Meeting of Presbytery.

The Presbytery of P. E. Island met in Zion Church, Charlottetown, on the 2nd inst. There was a full attendance of members. Rev. S. C. Gunn was chosen Moderator for the current year, and Rev. J. M. MacLeod was re-elected Clerk.

Rev. Mr. Gunn was appointed to moderate in a call to Mr. A. B. MacLeod on Tuesday, the 15th inst., in Cardigan, at 11 o'clock a. m., and in Dundas at 6 o'clock p. m., Rev. Dr. Murray to preach and to give notice of said moderation in Cardigan on Sabbath, the 6th inst., at 3 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. MacLennan was appointed to preach and moderate in a call to Mr. A. B. MacLeod, in Woodville. The time of moderation to be fixed by Mr. MacLennan himself. Messrs. MacLennan, Grant, and Stewart were appointed a committee to visit the congregation of Woodville and Little Sands at an early day—Mr. MacLennan, confereur.

Rev. Mr. Carr reported that he had, according to appointment, notified the congregation of West Cape of their pastor's resignation, and cited them to appear for their interests at this meeting. He also submitted the following resolution, unanimously passed by the congregation:

That Whereas, Rev. Charles Fraser has laid his demission of the congregation of West Point and Campbellton before the Presbytery of P. E. Island,

Therefore Resolved, That we hereby express our unabated attachment to Mr. Fraser, our sense of the obligations under which he has placed us by the zeal and success that have distinguished his labors while our pastor, and our sincere regret that he is going to leave us. At the same time we feel that he has not taken the present step without having given it due consideration, and that no inducement we could hold out would persuade him to remain, and therefore we acquiesced in his decision.

Further resolved that Messrs. Holton and James McNeill to a delegation to represent our interests at the next meeting of Presbytery. Rev. Mr. Fraser still adhered to his resignation and pressed its acceptance. Whereupon the Presbytery accepted Mr. Fraser's demission of the pastoral charge of West Cape, Campbellton and Bras, the same to take effect on and after the 3rd Sabbath of August. The Rev. Mr. Carr was appointed to preach in and declare such congregation vacant on 27th of August and to act as Interim Moderator of their Session. Reverends Dr. Murray, James Allen, and J. M. MacLeod were appointed to prepare a suitable minute in reference to Mr. Fraser, to be engrossed in the records of Presbytery.

The following changes were made in the congregation of Alberton and Tignish, viz: Mill River was disjoined from the congregation of Tignish and Montrose, and united with the congregation of Alberton; and Elmisdale was disjoined from Alberton and united with Tignish and Montrose. Hon. Benjamin Rogers was appointed an Assessor to act with the session of Tignish, Montrose and Elmisdale, and Rev. Mr. Carr Interim Moderator of said session.

Rev. Mr. Scott laid on the table of the Presbytery his demission of the congregation of St. Peter's and Brackley Point Roads.

Rev. C. D. MacLarn was appointed to supply Georgetown and Montague for the first two Sabbaths of August and Rev. Henry Crawford for the last two.

Mr. A. B. MacLeod was appointed to West Cape for the first Sabbath of August and to Cardigan and Dundas for the remainder of that month, and to West Cape for 1st and 2nd Sabbaths of September, and to Woodville for 3rd and 4th Sabbaths of the same month.

Mr. Montgomery is continued at Woodville till the end of August, and Mr. James Mackenzie at Tignish till the end of September.

Mr. William H. Ness to preach on the 2nd Sabbath of September, at Lot 16, at eleven o'clock, a. m., and Lot 14, at three o'clock, p. m., and the 3rd Sabbath of September at Lot 11, at eleven o'clock, a. m.; Tyne Valley, at 2.30, and at Elmout Bay at 6.30 p. m. He was also appointed to Georgetown on the last Sabbath of September, and for the first Sabbath of October.

The Lord's Supper is to be dispensed at Lot 11, by Rev. Mr. Carr on the 6th inst., at Lot 14, by Rev. George McMillan, on the 13th inst., and at Montague Bridge, on 27th inst. Rev. Mr. Frame. It was agreed to hold a meeting of Presbytery in Tyne Valley on 16th August, and in St. James' Church, Charlottetown, on the 13th of September, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

J. M. McLEOD,
Secretary.

A scheme was laid in the West to capture the Princess Louise, who was expected to accompany the Marquis of Lorne on his recent tour to Manitoba. The conspirators formed the project of swooping down upon her and keeping her as a hostage until the Irish suspects should be released, but as the Princess did not then come out to Canada the plot failed, "because the detectives had worked it out, sent over a warning, and she prudently remained in England." Last autumn they planned an expedition to Bermuda, and selected men to go, with a view of blowing up a Government floating dock there. The men arrived safely out, and were proceeding by cautious steps to execute their mission, when the Bermuda authorities, acting as if somebody had informed them what was in the wind, they were obliged to return to New York.

A Kentucky negro, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for three years for stealing copper worth $25, when asked by the Judge if he had anything to say, remarked that he had not, but only regretted that he hadn't stolen a drove of cattle instead of that piece of copper. The joke lay in the fact that a man had just been sentenced for one year for stealing eighteen head of cattle.

Egyptian War Notes.
A ROMANCE IN ARABIC LIFE.

A letter writer at Alexandria, a woman, gives a highly romantic explanation of the Egyptian question. Her story is that Arabi, early in his career, fell madly in love with an Egyptian girl, the daughter of a fe'lah, but the usurious Ismail, the father of the present Khedive, also took a fancy to the girl, and had her carried off to his harem without even saying "by your leave." He tried to pacify the luckless Arabi by making him a bey; but Arabi never forgot the injury, and from that moment vowed dire vengeance upon Ismail and all his family.

EGYPTIAN BRAVERY.
Writing of the bravery of the Egyptians, the Alexandria correspondent of the Daily News says: "They have well earned the honor of being the first to face the most tremendous artillery fire ever opened in any warfare. Nor can it be said that ignorance made them bold, for the first few rounds from our heavy guns produced effects positively frightful to witness, even from a point of safety, while to have stood under such avalanches of iron without flinching, proves the Egyptians to have some good stuff among them still.

ARAB ODDITIES.
An Arab on entering a house removes his shoes, but not his hat. He mounts his horse upon the right side, while his wife milks the cow on the left side. In writing a letter he puts nearly all the compliments on the outside. With him the point of a pin is its head, whilst its head is made its heel. His head must be wrapped up warm even in summer, while his feet may well enough go naked in winter. Every article of merchandise which is liquid he weighs, but he measures wheat, barley, and a few other articles. He reads and writes from right to left. He eats scarcely anything for breakfast, about as much for dinner; but after the work of the day is done, he sits down to a hot meal swimming in oil, or better yet, boiled butter. His soas eat with him, but the females of his house wait till his lordship is done. He rides a donkey when travelling, his wife walking behind. He laughs at the idea of walking in the street with his wife, or of ever vacating his seat for a woman. He knows no use for chairs, tables, knives, forks, or even spoons, unless they are wooden ones. Bedsteads, bureaus and fireplaces may be placed in the same category. If he be an artisan he does work sitting, perhaps using his feet to hold what his hands are engaged upon. He drinks cold water with a sponge, but never bathes in it unless his home be on the sea shore. He is rarely seen drunk, is deficient in affection for his kindred, has little curiosity and no imitation, no wish to improve his mind, no desire to surround himself with the comforts of life.

AROUND ABOUKIR.

The situation at Aboukir is embarrassing. The "Helicon" with Admiral Seymour on board, has just returned from reconnoitering the forts. He found operations being actively carried on there. The earthworks were being strengthened and fresh cannon mounted. A Monecriell battery was apparently being constructed at the western extremity. All the forts are well armed with heavy rifled ordnance. Nothing is as yet settled as to bombarding them. In fact some doubt is entertained whether the bombardment will take place at all, as it is supposed the prisoners held by the Egyptians are confined therein. This is likely to cause great inconvenience, perhaps grave hurt, as the fortifications are easily reached from Kafr-el Dwar—of which they are, in fact, a continuation, and can accommodate a very large garrison. Besides this the forts command the only sheltered anchorage near here available for our largest ironclads. There are four as yet unmounted 25-ton guns there, and ten thirteen-ton guns ready for action. Aboukir Lake is now little more than a dried-up marsh, and infantry might even escape across it to Arabi Pasha's lines. This would lead to a most interesting movement at Ramleh, for it is thought the enemy would attack our position in order to cover his countrymen's retreat across to lake. It would be an odd coincidence if the echoes of Aboukir should reawaken to the roar of the English cannon on the exact anniversary of Lord Nelson's victory eighty-four years ago.

THE CHIEF FIELD for the efforts of Mormon missionaries would appear to be in Scandinavia. The last Mormon cargo landed at Castle Garden, about eight hundred in number, came direct from Gothenburg to Hull, England, where they were met by several Mormon elders from Liverpool, now the centre of Mormonism in England, Scotland and Ireland, being unrepresented. They were brought by special train to the latter port for embarkation. Many young married couples were to be found in company with aged men and women, with their families of grown-up sons and daughters.
