THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 25, 1892.

Notes and Comments.

—According to a statement just issued from Washington, the foreign trade of the United States for the fiscal year ending 30th of June last was as follows: Imports, $831,734,421; exports, $1,025,964,485; total, $1,857,698,906. This is about $28 per head. In Canada, during the same period, the foreign trade amounted to $43 per head.

—The report of the committee of the Imperial Federation League, proposing a scheme for the defence of the United Kingdom and the British Colonies, will be submitted to the council of the League in November. After approval of this scheme Mr. Gladstone will be asked to summon a conference of colonial statesmen to discuss the scheme with representatives of the Imperial Government.

—According to immigration returns issued by the British board of trade the number of immigrants leaving the United Kingdom for Canada during the six months ending 30th June last was 23,569 against 16,053 during the same period of 1891. According to nationalities they are classified as follows: English, 10,338; Scotch, 1,253; Irish, 727. other nationalities, 11,241.

—According to recent statistics, says the Glasgow Mail, the chances of a railway accident are slight after all. In 52,000,000 journeys only one person was killed, and in 1,930,935 journeys only one person was injured. Supposing the average length of a journey to be half an hour, that makes 3,000 years of travelling, day and night, before it comes to be one's turn to be killed, and about 100 years before a minor accident should occur.

—The United States Bureau of Statistics has issued a statement showing the values of imports and exports of the United States for the month of July, 1892 and 1891, and for the twelve months ending July 31, 1892 and 1891. The total exports for July last were $58,355,230; imports, $71,373,180; excess of imports, $13,017,950 In July, 1891, the imports exceeded the exports by $4,373,142. The exports for the twelve months ended July 31 last were $1,025,964,485, and the imports were $831,734,421, making an excess of exports of $194,230,064. For the twelve months ended July 31, 1891, the figures were: Exports, $892,704,871; imports, $834,398,927; excess of exports, $58,305,944.

—Ottawa Citizen:—Now that our neighbors over the way seem disposed to make the most of their possession of the only waterway into Lake Superior, would it not be worth the government's while to make an effort to hasten the completion of our own "Soo" canal? The contract calls for the finishing of that work up to the close of the season of navigation in 1894; but surely if the incentive were forthcoming, the contractors could be induced to hurry on the work. Certain it is the ownership of an independent water route would give us the whip-hand in any negotiations with the United States looking to the arrangement of our international traffic relations. That is an advantage that cannot well be underestimated. We have heard no opinions of engineers upon the subject; but it does not seem unreasonable to conclude that by doubling the constructive forces at work there are at present the canal might pretty well be rushed through to completion this winter. If so, the scheme is one that ought to be considered without loss of time. Under the circumstances, parliament would be sure to see the matter in the light of a national necessity and the credit to carry on the work would be readily enough voted.

—The New York Sun plainly advises President Harrison to "put the screws to the Canadian Tories;" to "deal a death-blow to the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railways," and to play old Harry generally with this country, in order "not only to bring the Tory Ministers at Ottawa to their knees, but give a tremendous impetus to the movement for the political fusion of Canada with the United States." Long ago the gentleman who advised putting on the screws as a sure means of bringing about annexation has been repudiated and cast out from the Liberal Party in whose pay he happened to be at the time he gave that traitorous advise. Nor will "our Liberal friends" much thank the venerable anglophobe of the Sun for this: "The American people," says the paper, "want no compromises and no conferences with the Tory wirepullers, who just now to the grave detriment of our liberal friends in Canada, happen to be in power at Ottawa." Nor yet have we any cause of apprehension of danger to our national dignity from the other source to which the Sun looks for aid to its humiliation policy when it says: "Now that Mr. Gladstone has returned to power in England, the time has come to make the representatives of Canadian railways and all other Canadian interests understand that, if they covet the privileges of American citizens, they must seek them within the Union, and not outside of it."

The Queen Threatened.

AN INSANE MAN STOPS HER MAJESTY'S CARRIAGE.

The London Globe reports an incident that occurred to the Queen while she was driving near Osborn House, Isle of Wight, recently. As the royal carriage was proceeding along the road a man making violent gestures advanced towards it. The carriage was stopped and the man approached the Queen. He told her that he was a foreign count, and that he and many others had sworn that if the Queen did not resign they would kill her.

Her Majesty's listened in silence to the wild harangue, never once betraying any nervousness. She and her attendants at once saw that the man was mentally unbalanced, and though she did not know but what he would attempt to suit his actions to his words, she retained her presence of mind and gazed calmly at him, never uttering a word. One of her attendants dismounted, and quietly talking to the man removed him from Her Majesty's presence. He was handed over to a constable and lodged in jail. There is no doubt that he is insane.

No one need have their children go to school with a shabby suit when they can get 20 per cent discount off Prowse Bros' wonderfully low prices.

The Races Yesterday.

The races at Summerside yesterday were greatly enjoyed by the lovers of horse-flesh present. It is evident that every horse was driven to win if he could. Perfect order and good behaviour prevailed. The beautiful mare Dot entered the charmed circle, and won the free for all in three straight heats. The owners of Onward, Loot S, Sim, Parnell and Yellow Bird are to be congratulated upon the possession of very promising racers, and of Loafer it is only necessary to say that he was a good second to Dot. The driving of R. Steele was commendable, his horse winning first place in every race. The summaries follow:—

BRIDGETOWN, N.S., Aug 22.—The report of the home missionary board shows that two general missionaries have been at work all the year. Of the 66 fields counted as mission at the beginning of the year 37 have had continuous ministerial labor for all or nearly all the year. Damage by Lightning.

MAN KILLED — HOUSES AND BARNS BLOWN DOWN.

Mr. John White, of O'Leary Station, sends the Pioneer the following account of the electric storm in that neighborhood: On Wednesday, 17th inst., a storm swept from Cape Wolfe along to the O'Leary and Locke roads carrying destruction in its path. It struck the house of George McArthur, sr., on Locke Road, blowing it down, a piece of which struck him in the back of the neck hurting him badly. His son, after the house had fallen, went to assist his father who got jammed among the debris, and got struck either by lightning or a piece of timber. He died 16 hours after. Old Mrs. McArthur was badly injured, but it is likely she will recover. Hugh McArthur, of the same family, was carried by the wind eight chains and landed in a brook. George McArthur, jr., who lives about five chains from George McArthur, with wife and child went to the cellar when the storm began, where they no sooner got than the house blew away leaving nothing but the floor and sills. The house of Peter Thompson (who was absent at the time) also blew down. Mrs. Thompson was alone with four children. She took two and went to the greenhouse, while the other two sat behind the woodpile through the storm. Wm. Shaw's house blew over; his little son is badly hurt. The houses of Matthew and Hugh Stewart blew over, one of them going twenty feet. A space of about a half mile of woods is blown down from Locke to O'Leary Road, where the hurricane swept the roof off a barn belonging to Wallace McNeill. The barn of Wm. Gray blew down, part of which was carried four chains before the storm. Three head of cattle were standing to leeward; in the morning they were minus a horn each, otherwise they were uninjured. Donald Gillis drove a load of hay in the barn and closed all the doors but one little one through which the wind entered driving the load of hay through the side. A new barn belonging to Thomas Smallman about 75 feet long was moved seven feet sideways on a stone foundation and an old barn to the back of it was carried around to the front. Three barns belonging to the Harris family were blown over. A barn belonging to David Silliker had the roof blown off, a half going one chain each way. A large new barn of Richard Smallman's, about 60 feet long, which was full of hay, was blown to atoms, the hay being all destroyed afterwards by the rain. Barns belonging to Mr. Baker and Mr. Mountain were blown to pieces. About ten acres of green hardwood belonging to Mr. Mountain was uprooted and completely destroyed. A barn belonging to Hiram Woodside was blown to pieces. A horse of James McDonald was in the barn at the time of the storm; the barn was blown away leaving the horse standing uninjured. A barn belonging to widow Ramsay was blown into a field of grain belonging to R. Ellis, sr. The store of R. Ellis, jr., was badly twisted, the wind breaking all the windows and removing some of the shelves from their sockets. The corner and eave of Mr. Ellis' barn was also swept away. All the fences were swept away and the chimneys of a few of the dwellings were destroyed.
