ST. PETER'S

ENCHANTING "NELLIE" IS WONDERFUL FAMILY FILM

A nostalgic Technicolor drama spanning half a century of life in midwestern America, Twentieth Century-Fox's "Wait 'Til The Sun Shines Nellie" will open today at the Prince Edward Theatre with Jean Peters, David Wayne and Hugh Marlowe in starring roles. A story rich with human emotion, "Wait 'Til The Sun Shines, Nellie" traces the life of a small-town barber who sees the growth of his community cast its effects on the development of his own life. It is the story of Nellie, a girl desirous of life in the big city, who never lived to see the sunshine, but like the strains of the song, lingered on in the memory of the man who loved her.

It is an epic of Americana embracing the Spanish-American War, the First World War, the era of the barbershop quartette, Prohibition up through present times. Jean Peters, the exotic star of "Viva Zapata" and "Take Care Of My Little Girl" is cast in the title role. David Wayne gets his first major starring role as the barber following his efforts in "With A Song In My Heart." Hugh Marlowe, long a Hollywood favorite, completes the starring cast as the friend bewitched by Nellie's charm.

Albert Dekker, Helene Stanley, Tommy Morton, Joyce MacKenzie, Alan Hale, Jr. and Richard Karlan are featured in major supporting roles.

For authentic backgrounds, Director Henry King, of "David and Bathsheba" fame, moved his acting troupe to Hutchinson and Castleton, Kansas.

Produced by George Jessel, "Wait 'Til The Sun Shines, Nellie" was written by Allan Scott and Maxwell Shane.

THE PROWLER
is a daring motion picture!

VAN HEFLIN and EVELYN KEYES

A man without a name, in whose savage heart lurks only greed and violence. The startling, beautiful woman who dared love him. These two knew the secret of the Prowler and held it close to their hearts. These two fought the whole world for a strange emotion—that might have been love.

Van Hefflin plays the strange and twisted man, and Evelyn Keyes is the girl who is enmeshed in his nightmare. You'll be truly moved by the compassion they lend their roles, by the depth of emotion you'll find in this daring, different film!

Georgetown Men's Association Meets

The monthly meeting of the Georgetown Men's Association was held on Monday, February 2nd, in the United Church Hall. Approximately thirty men sat down to an enjoyable supper served by the ladies of the W. A.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. Frank MacKinnon, principal of Prince of Wales College. His subject was the history of P.E.I. from the days of the French régime. Dr. MacKinnon speaks authoritatively on this subject, evidently one of his favourite topics, and his address was of absorbing interest. Other guests attending from Charlottetown were Messrs. Ewen Anderson, Jack MacNair, and Lawson Jenkins. Mr. Jenkins and Mr. MacNair spoke briefly to the meeting.

Two new committees were appointed, member and attendance, and program and publicity. A motion was put in effect to build new tables for use in the hall. It is planned to form a men's choir from this Association, who will take the place of the regular church choir on the last Sunday in every month. This choir will be under the training and direction of Mr. Harrington Yorston.

Queen Square And Milton Win Games At Montague

...The Queen Square High School team defeated the Montague High 6-1, in the first game of a double header played at Montague Saturday night. The visitors held control through three periods of hockey, their speed and passing outclassing the locals.

MILTON 20, SHMOHAWKS 3

The Milton Hornets swamped the Montague Shmohawks 20-3 in the second feature of a double header played at Montague Saturday night. Although the locals fought back gamely they were unable to repel the constant pressure from the visitors who opened the scoring in the first two periods at the 13 second mark. Stewart, the local net, had 71 shots, while Simmons for the visitors had 28. A well balanced team, the Hornets made their passes count to set up the play in front at the local net and on which they capitalized, a feat which the locals seemed unable to do, although they had several golden opportunities. The line of Cruwys, Andrews and MacLean accounted for 16 of the team's 20 goals which is notable and indicative of good team play.

School Teams Play Twin Hockey Bill At Geo'town

School teams played in a double-header hockey game at Georgetown Saturday night. In the first game Georgetown High School girls battled to a scoreless draw with West Kent School girls from Charlottetown. In the second game the West Kent Midgets defeated the Georgetown High School Midgets 5-4.

The Georgetown Girls, provincial champions undefeated for two years, were forced to the limit to gain the draw with the West Kent girls. For the greater part of the game the locals had the best of the play as they hemmed their opponents behind their own blue line for minutes at a time. But West Kent girls were always dangerous, particularly on breakaways.

B. Murphy was referee.

Lineups:
Georgetown—Goal, Kings; defences, Walker, Johnson, M. Simpson; forwards, Prosper, Fitzgerald, I. Sampson, J. Sampson, Martell, MacQuellan, McCullough.
West Kent—Goal, Kennedy; defences, Jardine, C. Rogers, B. Smith; forwards, J. Rogers, L. Smith,

Lineups:
Hornets — Goal, Simmons; defences, Cummings, R. Cruwys, Henry, Code; forwards, G. Cruwys, MacLean, Andrews, MacFarlane, Frizzell, Tremere.
Montague — Goal, Stewart; defences, Davis, MacDonald, Reynolds, Power; forwards, Power, Nelson, MacLure, MacLean, Stewart, Johnston.

Seven Days

With no small boy and dog to make tracks on a shining floor. So happy sitting down behind the stove with a deep sigh of contentment—all's right in his world! And another week has come and gone or will be gone in a few more hours. The evening is quiet and violet colored shadows steal through the windows. — Another Sunday just about over and for you I hope it was a peaceful, happy day.

TOO SOON

(By Ruth Bauer)
They say He was a happy little Lad
With sunny smile, and merry laughing—
Such childish charm, the old folks say
That seeing Him just brightened up their day.
They say He used to play about the door,
The smallest ones content and unafraid,
And He would go out and bring the little store
Of simple toys His father Joseph made.
Or He would wander with some older boy
Along the sand, beside the quiet lake,
And boyish talk and dreams they'd both enjoy,
And manly plans for future days they'd make.
And He was kind—He loved the helpless things—
The newly-born, the oxen growing old,
The timid birds who tried their fluttering wings,
The tiny lamb that could not find the fold.
They say He grew so quickly, and so tall,
(As only mothers know a small boy can),
That soon He was no little Lad at all.
But all too soon He had become a Man!
