Obituary.

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the death of Mary Bella Munro, eldest daughter of Mrs. Catherine Munro, Upper Montague, who calmly passed away on Tuesday, June 24th, at the early age of 22 years. The deceased was a girl of sterling character and amiable disposition, and to know her was to love and respect her. During her prolonged illness, which lasted for nearly two years, she exhibited great patience, fortitude, and resignation to the Divine Will; she loved to meditate on the tender mercies of her Redeemer, and to study God's Holy Word.

Her last words, before passing away, bore the glorious testimony that she was going to that reward which remains for all God's people.

To her sorrowing mother, sister and relatives, we tender our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of bereavement, but they mourn not as those without hope, for they have the blessed assurance that she has gone to that land where pain, sickness and sorrow are unknown.

Her remains were conveyed to Valleyfield Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, followed by a very large concourse of people, and there interred, to await the resurrection morn.—Com

Address to Mr. James Kelly.

Mr. James Kelly, Teacher.

DEAR SIR,—Having learned of your intention of leaving this district for one near your native home, we, the undersigned, appointed as a committee by the inhabitants of Peake's Station School District, thus wait upon you to express our regret at your departure from among us. Since your connection with our School District you have discharged your duties as Teacher in a most satisfactory manner. Please accept this purse as a small token of the esteem in which you are held by your pupils. We are sure we voice the sentiments of all your acquaintances and friends when we say that your departure has always been such as to meet the esteem of all. In bidding you farewell, be assured you carry with you our warmest and best wishes, and that you may be long spared in health and strength, and that you may continue to discharge with credit to yourself and advantage to others the duties you have so long and honorably held in our District, is, we feel assured, the sincere wish of every inhabitant of this District.

Signed on behalf of the inhabitants of Peake's Station School District. LINUS WALKER, HENRY R. MOONEY, HUGH CURRIE, ADAM JAY, JAMES MOONEY.

REPLY.

Messrs. Linus Walker, Henry R. Mooney, Hugh Currie, Adam Jay and James Mooney:

KIND FRIENDS,—I am greatly at a loss for words to give expression to the warm feelings of gratitude awakened within me by your kind and flattering address and the generous gift accompanying it. I fear I do not merit your words of praise, and that I am undeserving of the handsome purse with which you have presented me. Let me assure you, dear friends, that I prize the kind words of your address more than gold and while through you I sincerely and heartily thank my little friends for this valuable gift, I would be loth to accept it did I not know it was a tangible expression of friendship and regard, prompted by the generous hearts of my esteemed friends of Peake's.

You are pleased to refer in flattering terms to the manner in which I discharged my duties as teacher of your school during the last four and a half years. In this connection I wish to say that I merely endeavored to do my duty, to the best of my humble ability, and I'm glad to know that my efforts in this direction have been appreciated by you and have merited your approval. This affords me the greatest satisfaction and pleasure. But if your school has advanced a little since I took charge of it only a small share of the credit is due to me. I found your children obedient, kind, apt and intelligent, to whom it was a pleasure to impart instruction, and your encouraging words, ready and hearty co-operation with me in all school work lightened my labors and tended to make my duties in the school room a "labor of love." Like many others I must confess to my short comings, and at times I may have been impatient and even a little harsh with my pupils, but now as I am bidding them good bye I hope my little friends will forget my faults and only remember the many pleasant hours we spent together in the school room. I hope the children will be as obedient and their parents as kind and indulgent to my successor as they have been to me, and I trust your school may attain a higher degree of advancement and proficiency under the supervision of your new teacher than it did under the management of your humble servant, and who knows but we may some day read of another successfullander abroad, who may be able to trace his first step on the road to fame to the quiet little schoolroom at Peake's.

Now, in bidding you good bye, I feel I cannot sufficiently thank my kind friends, both old and young, throughout the district, for their cheerful greetings, hospitality and kind treatment extended to me on all occasions. I can only assure you that the pleasing recollections of the happy years I spent in your midst will long remain dear spots in "memory's waste," and wherever my lot may be cast, I will always remember my many true and kind friends at Peake's.

Once more thanking you for your kind words and valuable gift, and sincerely wishing you and your families unbounded happiness and prosperity,

I remain, gentlemen, Respectfully yours, JAMES KELLY.

Montague Notes.

At the annual school meeting held here on the 17th ult., Mr. W. C. White, whose term of office expired, was again re-elected trustee for another term. The trustees now are Messrs. John J. Macdonald, Duncan M. Campbell and W. C. White. A large amount of money was voted for the running expenses of the schools, besides $145 for supplements to teachers. The vacation was changed from spring and autumn to mid-summer and Christmas, viz: five weeks in Summer and two at Christmas. The teachers are the same as last year, with the exception of Mr. McIntyre who has retired from the School, and Mr. J. Balderson takes his place as principal.

It will be remembered that about the middle of last December, Capt. J. Kiwin was accidentally drowned by falling overboard from the schooner Primrose, when lying at Montague. Nothing more was heard about the matter until the last of May, when the body of a man drifted ashore at Mabou, Cape Breton. From a description published in the Sydney Herald the body was supposed to be that of Capt. Kiwin. Enquiries were instituted regarding the matter, when it was found that the clothing on the body and the keys found in one of the pockets were fully identified as being on his person the day he was first missed. The body was interred in the R. C. Cemetery at Mabou.

Mr. Horatio Nelson has purchased from Mr. R. C. McLeod, of Summerside, a handsome thoroughbred Jersey calf about two months old. "Gannaque" is of a lawn colour and possesses all the essential points for the development of a most valuable animal. Competent judges say that he is as true a type of the pure jersey as can be found in any part of the Dominion and will be a valuable acquisition to the farming community.

The steamer Eldon is proving quite a success, financially and otherwise. She performs her trips with speed and regularity. Although small, yet she is but the forerunner of a large and more accommodating one which the company intend to place on the route at no distant day. Your correspondent at Georgetown appears to feel sore about the excursion to Souris. Had the party remained at Georgetown, most likely he would have given a gloomy description of the Eldon. From the tone of his no es his liver appears to be badly affected. It would be advisable for him to try a liver pad, and by the time the Eldon calls at Georgetown again with another excursion party, he may see her in a different light.

Improvement is the order of the day in the village. New building are being erected and old ones are being enlarged and improved. The paint and white-wash brush contribute in no small degree towards the bright and pleasing appearance of the many neat and comfortable residences that meet the eye in every direction. M.

Literary Notes.

The last issue of the Dominion Illustrated is an illustration of the force of example. The previous number was devoted to Victoria, B. C. Of course, long before its appearance, the fact that it was due was well known in the North-West. And not without result, evidently. Calgary has quickly followed suite—the present number being almost wholly given up to that thriving western centre. Eastern Canadians would hardly, perhaps, expect that so much could be said about a place so young; but, a glance at the pages of the Calgary number of the Dominion Illustrated will convince the most incredulous that Alberta and its fair metropolises comprise many features of rare interest in scenery, resources, population and general progress and that even the best informed will find in this rich number the means of adding considerably to their store of knowledge. The illustrations and accompanying letter press are of historic value and are well worthy of preservation. Address: Dominion Illustrated, 73 St. James St., Montreal.

THE EXAMINER has received a copy of "Knowledge," a new weekly magazine just issued by John B. Alden, publisher, 293 Pearl Street, New York. "Knowledge" occupies a new field, and if it accomplishes what it undertakes, it ought to be indispensable to every owner of a cyclopaedia. It proposes to answer the almost infinite number of questions upon which one sometimes consults a cyclopaedia, and fails to find the answer, because the cyclopaedia is not "up to date." If you consult any cyclopaedia, and fail to find the answer to your question, or you find authorities differing, send a postal card to "Knowledge," and find your answer in the next week's issue. The magazine is published in handy form, and a complete index is promised twice a year, with bound volume at nominal price to the subscribers. A specimen copy of the magazine will be sent free to any applicant. The price is only $1 a year.

New Perth School Examination.

The public examination of this School took place on the afternoon of the 17th inst.
