UNITED STATES.

MANCHESTER, Sept. 23. Col. Shaw, U. S. Consul, in accordance with the request of American residents, has called a meeting of condolence for tomorrow. The Sheffield Chamber of Commerce has passed a resolution assuring the American people and Garfield's widow and children of its sympathy.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. Cyrus W. Field will place a memorial window to the late President in the Chapel of William's College, Williamstown, Mass., of which Mrs. Garfield was a graduate.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. A Washington special to the World says: On the day when Garfield for the first time after he was shot, signed his name, he took up another sheet of paper and wrote the words "Strangulus pro Republica," to which he signed his name again. It is stated on the last day of Garfield's life he tried to dictate a message to his former comrades of the Army of the Cumberland; while the words of greeting were on his lips he fell to sleep. Marshal Henry saw the late President's mother yesterday; he fears she will not long survive her son.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. Henry F. Vail, President of the Bank of Commerce, is dead. The police here have started a twenty-five cents subscription for the Garfield fund. The fund now amounts to $260,000.

SAVANNAH, Sept. 23. The strike continues. The morning train brought in 150 laborers. The strikers gathered at the bridge and made a rush for the train, intending to drive off the hands. The police ordered them back, and meeting resistance charged the crowd. Five negroes were wounded, none seriously. The crowd then dispersed. One white man was fatally shot. Negotiations are in progress for a settlement.

POTTSVILLE, Sept. 23. As a train of fifteen gondola cars on the Reading Railway was ascending a heavy grade near Locustdale this evening, the rear part of the train broke and ran down the grade with fearful speed and collided with a coal train, killing the fireman, Yost, and Geo. Rinney, of Philadelphia, and seriously injuring Paul.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. The funeral obsequies of the late President Garfield occurred in the capitol this afternoon. At a quarter to two the doors of the rotunda were opened. The first society to arrive was the Knights Templar commanders. They did not remain in the hall, simply passing around the catafalque in double file. Four of their number bore floral offerings in the shape of an immense maltese cross, which they reverently placed at the head of the casket. At 10 minutes past two the Army of Cumberland filed in by the door leading from the Senate Chamber, and took seats reserved for them. Immediately after the doors were thrown open to all holders of tickets. In ten minutes the chairs set apart for the general public were completely filled. Soon the members of the diplomatic corps arrived and were ushered to seats reserved for them. The Military portion of the procession which will escort the remains to the depot formed right in form facing the east front of the Capitol. At 2.40 representatives of the late President's household entered and took seats reserved for them. Members of the House of Representatives and Senate then filed in, followed by President Arthur and members of the Cabinet. The vast assemblage as of one accord rose to honor the new President, and when they had regained their seats the ceremonies were opened with the hymn, "Asleep in Jesus," beautifully rendered by the volunteer choir. Rev. Dr. Rankin then ascended the platform at the head of the catafalque and read scriptural selections, and the Rev. Dr. Isaac Ereth then offered prayer. He spoke in a clear but low tone of voice, and with much feeling. As the closing words of the prayer died away, Rev. F. D. Power, of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, of which President Garfield was a member, delivered a feeling address. At the conclusion of Dr. Power's address, Rev. J. G. Butler offered prayer. This closed the ceremonies, and the vast assemblage, with bowed and reverent mein arose as the casket containing the remains of President Garfield was slowly borne from the building in which he had gained so many laurels and triumphs. The casket was followed by President Arthur leaning on the arm of Secretary Blaine and by members of the Cabinet, and in a quarter of an hour the rotunda was nearly deserted.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. President Arthur has issued a proclamation convening the Senate to extra session for October 10th.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. Total amount of Garfield fund is $272,789.64.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., 23. A train on the Iron Mountain Southern R. R., was boarded last night by three men who robbed the express safe of $50,000, and went through the passengers compelling them to give up their valuables.

CANADIAN'S PERSHIE—Mr. Short's photograph of Belleville, Ont., has received a letter from the postmaster at Forestville, Mich., confirming the report that Mr. Sylvester Richmond, Mr. Short's son-in-law, Mrs. Richmond and their six children had been suffocated in a well on the 5th inst., during the terrible forest fires which prevailed in that district.

It was currently reported in the United States that President Arthur was a Canadian. The New York Sun has investigated the matter thoroughly, and finds, to its own satisfaction, the history of the President's father, as gathered from his old neighbors in Vermont. President Arthur's father emigrated from County Antrim, Ireland, and settled in Vermont. There he taught Canadians and preached to Baptist Yankees, and there it was the President was born.

SHAVING THE WRONG HORSE'S TAIL.—It having become known that an "informer under the Scot's Act" was present at Kensington on Saturday, a number of the "bhoys" put up a job to shave his steed's tail. With razors and well ground knives they proceeded in the direction of the informer's team, and with the utmost secrecy carried out their rascality, as they thought, to a successful end. But judge of their chagrin when they discovered that instead of the informer's horse's tail, they had shaved the tail of a horse owned by a well known Lieutenant. The informer, on hearing the mistake, mounted his horse and left Kensington in haste, thoroughly enjoying a joke which might be very expensive to the perpetrators.

A YOUTH named Leet, and three other boys, had a very narrow escape from drowning yesterday. They took a boat from the Steam Navigation Co.'s Wharf, about 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon, for the purpose of having a sail on the river. The wind being blowing strong at the time, and the water very rough, the boat became unmanageable, and she tossed about the harbor, with her terrified occupants for a long time, finally going ashore, late in the afternoon, up the East River, about 8 miles from town. The lads walked to the city, where they arrived footsore and weary, and thoroughly scared, at a late hour last night. We think a good stout cat-o-nine tails, applied to them in a vigorous and painstaking manner by their parents, would prevent a recurrence of yesterday's exploit.

A DESPATCH from Newsmen, Ohio, states that that place and the neighboring country have been thrown into a state of intense excitement by several severe shocks of earthquake which visited that region on the 21st. The shocks followed each other in quick succession and lasted fully ten minutes. During this time, which seemed hours rather than minutes, the utmost consternation prevailed among the inhabitants. The negroes were all panic stricken and acted as if they thought their last hour had come. Houses were laid shakn, their movable contents knocked about, chimneys thrown down and other damage done, though there was no loss of life. The people have not yet got over their fright, as they fear another visitation, with possibly more serious results.
