"H'mm, not bad" seems to be the general comment by a group of interested spectators closely observing one of the many plowing events staged at Dundas yesterday.

Detective Saw Suchan, Jackson Fire Shots

TORONTO, Sept. 24 — (CP)—Det.-Sgt. Roy Perry, star witness in the crown's case in the murder trial of Steve Suchan and Leonard Jackson, said today Suchan fired two shots and Jackson one in the March 6 shooting in which Det.-Sgt. Edmund Tong was slain.

Perry gave the Suchan-Jackson hearing an account of events leading up to the shooting in which Tong was fatally wounded and Perry himself suffered a bullet wound in the right arm.

Detroit, Sept. 24 — (AP)—Clarence E. Blecher, 62, president and general manager of the Chrysler Corp. De Soto Division, died last night in hospital.

ing if he is willing to work", the Premier said in telling his listeners that a union is no good to a farmer who can set his own hours.

Best Men Needed

He stated that times were going to improve here steadily regardless of which political party was in power and suggested that the people get good men into the government. He did not believe that the best type of men were entering politics and offered a remedy.

Several other speakers were heard briefly following the opening. Mr. Lou Roper, Provincial Department of Agriculture, agreed on the value of combining the Dundas and Souris fairs.

He thought the fair might exhibit all breeds of cattle instead of confining itself to just one type and said that the Dundas show should be a central fair for all King's County to give exhibitors from all its areas a better chance to show.

Mr. George Saville, M. L. A., said that all are anxious for Prince Edward Island to prosper but the weak point was the loss of younger men to other provinces. He said any young farmer willing to work can assure himself of a livelihood and a good home here and should think twice before leaving.

Claim Medication Did Not Irritate Rocky's Eyes

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24 — (AP) Jersey Joe Walcott's handlers said today no medication was used on the former champ last night that could have irritated Rocky Marciano's eyes.

Marciano blinked both eyes during the middle portion of the fight and complained to his corner that he couldn't see. "We used a preparation made up of brown vaseline, thymoliodide and adrenalin on the cut over Joe's left eye," said trainer Dan Florio. "That stuff won't irritate anyone. We've been using it for years."

"The only other thing we used on Joe was the cocoa butter we applied all over his body before the fight. It's like olive oil. It helps keep a fighter warm in chilly weather."

Charles Thinks He Can Defeat Rocky Marciano

CINCINNATI, Sept. 24 — (AP) —Ezzard Charles, former heavyweight champion of the world, says he is convinced he can defeat Rocky Marciano, the new title holder, and wants a bout with him. Not right now, however, said the Cincinnati veteran, from whom Joe Walcott took the title with a knockout. "I always thought I could beat Marciano," Charles told a re-
