Police Investigate Tragedy At Cobourg

COBOURG, Ont., Aug. 2.—Police moved today to determine the cause of Mrs. Thomas Prestidge's death while her daughter, 23-year-old Marguerite Moyse, grew weaker from a bullet wound she told police was inflicted when she resisted the advances of her stepfather.
The girl's condition was reported "not so good" at Cobourg Hospital, where she was taken after being found unconscious in her bedroom with a bullet wound in the head. Mr. and Mrs. Prestidge, both aged 40 and married a month, died soon after being taken from their burning farmhouse.
Prestidge was shot through the chest and a rifle was found near his body. But the cause of Mrs. Prestidge's death remained undetermined after a post-mortem examination and vital stomach organs were taken to Toronto today for analysis by Prof. Joslyn Rogers, provincial analyst.
In a statement to police, Miss Moyse was quoted as saying that her mother came into her bedroom in the farmhouse at Grafton, seven miles from here, while she was struggling with her stepfather. Then there was a shot and she did not remember anything until she recovered consciousness in hospital, her statement said.

Urge Reorganization Of Canada's Police On English Lines

OTTAWA, Aug. 2.—(CP)—Reorganization of the various police forces throughout Canada on a unified basis similar to that of the English police was urged here in the sixth annual convention of the Police Association of Ontario in its local annual convention.
The convention asked the Dominion Government to appoint some authority to study the English system, and especially the operation of the metropolitan police force of London, with a view to the adoption of a similar system in Canada, "for the purpose of ensuring a greater measure of co-operation, cohesion and co-effort in law enforcement, and in unification of action in the detection of crime and the pursuit and punishment of criminals."
A deputation from the convention will explain the background for this proposal to Prime Minister Mackenzie King, placing before him data intended to show the need for improving Canada's police system.

Marjorie, the spokesman, said "Hitler was a great big boy from which he watches the show once every month."
"He was with three people," she said. "They were in uniform, but he was in a dark lounge suit. When he watched us, Hitler did not sit still for a second. He was talking to people on either side of him and pointing to the stage. His hands were never still!"

Set One Airplane Endurance Record, Are After Another

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 2.—The flying Moody brothers had their eyes on the 53-hour heavy plane endurance record tonight as they bounced through gusty air in the little monoplane which established a new light plane continuous flight mark last night.
At 8 p. M. CST, (11 p. M. ADT) the pair Hunter, 25, and Humphrey 20, had 245 hours to their credit. The former light plane record was 218 hours, established a year ago at Long Beach, Calif.
The heavy plane endurance record is held by Al and Fred Keys of Meridian, Miss.
"The Keys record is such a long way off we're not thinking about it too hard but we expect to get there," Humphrey Moody told flight manager Leroy Murphy by radio.
As for their physical condition—"I feel just as good as the day we took off. I'm not worried about Humphrey or myself," Hunter reported.

Father Divine Plans Purchase Of Manorlands

BY ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(AP)—Once Father Divine became disgusted over a series of lawsuits and threatened to "evaporate for 1900 years."
That might tickle society's manorial lords.
But tonight the little Harlem cult leader, whose myriad dusky angels call him "God," had a reported $15,000,000 land-buying fund and planned further invasion of the social register's "Green Pastures" in exclusive Newport, R.I., Philadelphia and Chester, N.Y.
With an "extension heaven" already firmly established on a rolling 500-acre estate at Krum Elbow, directly across the Hudson River from President Roosevelt's Hyde Park estate, the five-foot evangelist disclosed these projected purchases:
1. The 2,500-acre estate of Robert W. Goebel, New York banker, including a 52-room mansion, in the Glenmere Lake village of Chester, close by the fashionable harness-racing town of Goshen.
2. Properties on exclusive Chester Hill in Philadelphia.
3. A big stone mansion, "The Castle," formerly owned by the late United States Ambassador Richard Washburn Child, at Newport.
Father Divine's white secretary, John Lamb, said the self-styled Messiah had conferred with Mrs. Angela Kaufman, the present owner of "The Castle," to arrange details for taking over the Newport manor as soon as possible.
Lamb said Divine would probably take "a couple of thousand" angels on a steamboat excursion to open the Newport "heaven," whose neighbors would include just about the whole summer edition of the social register.
Lamb countered with the cult's eternal cry of "peace!" to questions about where the reported $15,000,000 land-buying fund came from; but, however the pudgy negro sect leader does it, his disciples know that "Father will provide," and joyously they chant: "Heaven and earth can fade away, But Father Divine don't never fail."

President Roosevelt Signs Hatch Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The Hatch Bill barring federal employees from political campaigns became law with President Roosevelt's signature, today and immediately United States legislators fell into disagreement as to whether the bill would prove a bar to a third term candidacy.
One school of thought, as typified by Senator King (Dem-Utah) was that the measure would tend to obstruct any third term drive by making it impossible for federal officials to be delegates to party conventions.
Another, as represented by Senator Murray (Dem-Montana), contended the act would have no bearing on a third term. Murray argued that such a movement depended little on the activity of federal office-holders.

The leadership required for our times is that of character.
