ICE HUT A HOME

MILTON, Ont. (CP)—Ontario ice fishermen can now have beer or liquor in their ice huts without any worry. Magistrate K. M. Langdon ruled Monday that an ice hut can be considered a temporary residence, and therefore beer or liquor may be kept in it. Dirk Verschoor pleaded guilty to having beer in his car illegally. But when he told the court he was returning from ice fishing, Magistrate Langdon told him to dismiss his plea to not guilty, and dismissed the charges.
