

Celebrated Thirty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary

On June 19th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Getson of Kildare, a large number of relatives and friends from various parts of the province gathered to honour the couple on the occasion of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Getson have for the greater part of their married life resided on their beautiful farm which borders on the widely known Kildare Capes. Through the years they have been noted farmers and foxbreeders. Mrs. Getson is the eldest daughter of the late James Rayner, pioneer in the fox industry and his wife, the late Jessie Baker.

Among the guests present from distant parts were their daughter Edith, now Mrs. Sprague from Cape Tormentine, and also their daughter Doris and her husband from Toronto.

Baptist Church At Central Bedeque Observes Anniversary

The United Baptist Church of Central Bedeque celebrated its 125th anniversary on June 10th.

The morning and evening services were well attended, and the music rendered by the choir and male chorus was both fitting and inspiring. At the morning service the pastor Rev. C. A. Brittan stressed the great opportunity which faced the church in the near future.

An interesting feature of the service was the dedicating of various gifts to the church. Miss Peggy Sherron donated two lovely flower containers in memory of her father Mr. Smith Sherron; Mrs. E. H. Strong, Summerside donated a fine Morocco bound pulpit Bible in memory of her mother, Mrs. Wilkinson.

At the close of the service a beautiful notice plaque was unveiled in memory of Mr. W. Franklin Farrow, presented to the church by his son Mr. Noel Farrow of Calgary, Alberta. A male chorus of 10 voices gathered around while the notice board was being dedicated, and at the close of the ceremony sang unaccompanied.

Bedford: Marjorie Irving, Borden; Pauline Irving, Cape Traverse; Colin Jackson, Lower Montague; Mona MacPhail, Argyle Shore; Kinton Taylor, Charlottetown.

Certificates, Partial: Florence Corrigan, Bedford; Jack McGuigan, Hunter River; Laura Ozon, Borden; Amelia Sheehan, Bear River; Aneta Smith, Bedford.

Y. P. U. RALLY AT MARGATE
The Central Presbytery United Young People held their Spring Rally in the Margate United Church with a large attendance. The afternoon meeting opened at 3 p.m. An address of welcome was given by Mrs. Arthur Profit. The theme of the rally was "Living To Serve". The opening devotional service was taken by the Cape Traverse Y.P.U. The president, Miss Jennie Moore introduced the guest speaker, Rev. W. I. Green, who gave a very interesting and inspiring address, taking as his subject "Living To Serve". Rev. Mr. Cross then spoke to the Young People about camp. He hoped every Union would try and send some delegates to the Y.P.U. week-end camp to be held in July.

The Young People present were then divided into two groups for study and discussion. The leaders of those groups were Rev. Mr. Cross, Rev. Mr. Green and Rev. Mr. Gough. After the discussion groups were held, supper was served. A vote of thanks was extended to the Margate Young People for the delicious supper. The evening meeting was opened with a devotional service by the executive; during this service Miss Jennie Moore sang a solo.

Mr. Gordon MacKenzie spoke about the Y.P.U. Youth Caravan. The findings of the study groups were given and Rev. Mr. Green in an address explained many of the important points to the Rally. The Rally was then closed with the Benediction by Rev. Mr. Green.

Look at all that extra space

GENERAL ELECTRIC

Space Maker REFRIGERATOR

When you see the Space Maker, you'll agree it's the world's finest. It actually gives you one-third more refrigerated storage space without taking up any extra floor-area. You can save many dollars each month—probably enough to pay for it—by buying food in larger quantities at lower prices and storing it in your Space Maker. Meats, fruits and vegetables will keep juicy-fresh in their own moist-cold drawers and the frozen food compartment has 20-package capacity. See this new G-E beauty at your dealer's—soon. He will demonstrate its many exclusive features. And remember... dependability is a G-E tradition: more than 2½ million G-E refrigerators have been in use for ten years, $499 many for far longer.

Only Authorized G-E Dealers can give you the 5-YEAR PROTECTION PLAN on the hermetically-sealed thrift mechanism—the heart of your G-E Refrigerator.

Business Training Studio Graduate List, Awards

The closing exercises at the Corcoran Business Training Studio were held on Friday, June 29th.

The Principal, Miss Corcoran, presided and before reading the year's report, spoke a few words to the students, complimenting them on the splendid success they had made of their ten months' study and practice. She advised the graduates to do some shorthand writing each day to keep up their speed in that subject, and told those who had not completed the stenographic work to write the exercises and send them in to have them checked as an hour's work each day during the summer would mean advancement and no review work for them in September.

After the report was given, Miss Corcoran extended best wishes to all for a pleasant holiday. The thanks of the students for kindness shown and assistance given them was voiced in a few chosen words by Miss Loyola Bell.

The report for the term follows: Graduates from the Bookkeeping Department: Violet Hutchison, Montague; Rita Duffy, Lake Verde; Elva Gillis, City; Thomas Hegarty, City; Loyola Bell, City; Florence Ferguson, City; Marjorie Vall, Gaytown; Anne Campbell, Gaytown; Dorothy Duffy, City.
