CURRENT NOTES.

Dysentery is very prevalent at Panama, many deaths resulting from it.

Pennsylvania coal operators have decided to increase their prices for August.

Three thousand suits for divorce have been instituted under the French divorce law.

The Messrs. Allan are about to organize a steamship service between Montreal and London.

The death of the Rev. Mark Patterson, the distinguished essayist and teacher, is announced.

Hail and wind storms have completely destroyed the grain crop in parts of Minnesota and Dakota.

The British man-of-war Canada, with Prince George of Wales on board, has arrived off the Scilly Islands.

Over three inches of rain has fallen inside of twenty-four hours in some parts of Maryland, causing disastrous freshets.

The London Times published a letter on the 31st ult., advocating a match game between the Philadelphia and Australian cricket teams.

It is understood that Lord Lyons, British ambassador at Paris, has urged Prime Minister Ferry to withdraw the bill relating to the transportation of confirmed criminals to penal colonies. This action was based upon the determined hostility of Australia, which is decidedly opposed to being continued a resort for escaped French convicts.

The boss of San Francisco is a Democrat, and is named C. A. Buckley. He is blind, 42 years old, looks younger, is of medium height, with a light complexion, and blond hair and moustache. He is a stylish dresser, wears diamonds and a high silk hat, was born in Ireland, but votes as the son of a naturalized father. His power is great.
What would it be if he could see?

The trial of the suspected dynamites, John Daly and Jas. Egan, was continued on the 31st ult. at Warwick. The same precautions were taken to guard the court.
Col. Meyendie, chief inspector of explosives testified that Daly had in his possession when arrested six bottles of sulphuric acid and four dynamite bombs, which only required the insertion of the sulphuric acid to produce an explosion. He knew of no purpose, scientific or practical, for such bombs, except to take life.

Of the London (Ct.) girl who has become insane from the religious excitement attending the meetings of the Salvation Army, the "Day" says "Several times daily she works herself into a frenzy of religious mania, screaming and gesticulating, with a wildness that strikes terror to the hearts of her attendants. Some of the Salvation Army people have visited the girl in her affliction, but their well meant efforts at consolation had a directly contrary effect, the girl going into a spasmodic fit whenever one of them called."

There is a great dearth of female teachers for the public schools of London now, and the number of vacancies is increasing.
There are no applications before the authorities for the vacant places. The reason given is that the unnecessary severity of the preliminary examinations is frightening women away from this field of labor, even in a city where it is so difficult for women to earn a decent livelihood as London.
Very few female aspirants for teachership have passed any of the recent examinations. As a remedy for this state of things the Government is being urged to lower the standard of the examinations.

Spain now has an annual yield of about 40,500,000 gallons of wine, which places her in the fourth rank among wine growing countries, being surpassed only by France, Italy and Austria-Hungary. She has a large export trade with France, but it is not true that she has developed this wholly or chiefly by the prevalence of phylloxera in the French vineyards, for in 1875, when the phylloxera had done comparatively little harm, she exported wines to the amount of 151,000,000, or one-third of her total exports, a proportion which was scarcely exceeded in 1879.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, July 27.—The news of a queer specimen of the female sex in the woods near Gordon's Ferry, a place about twelve miles north of here, reached Dubuque this morning. When first discovered by hunters she was standing like a statue in a clear space with her back toward them. They, wishing to get a square look at the strange apparition, got round in front of her, but they no sooner had done this than with an unearthly scream, she darted off through the woods and ran about 300 yards, when she stopped, got behind a large tree, and, with a wild glare, viewed the visitors at a distance.
After another ineffectual attempt to discover her identity, she was lost to their sight. They explored the woods for over two hours, but were unable to discover any trace. The hunters describe the strange creature as follows:—She was apparently about 20 years of age, with lithe and siney form, a receding forehead, and eyes which shone with an unnatural lustre. Her hair, about three feet long and black as jet, hung in dishevelled locks over her shoulders and back. She was always in a nude condition, and was minus shoes and stockings.
No one in the neighborhood can give any information regarding the strange creature, but it is stated by one of the older residents that about four years ago a daughter of a farmer in a small Illinois town who had been engaged to be married to a well-to-do young farmer, had mysteriously disappeared because of the refusal of her parents to give their consent, and has not since been seen. It is supposed that she subsists on roots and herbs, and lives in some cave among the rocks. It is probable that an effort will soon be made to capture her.

CURRENT NOTES.

A terrible cyclone passed over Edenton, N. C., Sunday.

The body of a Megantic cattle drover named Dinning, was found floating in the St. Lawrence, near Montreal, with $2,700 in his pockets.

The New York Herald's heading, "The International Hyphen," happily characterizes the cable connection between America and the old world.

Pulverman, an Ottawa swindler, has been shadowed to Chicago by Detective Fahey, and arrested there. He cheated the people of Ottawa to the extent of $4,000.

The situation of Toulon and Mars-illes continue to improve. A classification of the deaths at the former place shows that over a third of the victims were Italians.

The Prince of Wales has requested Sir Charles Tupper, to allow him to recommend him as a Royal Commissioner to the Indian Colonial Exhibition of 1886, of which His Royal Highness will be President.

Sir Leonard Tilley, who is still in Scotland, is expected to return to London about the beginning of next week. Both the Finance Minister and the Hon. D. L.
McPherson will probably leave for Canada early next month.

Five hundred cattle have been ordered to be killed at Chicago, on account of the outbreak of a disease called bloody murrain.
Two train loads were affected, having come from Kansas, where, also, an epidemic has broken out.

The suit for libel brought by Bolton, the prosecutor for the Crown, against Wm.
O'Brien, editor of the Dublin United Ireland, was brought to a close on the 31st ult. The verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff, giving him £3,000 damages.

On Sunday night, in the south-eastern portion of Hamilton, Ont., a man and woman named Quinn were returning from church. A gang of roughs pounced on them, disabled the man and outraged the woman. The woman's life is despaired of.
She has had a succession of fits.

Early in the past month Mr. Gladstone's career as Prime Minister has covered 9 years, 146 days, which was the length of Lord Palmerston's career in the same office. Two statesmen only during the last 100 years have governed the English people for a longer period than this. One of these was William Pitt, who held the office for 18 years and 10 months; the other was Lord Liverpool, whose period was 14 years and 10 months.

A re-union of members of the Royal families will be held at Copenhagen this month. The Czar and Czarina of Russia, Prince and Princess of Wales, King and Queen of Greece, and Duke and Duchess of Cumberland are expected to be present at the re-union. Efforts are being made to induce the Duke of Cumberland to resign his claim to the throne of Hanover, and accept the terms offered by Emperor William.

They used to tell great stories on the steamboats about the size of the mosquitoes and gallinippers up some of the inlets and bays on the Mississippi, about their sitting on the legs and picking their teeth with fence nails, etc. There is a story told of a negro who made the bet with the crowd that he could lie on his face and let the mosquitoes bite him for half an hour. He was getting along pretty well, and the crowd got uneasy for fear he would get through all right and win the stakes, and unknown to him they got a coal of fire and laid it on his bare back. The poor fellow leaped into the air with a yell, exclaiming:
"O Lord! I forgot to bar dem gallinippers!"

During a dense fog off White Fish Point Upper Lakes, on Sunday night, the Canadian Pacific steamer Alberta was running at one-third speed, sounding her whistle.
She struck the steam barge Osborne near the stern. The Osborne soon filled with water and sank, two of her boats going down with her. While seeking to save the foreman of the Osborne, a Toronto passenger on Alberta, named Dan Moore, was drowned. Five lives at least were lost on the Osborne, and possibly more, as the returns are meagre. The Alberta had four plates and seven ribs in her bow broken by the collision. Her passengers were taken to Sault Ste. Marie, and transferred to another vessel bound to Port Arthur.

A festive old Civil servant temporarily employed in the Interior Department, whose name is thoroughly Hibernian, is at present enjoying himself to his heart's content traveling through Western Canada, in company with an opulent widow from California, who is his junior by ten or fifteen years. The circumstances which brought them together after many year's absence are quite romantic. Years ago he went to school with a fascinating young girl; as years grew on he became greatly attached to her, but then their ardent friendship must have grown cold for she left for distant parts and married. He stayed at home and did likewise. Some years ago his wife died. The young lady married a rich gentleman who died a short time ago, leaving her in possession of a large fortune, amounting to three or four hundred thousand. Hearing that her first lover was residing in this city, she at once made up her mind to come and see him, and one day about three weeks ago she arrived in Ottawa, registering at the Russell. The old gentleman, who is nigh the allotted span, is said to have become slightly frantic with delight in meeting his old love.
