

The Daily Examiner

AUGUST 26, 1885.

Editorial Notes.

Tea is being laid down in New York, via Northern Pacific Railway, at a cost for freight from Yokohama of 2.12 cts per lb.

It is reported that several of the lobster factories are still in operation, despite the order to "close down" on Saturday last.

The reaction in East Durham made apparent by the late by-election is simply terrible. In the principal town of the Riding—Port Hope—the Liberal majority in 1882 was 87; the other day the Liberal-Conservative majority was 33.

The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the grain trade, says forty-two per cent. of the returns received represented the wheat crop to be over the average; fifty-six per cent. of oats returns, 73 per cent. of beans returns, and 81 per cent. of peas returns show the crops to be under the average.

The Buffalo Courier has the following on the action of those agitators who have sought to make capital in this country out of their efforts among the French-Canadians of the United States to create sympathy with, and raise funds for the defence of the rebel leader, not a small portion of the money gathered going to pay the expenses of the peripatetic canvassers.

French-Canadians living in the United States and others ought to perceive that any interference in behalf of Riel on the part of the United States Government would only lessen the unfortunate's chances of a commutation of sentence.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.—A despatch from Port Dalhousie, Ont., on the 19th inst., says: Mr. Wanley Clarke, aged eight years, son of the late collector of this port, and Miss Gertrude Kennedy, of Toronto, were drowned near lock No. 3 of the New Welland Canal about nine o'clock last night.

A YOUTHFUL INVENTOR.—A young man, named David Moore, has invented an ingenious contrivance to assist those who wish to learn to swim, or to act as a safeguard to those liable to be seized with cramps while in the water.

THE CASE OF JOHN GARROW, a member of No. 1 Company, 32nd Battalion, Port Elgin, who was sentenced to twenty days' imprisonment in the county jail for neglecting to respond to the call to arms when they were ordered to the front, amply illustrates the penalty which may be enforced upon a volunteer for disobedience of orders and cowardice.

SUDDEN DEATH IN A DOCTOR'S OFFICE.—On Wednesday, 19th, Mr. Samuel McKnight, of Nappan, called at Dr. Baxter's office, by appointment, to have a dislocated shoulder treated, the dislocation having occurred some time previously.

GIVING MACKEREL AWAY.—The pilot schooner, May Queen, came to Nainthhead Wharf with some 50 or 60 barrels of Mackerel, having been in company with two Gloucester fishmen, who filled all their empty space with Nos. 2 and 3 mackerel, they having hauled with their seines some 250 barrels.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Unfair and Unmanly Reflections.

SIR,—At the last meeting of Council a letter was read addressed to Councillor Crabbe in which I stated, as one of the assessors, that the Finance Committee had not given me any instructions to increase the returns made on personal property.

Councillor Curtis thought fit to make some allusion to the veracity of the statement made by me in a very unfair manner, knowing that I was not able to reply.

PHILIP LARGE.

Meeting of Presbytery.

The Presbytery of P. E. I. met in St. James' Hall, Charlottetown, on the 25th inst., and was constituted by Rev. Geo. McMillan, Moderator; Sediment: Revs. James Allan, J. M. McLeod, A. McLean, Wm. R. Frame, J. G. Cameron, A. Raulston, Wm. Grant, Wm. P. Archibald, A. S. Stewart, James Caruther, Geo. McMillan, E. Gillis, A. W. Mahon and W. H. Spencer; and Messrs. Daniel McLaren and Donald Beaton, Elders.

Elder's commissions were read and sustained from the Kirk session of Murray Harbor, Brookfield, St. James, Prince-town, Tignish, Montrose and Elm-dale and East St. Peter's, appointing Messrs. George Bell, Donald Campbell, A. L. Brown, Wm. B. Donald, David Gordon and George Dingwell respectively, to represent them in Presbytery and Synod during the current year.

A cordial vote of thanks was tendered to Rev. Wm. P. Ashbane, M. A., retiring moderator for the able, faithful and difficult manner in which he had discharged the duties of that office during the past year.

It was agreed to apply to the Synod's Augmentation Committee for grants to the following congregations: Tryon and Bonshaw, Cove Head, Richmond Bay West, Richmond Bay East, West Cape, Tignish, and Bay Fortunes to aid them in raising their ministers' salaries to the minimum sum of $750 and a manse.

Rev. A. F. Carr was appointed to moderate in a call from Richmond Bay West, to Rev. D. Currie, of Three Rivers, Quebec, on 7th Sept., at 6.30 p.m., in the Church of Tyne Valley. Mr. J. R. Coffin, to give notice of said moderation on Sabbath first, and to exchange with Mr. Carr on the 6th September.

A letter was received from the Clerk of the Presbytery of Miramichi, intimating that a call from St. John's Church, Chatham, to Rev. Neil McKay, of Summerside, would be sustained and forwarded to this Presbytery in a few days, and requesting that a meeting would be held at an early day for the consideration of said call. It was accordingly agreed to hold an adjourned meeting of Presbytery at Summerside, on 15th September at 11 o'clock a.m.

J. M. McLeod, Pbt'y Clerk.

Boston Markets.

Boston, Aug. 22.

Eggs—There has been a good demand for fresh eggs and prices are firm. Eastern extra command 17c, and Northern find buyers at 16 to 16 1/2c. Good marks of Island command 16c. Fresh stock are closely sold up. We quote P. E. Island at 16c.

FISH—Receipts of Mackerel at Boston for the week have been 5,929 brls, including 1,609 brls from the fleet, 3,635 brls from outports and 685 brls from foreign ports. There has been a further falling off in the catch as shown by the receipts at all New England ports, the total quantity landed being 14,804 brls against 19,313 brls for the week previous and 39,900 brls the week before.

The London Standard of the 24th inst., has a very strong article on the demonstration at Hyde Park on Saturday. It says the meeting was composed mainly of on-lookers and that the procession was a miserable affair.

THE TOBIQUE RAILWAY.—A large party of gentlemen, including several members of the government, have just returned from a trip up the Tobique River to the plaster quarries. It is the intention to build a branch railroad from the New Brunswick railway to the quarries, which are said to be of unusual richness.

A TWELVE YEAR old daughter of Charles Ross, residing near Nat Belyea's Point, N. B., was fatally burned on Sunday, and died a few moments after the accident occurred.

THE outcome of Gen. Grant's literary work is going to be a handsome income for his widow.

CURRENT NOTES.

Le Nord, the Russian organ at Brussels, says that Russia has re-assured China and Japan of her pacific intentions.

An anti-German demonstration, similar to the one in Madrid, was made in every one of the Spanish provinces on Sunday.

Information has been received at Cairo that Dongola has been occupied by 4,000 dervishes, who are armed with 8,000 rifles.

A despatch from the Hague says: The league of Dutch women has sent a memorial to Parliament, praying for the suppression of the traffic in girls.

The political crisis in Denmark is renewing. There are four deputies in prison on a charge of treason. The trial of the leader of the opposition is impending.

Cardinal Manning, of London, thinks the best monument that could be erected to the memory of the heroic General Gordon would be the civilization of the Soudan—and he is right.

The Prince of Wales sailed from Aberdeen, Scotland, on Saturday last, on the yacht Osborne, for a cruise along the coast of Norway. The Prince will also go to Denmark to visit the king of that country.

Language, you know, was given to man to conceal his thoughts, and you never realize it so intensely as you do when you see the minister sit down violently just after his heel has found a square inch or so of banana peel under it, and hear him mildly ejaculate, "Dear me!"

The religious festival of the crowning of our lady of Boulogne, took place in that city on Sunday. The ceremony was performed by the Nuncio in the presence of 50,000 persons. A statue of the Virgin was carried in procession through the town. All the church dignitaries took part in the service. At night the town was illuminated.

The Russegna, of Rome, says that a letter addressed to Signor Dorides, editor of the Monteur de Rome, who was arrested recently for selling plans of the maritime defences to a foreign power, has been stopped at the post office. It shows that Dorides was acting as a secret agent to France.

A rich maiden lady named Menetray recently disappeared. A female servant named Mercier told the neighbors that the lady had entered a convent, leaving her to manage her property. The servant brought her own relatives to the house to live. Suspicions being aroused, the police entered the premises and discovered the lady's body buried in quicklime in the garden. The servant and companions tried to escape but were arrested.

The king of Bavaria is hard pressed for funds. He has recently made application to several financial firms in Paris for a loan, offering as a pledge for its security the income of the crown for ten years. The application was unsuccessful. The king has ceased paying the salaries of the court officials, and the ministers decline to ask the chambers to intervene for the purpose of assisting the king, declaring that bankruptcy is eminent.

Experiments conducted by the Dutch State Railroad on the behavior of different paints for ironwork have shown that red lead best resists the action of the atmosphere. It was discovered, too, that the coat holds better on iron plates cleaned by pickling than when the plates have been scraped or brushed.

The feud between the Davitt and Parnell sections of Nationalists has been urged him to maintain his opposition unless Parnell disowned any alliance, tacit or otherwise, with the conservatives. Davitt decided, however, for the unity of the party in the coming election, to adhere to Parnell.

Ch'town, Aug. 26—1mo pat

I OBSERVE that one of our City Dailies is parading in yesterday's issue a list of its advertising patrons, and that my name is among them, and that an advertisement of mine appears in its columns.

This advertisement I never ordered in that paper, but it was copied by the managers of that energetic sheet from the Presbyterian, with which I had a contract. I shall be told that I should order its discontinuance, but were I to adopt this course I should doubtless be posted as "originating Rome" or as a "flattering, syphantic, political trickster."—I quote some of its choice expressions I think that the case is one of hardship and I understand that there are several others in a like position with myself. Would it not be more honest in the managers of that delectable sheet to publish only the names of those who ordered advertising from them, and not to pain off as their patrons, persons who, loving that charity which neither thinketh nor speaketh evil, desire no business transactions with such a concern. However, I decline paying for advertisements I did not order.
