THERE were no vessels cleared from the Custom House yesterday.

"OUR RULERS IN SESSION" (from the Moncton Daily Times) on first page.

OWING to the gale of yesterday, the mail via Point Du Chene was an hour and a half late.

SEVERAL Presbyterian clergymen arrived last evening to attend Synod. Many more are expected this evening.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.—The Receipts at the Customs for the quarter ending 30th September, are nearly $11,000 in excess of the corresponding quarter of last year.

CHAPPELL, who was imprisoned and lashed for a robbery he committed about eighteen months ago, has been released from further imprisonment on account of ill-health.

HOOK AND LADDER.—The men of N. 1. Hook and Ladder Company, under the direction of Captain Butcher, went through drill with their ladders at the side of Medical Hall yesterday evening. On the ladders used there was one extension, which gave them a height of about thirty-six feet. In the short space of one minute and a half the men had the ladders erected and ready for use. The ladders were taken down and everything made ready for departure in less than one minute. Captain Butcher has a smart lot of men under his control; and after a little more practice Charlottetown will have a good and efficient Hook and Ladder Company.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday morning, William Holland was fined $2 and costs or eight days, for being drunk and incapable. Isaac Henderson, drunk and lying in a yard, was fined $3 and costs or 14 days. Donald McKay was sent up four days, for drunk and incapable. James Burns was sent up for 10 days for a like offence. Peter McGuigan and Daniel Regan (each about 15 years of age) were committed 20 days for drunk and disorderly. Thomas Mack, drunk and disorderly, was fined $1 and costs or four days. James Murphy, James Goodman, William Corish and Patrick Dunn, on complaint of Wm. Redhouse, for stealing a barrel of mackerel, were remanded for trial on Wednesday. The John McNally, mentioned in our report of Saturday, was John McNally, Blacksmith.

PUT UP, OR SHUT UP.

A Great Trot is advertised to come off on Summerside Driving Park on Wednesday next. The horses 'French Sporter' and 'Jeff Davis' which, through the unfairness of the Judges, were not allowed to compete in the Upton Park Races, will be on the grounds. It seems that the Charlottetown folks do not like the idea of being beaten by Summerside, and have resolved that henceforth they will not allow any Summerside horses to compete on the Upton Park.—Summerside Progress.

Knowing the above paragraph was absurdly incorrect; and wishing to let the public have the "rights of the matter," we passed it to Dr. Jenkins last evening; and he, after reading it, wrote the following:

"The statement relating to the horses 'French Sporter' and 'Jeff Davis' not being allowed to trot at Upton Park, is, to use a mild term, grossly incorrect; and, so far from Charlottetown being afraid of Summerside horses, I will find three horses in or near the City that will trot the best three in or near Summerside, three separate matches, at Upton Park, for $100 a side each match. I don't think Summerside will dare to take this up; but we shall see. I will also pay the expenses of the Summerside horses and men to and from Upton.
