Displaying Strong Trend

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market weathered the final report of the Securities and Exchange Commission's investigation of the nation's stock exchanges and rang up a strong advance today.

It was the second consecutive day of gain. The Dow Jones industrial average advanced 3.23 points to 67.39.

The market was marking time when the Thursday was released about midday. It quickly improved as Wall Street digested the contents.

The SEC report was a somber business developments and accelerated progress in Congress on the income tax cut bill.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago said it expected expansion in business activity may continue for a substantial period and that the economy's strongest upturn since the Second World War.

Blue chips were led by Monday. It carried through on Tuesday for a third straight day of advance. The rally dried up Wednesday with brokers saying the market was due for a rest.

Anxiety about the SEC report also was a factor. The market was up 10.66 at the close, a late improvement. The rally resumed Friday on a strong note.

The Dow Jones average advanced 3.23 and the Dow Jones industrial average advanced 3.23 and 3.23.

Volume last week totaled 18,461,610 shares against 16,697,414 the previous week and 14,329,402 a year ago.

Record Depth Is Claimed

FRANCE (Reuters)—A world underground depth record of about 40 feet deeper than the record set in 1956 by Frenchman Jo Berger in the same cave.

Stephen Wynn - Roberts, leader of the 31-year-old Kennerly Pearce of Manchester had been prevented other expeditions from bettering the 1956 record.

Wynn-Roberts came out of the cave Friday after spending 10 days underground with the expedition. He returned later to the cave to inspect the team's equipment.

He said he and a frogman with the expedition did not accompany Pearce to his lowest depth because of a lack of proper equipment.

Berlin Wall 2 Years Old

BERLIN (Reuters)—The Berlin border wall which will be two years old Tuesday - has gradually changed from a source of silent enmity into a daily-aching wound in a city scarred by the hot and cold wars of the last 35 years.

West Berliners have been asked to mark the wall's second anniversary quietly and to avoid noisy or violent demonstrations at the East-West Berlin border.

No major incidents are expected, but police reinforcements are being prepared for any possible clashes with the East German police.

The West Berlin city government and the three West Berlin political parties observe the anniversary at a number of ceremonies at a wall-placing ceremony at a wall-placing ceremony at a wall-placing ceremony.
