

"Consider."

Do we ever stop to consider
How little a kind word may cost,
And of once the hasty word spoken,
One chance in our life we have lost?

Do we ever stop to consider
All the sorrow one little word
May bring to the heart that is yearning
For the tones of love seldom heard?

Do we ever stop to consider
How much sunshine is thrown away,
When we close fast the door where kindness
Knocks anew to come in each day?

Do we ever stop to consider
When everything seems to go wrong,
That the fault we think is another's
Has been our own all the day long?

Now a simple rule to consider,
And one I am sure we will find,
Is to see what is the motive
For saying a word that's unkind;

And if we take time to consider,
The motive perchance will grow small,
And I think in the end we will find
That there is no motive at all.

—Josephine Canning, in Evangelist.

The Advantages of Intelligent Poverty.

A successful business man says that the children of home missionaries, and of poorly supported preachers, have better advantages than the children of wealth, and that observant employers know it. They have the advantage of the closest intimacy with a man of education and culture, their father, and with a mother who is his equal, for all practical purposes, in these accomplishments. They are led into the best society of the neighborhood where they live. In these advantages they are not second to the children of wealthy parents. With these they have the great advantage, which the others have not, of being trained in a family where the practice of economy and the cultivation of habits of industry are indispensable. They learn the value of industry by experience, and estimate money by what it costs. It is a fact, our informant tells us, that such young men and young women do find readier access into the avenues of promotion, and beat those who are apparently more favored, in the race of life. Every man or woman, who is a parent, soon ceases to toil for self and works for the children. But money will not give the benefits obtained by the children of educated and pious parents in very moderate circumstances. Such parents already have for their children that which money not only cannot purchase, but that which it pushes out of reach—Chicago Interior.

SOMETHING NEW.—There has always been great difficulty in getting water-proof coats to fit satisfactorily about the neck and shoulders, for stout and round-shouldered men. You can avoid this and have a perfect fit by leaving your measure with us. We have made arrangements with an English firm to have these coats made on our own patterns, so that we are in a position to warrant a good fit. We can show over 100 samples of the good from which the coats will be made, ranging in price from $8 to $24. Every coat warranted to come the same as sample of goods shown. You can have better material and cheaper than buying ready-made goods.—John McLeod & Co., Merchant Tailors. [aug 27 ff]

ELECTRIC GLOSS.

FOR cleaning Solid Silver, Nickel, Brass, Copper and Plate Glass. Quick! Sure! Permanent! No dirt, no trouble, no labor. Being entirely free from grit and acids, it cannot injure the most finely polished surface. It is the only preparation ever produced that will polish brass or copper without the use of acid. Nothing approaches it for removing grease and finger marks from Brass, Copper, Glass, etc.; while for cleaning Nickel or Stoves it is especially useful. Retail price, 25 cents per bottle.

MICA WASH.—This wash is the only thing of the kind ever invented. A stove may be as handsome as a jewel and shine like ebony; but smoked mica lights will spoil it all. Day by day mica becomes scarcer and higher in price, and an article that will clean and preserve it is valuable to all concerned. Try this wash once, and you will always use it. Retail price, 25 cents per bottle.

DR. SOPHIA POTTER'S Bone Rheumatic Liniment

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been imposed upon by others but is positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power.
All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.
