GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE.

Hicks-Beach on the Situation.

POSITION OF GREAT BRITAIN STATED.

LONDON, Oct 22.—Sir Michael Hicks Beach, chancellor of the exchequer, speaking at North Shields, announced that the government had opened negotiations with the powers with a view of securing to the subjects of the various powers the "right of developing the respective spheres in which each country is especially interested."

Regarding the Fashoda question, he said he wished cordially to acknowledge the desire evidenced in the speeches of Lord Rosebery and Herbert Asquith to help the government in the matter, "a matter which might develop to the utmost gravity."

"It is impossible," he continued, "for France to maintain that she has political rights in Fashoda. She has naturally and properly asked for time to receive Marchand's report; but until the contrary is proved I decline to believe that France will refuse to withdraw. If she refused, the matter would assume an aspect as grave as is possible between two great nations."

"The government is actuated by the friendliest spirit toward France, and does not wish to inflict humiliation. What we desire is fair treatment. Our work in Egypt is not completed. Africa is big enough for us both—for France in the west and ourselves in the east. Surely we ought to be able to respect one another's rights and claims."

"I hope, trust and believe the question is capable of a friendly solution, but this country has put her foot down. If unhappily another view should be taken by France, the Queen's ministers know that their duty demands."

"It would be a great calamity if, after peace for upward of eighty years, our friendly relations should be disturbed and we should be launched in a great war; but there are greater evils than war, but we shall not shrink from anything that is coming, knowing that we are supported by a united people."

BRIG'T IRMA IS ASHORE

At Entrance to Halifax Harbor.

IS OWNED BY TOOMBS & MATHESON OF CHARLOTTETOWN.

The Crew in a Dangerous Place Fighting for Life.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER]

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct 24.—The brigantine Irma, of Charlottetown, went ashore on Thrum Cap at the entrance of Halifax Harbor on Saturday night.

She is half a mile from shore. The captain and crew have had a hard and steady battle for their lives since she struck.

The poor fellows are still engaged in the struggle with death.

Lifeboats could not get within 200 yards of the vessel yesterday.

Had the lifeboats tried to get closer it would have meant certain death.

Two boats from the city went down but they were equally helpless. All they could do was to stand off outside the shoals and watch the mountainous seas dashing against the brigantine swaying her from side as she rested on the crest of rock upon which she had grounded at night-fall.

The life boats and tugs finally abandoned the scene, but rescuers went to work again at daylight this morning.

LATER

The Crew of the Irma has Been Rescued.

HALIFAX, Oct 24.—The crew of the brigantine Irma were rescued this morning. No lives were lost.

The vessel will be a total wreck.

[The Irma was owned by Messrs Matheson, Toombs and Taylor the latter of whom was captain. She was bound for Halifax from the West Indies, loaded with salt. The vessel was partially insured in Halifax offices. She was 240 tons register, built in Nova Scotia. Captain Taylor is well known here, and is a son-in-law of Mr. John C. Moore, of Richmond street.]

Apples in Norway.

OTTAWA, October 22.—Mr. Sontum, the Canadian agent at Chr's ana, says the apple crop in Norway is ruined and that there is a splendid opening for Canadian fruit, especially Baldwins.

Change in French Opinion.

PARIS, Oct 22.—A remarkable change has come over French opinion on the Fashoda question during the last 48 hours. The attitude of the public is more inflamed and more defiant. This is partly due to the tone of the British press, but more to the British chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, which the authorities call "a provocation that is almost a threat of war."

NO FAITH CURE

ABOUT STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

They Cure Stomach Troubles and Indigestion Anyway. Whether You Have Faith in Them or Not.

More faith will not digest your food for you, will not give an appetite, will not increase your flesh, and strengthen your nerves and heart, but Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do these things, because they are composed of the elements of digestion, they contain the juices, acids and pepsines necessary to the digestion and assimilation of all wholesome food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest food if placed in a jar or bottle in water heated to 98 degrees, and they will do it much more effectively when taken into the stomach after meals, whether you have faith that they will or not.

They invigorate the stomach, make pure blood and strong nerves, in the only way that nature can do it, and that is, plenty of whole some food well digested. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that does us good.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package, or by mail from the Stuart Co., Marshall Mich.

FRANCE AND GREAT BRITAIN.

A Peaceful Solution is Expected.

A FRENCH REPORT SAYS NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

France Tries to Establish Claim-- Marchand Report Not Published

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 24.—While the gravity of the Fashoda question is fully appreciated, there is an underlying feeling on the Stock Exchange that a peaceful solution will be found.

PARIS, Oct. 24.—A semi official note has been issued, which says: "There is no foundation for alarm as to rumors regarding the relations between France and Great Britain. It is equally incorrect to say that extraordinary measures have been taken at any of our naval ports."

The Fashoda yellow book is voluminous, but it does not include Major Marchand's report, which will be published later.

The despatches were largely anticipated by the English Fashoda blue book.

The diplomatic conversations recorded show a curious endeavor on the French side to represent that Marchand's mission was quite as important as General Kitchener's, on the ground that it was against the Khalifa and barbarism.

On September 18th, M. Delcasse, Foreign Minister, informed the British Ambassador to France, in explicit language, that France did not regard Lord Salisbury's claim to Sudan by virtue of conquest as applying to Fashoda, on the ground that an expedition under Captain Leisler dated from a period long before the declaration in the House of Commons by Sir David Gray as to the policy of the British Government to forward the Sudan and at a time when the equatorial provinces were lost to civilization. In fact M. Delcasse argued that unless Great Britain possessed the Sultan's Mandat as well as the Khedive's to acquire all the former Egyptian provinces, France considered herself equally entitled with England to possession of any point occupied by French officers.

CHERBOURG, France, Oct 24.—Orders have been received at the military and naval arsenals to prepare for the arrival of a large body of troops to-morrow. The barracks are being hurriedly put in order for their reception.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The order of the British Admiralty regarding naval re-equipments means a complete telling off, pre-empting of every ship's company in detail.

Four torpedo-boat destroyers which were about to be fitted with the new water tube boilers have had their orders countermanded and have been instructed to redraw their stores.

Officers on leave of absence or unemployed have been notified to hold themselves in readiness to commission the reserve ships if required.

What About the Emperor?

LONDON, October, 22.—The Globe has a despatch from Peking which states that a friend of the reformer Kang Yu Wei named Richard a resident of Peking, in an interview, has affirmed that though the Emperor is not dead he is in the greatest danger. Richard also urged immediate action to restore the Emperor to power, pointing out that there is now a unique opportunity for suppressing the Dowager Empress faction, clearing the way for substantial progress and for the re-establishment of British prestige.

Cheers for Marchand.

DUBLIN, Oct. 22.—Wm. Redmond, Parnellite member of parliament for East Clare, addressing a home rule meeting here last evening called for cheers for Major Marchand, which were given with great heartiness.

Mr. Redmond said: "The sympathies of Irishmen are with France."

JEALOUS HUSBANDS

Kill Their Wives and Themselves.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Two husbands killed their wives and themselves in Jersey City yesterday.

Henry Jones, colored, shot his wife to death and then sent a bullet into his brain at No. 413, Vanhom St.

The police had hardly completed their investigation and sent the bodies to the morgue when five shots were heard in a flat house at 277, Montgomery St.

Garrett, a Frenchman, employed as a Pennsylvania railroad locomotive engineer, had mortally wounded his wife and had wounded himself so badly that he died within a few minutes.

Jealousy was the trouble in each case.

Trafalgar.

LONDON, October 22.—Exceptional interest was taken yesterday in the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar, fought October 21, 1813, when the British fleets, under Admiral Nelson, gained a brilliant victory over the fleets of France and Spain, commanded by Admiral Villeneuve. The cause of this increased outburst of patriotism here is the dispute with France over the Fashoda question, which in some quarters is looked upon as a matter which may possibly bring about war between these two countries. The Nelson column on Trafalgar square was profusely decorated and entwined with a spiral chain of laurel leaves, while red, white and blue flags, each corner of the capital to the lions at the base, which was elaborately embellished with wreaths, flags and evergreens, with a background of crimson cloth, with floral shields in each corner inscribed with Nelson's great victories namely, "St. Vincent," "Camperdown," "The Nile," and "Trafalgar." The morning was showery and misty, but many hundreds of people were present at the square to witness the hoisting of the Union Jack to the top of the pedestal at 8 o'clock.

The provincial towns celebrated the day, hoisting the Union Jack on all the public buildings.

WORLD'S WHEAT CROP

Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-eight a Record Breaking Year.

The Hungarian ministry of agriculture and the several commercial authorities have issued their estimates of the world's wheat crop of 1898. The Beerbohm estimate crop is equivalent to 2,640,000,000 bushels of sixty pounds in the grand total varying but little from the Hungar official estimate. The wheat crop of India for 1898 is officially reported to be 242,921,280 bushels, while the annual average for the previous five years was 226,446,680.

Official figures on area show an increase of 683,172 acres in France; of 218,683 in the United Kingdom; 163,866 in Ontario, Can., and 147,359 in Manitoba, in areas under wheat.

The estimates of production given table published with the report make the crop of 1898 the largest on record at the world's reserve stock had run extremely low before the harvest. The French area under wheat was about 4 per cent greater in 1898. An official estimate for Hungary put the wheat crop at 119,638,000 bushels, against 89,942,000 last year.
