

MR. AND MRS. DAVID AIDE

Calvary Temple Is Setting For Summertime Wedding

Baskets of pink and white gladioli flanked the altar, and white bows marked the guest pews for a recent wedding at Calvary Temple, Charlottetown, when Gloria Victreda daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Douse, Sherwood, became the bride of David Mason Aide, son of Rev. Clarence Aide, and Mrs. Aide, Huntsville, Ont.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the groom's father, Rev. Clarence Aide, assisted by Rev. Cyril Clark, pastor of Calvary Temple.

Mrs. Fred Day, Murray River was the organist and accompanied the soloist, Alexander Strong of Carr, Ont., who sang "A Wedding Prayer", "At This Altar" and "Whither Thou Goest".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza with a Sabrina neckline and long lily-pointed sleeves. Chantilly lace adorned the neckline and front panels of her bouffant skirt, and a pearl-trimmed crown held her silk illusion finger-tip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and white carnations, with ivy.

Mrs. Alexander Strong was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Marilyn and Elizabeth Douse, sisters of the bride, and Peggy Aide, sister of the groom. All wore identical floor-length gowns of royal blue peau de soie, and matching headdresses of peau de soie and nylon illusion. Their bouquets were semi-cascades of pink gladioli. The little flower girl was Cynthia Clark, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Clark. Her long gown headdress and bouquet were like those of the bridesmaids.

William Mann of Campbellton, N. B., was best man, and the ushers were Donald and James Aide, brothers of the groom, and Louis Douse, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the
