is easy and pleasant to use, soothing and healing in its action, instant in giving relief, removes and changes the poisonous secretions to a healthy state, stops the droppings from the head into the throat, and removes all the symptoms of Catarrh and Cold in the Head. In fact, if the directions are faithfully followed, nothing but a sure and permanent cure can be the result. Yours truly, JNO. S. GEORGE, Baker and Confectioner.

$500 REWARD is offered by the manufacturer of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

"Untold Agon." from Catarrh. Prof. W. HATSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my forehead became more and more unbearable, and I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting." THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luck befell me, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one who only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."
