

It's a Poor Rule.

The Marquis de Lorne, when governor general of Canada, was present at some sports held on the ice of the St. Lawrence. Though wrapped in furs he felt the cold acutely and was astonished to see an ancient Indian meandering around barefooted, enveloped only in a blanket. He asked the savage how he managed to bear such a temperature when he had so little on. "Why you no cover face?" inquired the Indian. The marquis replied that no one ever did so, and that he was accustomed to have his face naked from birth. "Good," rejoined the prairie king. "Me all face." And he walked away.—San Francisco Wave.

Even Worse.

She—Do you know anything worse than a man taking a kiss without asking for it?
He—I do.
She—What, for instance?
He—Asking for it without taking it.—Illustrated Bits.

Avoiding Risks.

Gladys—Papa's going to give us a check at the wedding instead of a present, Tom.
Tom—All right. We'll have the ceremony at high noon, then, instead of at 4 o'clock.
Gladys—Why, what for, dear?
Tom—Banks close at 3.—Detroit Free Press.

The Proper Way.

Laura—I get so nervous trying to pass pedestrians.
Flora—It is no trouble if you know just how. All one has to do is to wobble one's wheel until the pedestrian gets so scared he can't move, and then he is as easy to pass as a post.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

On to His Game.

"There goes Stubbins trying to fool the neighbors. His wife is away from home, and he wants the woman next door to tell her what a dull time he had."
"What has he got in that basket?"
"His dress suit."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

MEDITERRANEAN RENTS.

Highest at Gibraltar and Lowest on the Island of Malta.

In no place on the surface of the globe is rent so high as at Gibraltar, the reason being that the geographical position of the town precludes the possibility of its being extended in any direction. A long, narrow strip of what was once seabach is alone available for building purposes. All the rest is precipitous rock.
Upon this narrow parapet, in some cases less than 100 yards in width, are crowded the homes of 25,000 people. As much as $10 a week is asked and obtained for the use of one small room, and this, too, in a place where the normal rate of wages is quite 10 per cent less than in America. Naturally the overcrowding is fearful, and the water supply being scarce and intermittent, cleanliness of living as we understand it is almost impossible.

No wonder that in the old days the plague and the cholera ravaged the "rock" with a virulence unknown in the filthy and pestilential cities of the far east.

In Malta, on the other hand, house rent is ridiculously cheap. Anywhere outside of Valetta an excellent seven room house can be had for $15 a year, while rates and taxes are unknown. The houses are built entirely of the cream colored stone of which the island is composed, and which is so soft that it can be cut with a saw into blocks or slabs of any desired size or shape. So while the Maltese builder is digging up his foundation he is at the same time getting out the material for his walls, his flooring and his roof.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The King of Siam's Name.
I met a man who looked distraught. His hair and dress disheveled. While in a hutch pouch strange of words Persistently he repeated.

"Soudetch," he cried, "Pattindir Ra, Parana Chad Mabrenge, Parumadharum Hiraja Phra Pabito Chula Wongse.

"Waraktiara Mika Chak Purusaratua Parabut Bujed Debiak Chulalongkorn Ra Hua!"

But here I stopped the breathless man. I own not greatly caring To longer hear what seemed to be More oriental swearing.

"Swearing!" he cried. "Indeed you're wrong. You ill advised inquirer. I'm only rattling off the names Of our last royal visitor."

"Gsanakes Phra," he recommenced With arduo undiminished. "Chomklua"—but when we went to press His hnda't nearly finished.

Hood's Pills
Are gaining favor rapidly. Business men and travelers carry them in vest pockets, ladies carry them in purses, housekeepers keep them in medicine closets, friends recommend them to friends. 2c.

You may get over that slight cold all right, but it has left its mark on the membranes lining your throat. You are liable to take another cold and the second one will hang on longer than the first. Scott's Emulsion is not an ordinary cough specific, but it is "the ounce of prevention." It builds up the system, checks inflammation and heals inflamed membranes. "Slight" colds never bring serious results when it is promptly taken.

HORSE TALK.

The Old Orchard track is as fast as ever.

Elloree's filly, by Allerton, has a foal at foot by that horse.

Red Star, 2:12½, has been sent home and will probably be retired for the season.

Before being defeated once Minnie McGregor won nine straight races this season.

Josephine, 2:10, and Vernonia S, 2:12½, are both out of Kansas Wilkes mares.

The first return of Vassar, 2:07, to the turf was characterized by his winning a race.

Allertine, the bay mare by Allerton, has reduced her record to 2:27½, in a winning race.

Palmetto Prince, in the stable of Gypsy Haight, is reported to have worked a mile at Fort Erie recently in 2:05½.

Jay Bird's second 2:20 performer for the year is the 5-year-old mare Jolly Bird, who went a third heat in 2:20 at Portsmouth, O.

Secretary T. H. Coleman is credited with the statement that the New York State Trotting Horse Breeders' association will offer $25,000 in purses next year.

The mare Effie O, 2:15¾, by Lucas Brodhead, died recently at Laporte, Ind., after foaling a colt by Outline, 2:04. She was owned by Mr. William Orr of Laporte.

The well known trainer George Starr has the honor of being the first man to breed, train, own and drive a horse better than 2:06, which honor he holds with Planet, 2:05½.

George Van Dyke, who bought Frank Bogash, also owns Early Bird, 2:10, as stanch and game a trotter as ever stood a long, hard drive down a home stretch, and Mascot, Jr, 2:10¾.
