IN MEMORIAM

MacEWEN — In loving memory of my dear father Ernest MacEwen, who passed away December 17th, 1941.

In a graveyard softly sleeping
Close beside a country road
Lies the one I loved so dearly
Gone from us to his abode.

Sadly missed and always remembered by his daughter Blanche Booth, Dearborn, Michigan.

KELLY — In loving memory of Reginald Kelly, who passed away October 31, 1957.

This month comes with deep regret,
It brings back a day we'll never forget.
You fell asleep without goodbye,
But memories of you will never die.
Dear God please take a message
To our loved one up above
Tell him how we miss him
Give him all our love.

Sadly missed by wife and family.

HARRIS — In loving memory of Louis Beck Harris, who passed away October 31, 1951.

Within the garden of our lives
A little rain is sure to fall,
But after that the sun shines through,
To triumph over all.
And so God gives his love divine
With all its healing power:
To give us courage, strength and peace,
To keep through darkened hours.
We are thinking of you today, dear
But then that's nothing new
We thought about you yesterday,
And the day before that, too.
We'll think of you tomorrow,
And each day through the year,
We'll think of you forever,
For to us, you were so dear.
There is no parting from those we love
No distance can divide
For today in memory's garden
We still walk side by side.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by wife Phyllis, and children Wayne, Elayne, Donnie, Geraldine, Clinton and Cindy.

LAVERS — In loving memory of my husband, John Lavers, who passed away on October 31st, 1957.

I have lost a real companion
A life linked with my own.
And day by day I miss you more
As I walk through life alone.
Looking back with memories
Along the path we trod,
I bless the years I had with you
And leave the rest to God.

Lovingly remembered by his wife.

LAVERS — In loving memory of John Lavers who passed away October 31st, 1957.

No more to see his smiling face
Or hear him say hello.
It was a shock, a hard and bitter blow. —
Happy and smiling always content
Loved and respected wherever he went.
Always thoughtful, willing and kind,
These are the memories he left behind.

Lovingly remembered by daughter Shirley, son-in-law Preston, and granddaughter Valorie.

AULD — In loving memory of my dear husband Lewis M. Auld, who passed away October 31, 1958.

He little thought when leaving home,
He would no more return
That he in death so soon would sleep
And leave us here to mourn.
If all the world was ours to give
We'd give it, yes, and more
To see the face of one we loved
Come smiling through the door.
The flowers we place upon your grave,
May wither and decay;
But the love for one who lies beneath
Shall never fade away.

Lovingly remembered by his wife Annie.

AULD — In loving memory of my dear father, Lewis M. Auld, who passed away October 31st, 1949.

Nine years ago we had to part
With one we loved with all our hearts.
We missed his face and kindly ways
With him we spent our happy days.
We know not the pain he bore
We did not see him die
We only know he left home
To return never more.
Many a day his name is spoken
And many an hour he is in our thoughts
A link in our family chain is broken
He is gone from our home, but not from our hearts.
Yet he has not lived and died in vain
For proudly we can say,
He has left a name without a stain
For our tears to wash away.
God only knows we miss him
In a home that is lonely yet
But the hearts that always loved him,
Are the ones who will never forget.

Lovingly remembered by his daughter Clara and grandchildren Elvin and Nan.

MacNEIL — In loving memory of Mrs. Oliver MacNeil, who passed away at Foxboro, Mass., on October 31, 1956.

Her memory is as sweet today
As in the hour she passed away.

Ever remembered by her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Simons.

LAVERS — In loving memory of John Lavers who passed away October 31st, 1957.

The month of October again is here
To us the saddest of the year.
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.
We lived in hope and prayed in vain
To God to make you well again
But he decided we should part
So we watched you go with broken hearts.

Always remembered by Harry, Margaret and family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank Dr. Inman, nurses and staff of King's County Hospital, also teachers and pupils of Pembroke School; also friends and neighbors who sent cards, treats, gifts and helped in any way while our daughter Mavis was a patient in the Montague Hospital. Many thanks.

Carl and Jean Graham, Murray Harbor North.

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness and most generous donations since our recent loss.

Robert Crawford and family, Tryon.

I wish to thank Drs. Beer and Moise and staff of the Prince County Hospital for their kindness to me while a patient there; also all those who sent flowers, cards and treats, and all those who visited me, thus making my stay a pleasant one.

Mrs. Leslie Paynter, New London.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the many friends for their kind sympathy and beautiful offerings during the recent bereavement of our beloved brother and uncle, Daniel Roderick MacQueen. Special thanks to Rev. George Turpin for his consoling words, and Pipe Major Malcolm Nicholson for his fitting musical rendition.

The MacQueen family.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. KESTLE B. ROSS

On the morning of August 16, 1958, at the King's County Memorial Hospital, a longtime resident of Union Road, King's County, Mrs. Kestle B. Ross (nee Annabella MacDermid) passed to her eternal Home. Her death, which was sudden and unexpected, came at the time she was thought to be recovering from an injury to her right leg. This injury was the result of a fall in the yard at her own home.

Mrs. Ross was born at Victoria Cross on October 23, 1882. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacDearmid. Around the ago of eighteen she moved to the U.S.A. and for a period of about twelve years she worked at various centres throughout the New England States. In 1916, she married Kestle Ross of Union Road, King's County. Her husband predeceased her in 1949.

For many years Mrs. Ross was an active member of the Montague United Baptist Church, she took a special interest in the Baptist Women's Missionary Society, for a number of years she was a member of the Women's Institute. Keenly aware of the advantages of a good education she was an inspiration to her own family during their educational endeavors. She will be especially remembered by many for her sympathetic understanding and willingness to help others in times of sickness and troubles, always good at visiting those laid aside in hospitals or in their own homes. She, herself, was cheered and gladdened by the many visits of friends and relatives when sickness came to her.

The late Mrs. Ross leaves to mourn her passing one daughter: Evelyn R., Charlottetown; two sons: Alton L., London, Ontario; R. Wilson, Charlottetown; and one sister, Mrs. Katie Nicholson, Bismarck, North Dakota. Mrs. Nicholson who had not visited the Province for the past 29 years, was here this summer and spent considerable time with her sister. Four grandchildren namely: Susan and Gaylene, daughters of Wilson; Heather and Paul, daughter and son of Alton were special favorites. They, too, mourn the loss of a loving grandmother.

The well attended funeral service was held in the new Montague United Baptist Church and was conducted by the pastor, the Reverend A. G. J. Steeves, B.A., B. Ed., B.D. The hymns used in the service were: "Safe in The Arms of Jesus," and "When my Life's Work is Ended." The scripture reading was from John 14. Mrs. Steeves, the wife of the Pastor, sang beautifully a favorite hymn of the deceased "Face to Face."

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Robert Mellish, John W. Campbell, Leslie Campbell, Alan Nicholson, Lloyd Mellish, and Fred Carver.

The flower bearers were: Messrs. Vernon Ross, Billy Thompson, Lloyd Keith, and Stewart McKenna. Interment was in the Montague Community Cemetery.

The floral tributes were as follows:
