

and detestable, but if it be the case that it has been the act of a disappointed office-seeker, the cause is as detestable as the act.

CANADA.

The party newspapers have been busy, either triumphing over or accounting for the results of the Nova Scotia elections.

St. John has been reminding herself that the 21st June last was the third anniversary of her great fire, and recounting with justifiable pride what she has done since then.

The verdict of the coroner's jury in the Victoria disaster has not shrunk from severely censuring the owner the captain and the Government Inspector.

The gathering at Sussex on Dominion Day will do good by drawing together men from the various provinces, and promoting that solidarity which is steadily growing among us.

In a rough country there is not much of either time or opportunity to cultivate the fine arts.

Once before this Province obtained an almost world-wide notoriety on account of its Lunatic Asylum.

But a much more serious matter than the conduct of the subordinate attendants, is the question thus raised about the whole management and discipline of the Institution.

MR. JUSTICE PETERS, Presiding. THE QUEEN vs. McCLOSKEY, McRAE and McLEAN. This case was begun to-day.

Medical Superintendent understand that, failing a second time to make them, will be for him a fatal neglect.

If a great deal of suspicion has arisen about the proposed introduction of water into our city, the City Council have chiefly themselves to thank.

A tax of one and a quarter per cent. on the value of real estate and of one per cent. on income, with carriage tax, poll tax, &c., shows that we are certainly rising in the scale of civilization.

But, when inclined to grumble at city taxation, we should in fairness remember that over one-third of the city expenditure—that for schools—neither the Council nor the citizens have any control whatever.
