

To the Electors of the Second District of King's County.

GENTLEMEN—The House of Assembly having been dissolved, my connection with you as a Member of that House has consequently terminated for the present. It is, however, my desire to renew the connection; and the assurances I have received from all sections of the District, that my general conduct as a member of the Legislature has earned for me the approval of my constituents, induce me to hope that that desire will be gratified. For nearly twelve years you have honored me with one of the most important trusts which can be committed to a British subject. Throughout that period I have endeavored, under every circumstance—adverse as well as prosperous, out of office as well as in—to merit the confidence reposed in me, by zealously and consistently discharging my duties.

I think it unnecessary here to review any of the measures and principles which I have advocated in the House of Assembly. I feel, however, that I may cherish an honest pride in the reflection, that I have done something towards improving the institutions of my adopted country, by humbly helping others to pass such laws as we deemed essential to the welfare and prosperity of the Colony.

As a guarantee for the fidelity of my conduct in the future, should I be honored with a renewal of your confidence, I will only ask you to remember what it has been in the past. My principles and votes may be misconstrued or falsified. That is commonly the lot of all public men. You know me too well to suppose that I shrink from any explanation when doubt or misconception renders explanation necessary. But the columns of a newspaper do not afford sufficient space for that purpose. Satisfactory explanation can be given only by personal intercourse with those who may entertain the doubt, and on whose minds misrepresentation may have left its impression. I shall, therefore, take an early opportunity to visit you in your various localities, in order to give you such an account of my stewardship as it is your right to demand and my duty to afford. In the meantime, I beg to subscribe myself, Your obedient servant.

EDWARD WHELAN, Charlottetown, May 10, 1858.

The Truth, and nothing but the Truth!

THERE is a most fallacious and unjust report at present in circulation through many parts of the country, viz: That at a meeting of the inhabitants on the Saint Peter's Road, held in their school-house a short time since, for the purpose of nominating candidates for representing the District in the House of Assembly, it is reported that at the said meeting Protestants abused the Roman Catholic Religion, and held the Roman Catholic Bishop up to ridicule and contempt. The assertion is as false as it is unjust. I was present at that meeting, and do solemnly declare that there was not one assertion made derogatory to the Catholics or their Bishop. JOHN ARCHD. MACDONALD. (Generalade, May 10, 1858. 3w

And for the cure of COUGHS; COLDS; WHOOPING COUGH; CROUP; ASTHMA; INFLUENZA; SPITTING OF BLOOD; BRONCHIAL COMPLAINTS; AND ALL DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND AFFECTIONS OF THE LUNGS, and those dreadful and appalling enemies to our race and country, CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT. It is unrivaled, and when it has once been sold it has gained a reputation for itself, without the aid of lengthy advertisements, and it now has the confidence, and is recommended by many high-minded men, and some of our first physicians; and we particularly ask the attention of this class of the community who are afflicted with any complaints of the Throat, Chest or Lungs, to this article, and to Medicine of the Million. Philosophy and Fact.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

THE EXCITING CAUSE OF SICKNESS. The blood is the life-sustaining agent. It furnishes the components of flesh, bone, muscle, nerve and integument. The stomach in its manufactory, the veins its distributors, and the intestines the channels through which the waste matter rejected in its production, is expelled. Upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels, these Pills act simultaneously, relieving indigestion, purifying the fluids, and regulating the excretions. THE NATIONAL COMPLAINT. Dyspepsia is the most common disease among all classes in this country. It assumes a thousand shapes, and is the primary source of innumerable dangerous maladies; but whatever its type or symptoms, however obstinate its resistance to ordinary prescriptions, it yields readily and rapidly to this searching and unpertaining remedy. THE QUANTITY AND QUALITY OF THE BILE ARE OF VITAL IMPORTANCE to health. Upon the liver, the gland which secretes this fluid, the Pills operate specifically, infallibly rectifying its irregularities, and effectually curing Jaundice, Bilious Remittants, and all the varieties of disease generated by an unnatural condition of the organ. A WORD TO FEMALES. The local debility and irregularities which are the especial annoyance of the weaker sex, and which, when neglected, always shorten life, are relieved for the time being and prevented for the time to come, by a course of this mild but thorough alterative. USED THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. Holloway's Pills are equally efficacious in complaints common to the whole human race, and in disorders peculiar to certain climates and localities. ALARMING DISORDERS. Dyspepsia, and derangement of the liver, the source of infirmity and suffering, and the cause of innumerable deaths, yield to these curatives, in all cases however aggravated, acting as a mild purgative, alterative and tonic; they relieve the bowels, purify the fluids, and invigorate the system and the constitution, at the same time. GENERAL WEAKNESS.—NERVOUS COMPLAINTS. When all stimulants fail, the renovating and bracing properties of these Pills give firmness to the shaking nerves and enfeebled muscles of the victim of general debility. Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:— Acne, Dysentery, Liver complaints, tums, Asthma, Erysipelas, Lumbago, Tic-Douloureux, Bil's Complaints, Female Irregularities, Tumours, Blisters on Skin, Itches, Rheumatism, Ulcers, Bow's complaints, Fevers, all kinds, Retention of Urine, Venereal Affections, Colic, Fits, Scrofula, or worms, all kinds, Consumption, Head-ache, King's Evil, Weakness, from Debility, Indigestion, Sore Throats, whatever cause, Deblity, Inflammation, Stone and Gravel, &c., &c. Dropsy, Jaundice, Secondary Symp.

Sold at the Establishments of Professor Holloway, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar) London, and 80, Maiden Lane, New York; also at all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, at the following prices—1s. 3d., 2s. 3d., and 5s. box. There is a considerable saving by taking the larger-sized Box. N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Box.
