

IN MEMORIAM

HICKEN — In the loving memory of my father Charles H. Hicken who passed away on Feb. 12th 1952. Your memory to us is a treasure. Your loss a lifetime regret. Sweet memories we cherish forever. Of one we shall never forget. Always remembered by Dave Mammie and Billy.

ARLING — In loving memory of Gordon Arling who passed away Feb. 11, 1957. This day we do remember. A loving thought we give to one no longer with us. But in our heart still lives. Always remembered by sister (Jessie) Mrs. Earl Mill.

BRADLEY — In memory of our Dad, Edward Bradley who passed away Feb. 12th, 1955. Stella and John.

ARLING — In loving memory of my brother in law, Gordon (Joe) Arling who died one year ago today. Though his smile is gone for ever. And his hand we cannot touch. We shall never lose sweet memories. Of the one we loved so much. Lovingly remembered by Ben Billie and Nancy.

ARLING — In loving memory of our dear son and brother Gordon (Joe) Arling who died one year ago today. His willing hand we surely miss. The heart that was so true. Since Jesus came and called him home. Come there is rest for you. Lovingly remembered by father and family.

MacGREGOR — In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Charles MacGregor, who passed away Feb. 12, 1953.

Her name is often spoken. And our thought in silence fly. To the days when she was with us. For memories never die. We miss her smiles, her kindly ways.

With her we spent our happiest days. Oh may we look with eyes of faith. Far past this world of pain. To blissful scenes of happiness. When we shall meet again. Ever remembered and sadly missed by daughter Margaret.

WARREN — In loving memory of Frank L. Warren who departed this life seven years ago today. Always remembered by daughter and son-in-law, Blye and Albert.

MATTHEWS — In loving memory of Mrs. Margaret Matthews, who departed this life Feb. 18, 1928, and her son Lester, who passed away Feb. 11, 1957. February brings sad memories. Of loved ones gone to rest. They will never be forgotten. By the ones who loved them best.

Inserted by her son, Chester and Wife.

WANTS CLARIFICATION

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP) — J. MacNaught, assistant Canadian commercial secretary, said Monday "considerable difficulty and hardship" is being experienced at present by Canadian exporters because of uncertainty of New Zealand importing policy. New Zealand imposed severe import restrictions at the beginning of the year. MacNaught said it would be a big help if the status of Canadian items could be clarified.

Movie Maverick Lives Own Life

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A maverick among movie stars is Aldo Ray. The guy simply refuses to behave like a star. He doesn't go to the fashionable parties, nor to the noted night spots. His favorite hangouts are a couple of off-the-beaten-path taverns.

He owns no fancy automobile. Matter of fact, he hasn't any. As for the luxurious home — he's currently living in a friend's apartment.

Obviously, Hollywood has not changed the free-living, outspoken constable from Crockett, Calif., in the seven years he has been here. That is a matter of irritation to some people here, notably his boss.

ABUSED EXPENSE ACCOUNT Aldo is employed by Harry Cohn, head of Columbia Pictures and the last tycoon of the movie business. He is the sole remaining studio boss who rules his realm with an absolute and imperious hand. Naturally, the presence of a rebel like Aldo spelled trouble.

It started after Aldo's first starring film, The Marrying Kind, with Judy Holliday. Aldo had gone all over the country to exploit the film and had overtaxed his expense account by sending home presents to his family and Jeff Donnell, whom he was courting.

"I'll admit I overdid it," said Aldo. "When I got back and went to get my salary cheque one week, there wasn't any. I was told they were taking the money out of my cheque for the presents. If they were going to be that way, that was all right with me."

24-CENT CHEQUE He was earning $200 a week at the time. He failed to get it the second week. There was an envelope for him the third week; when he looked at the cheque it read 24 cents.

Aldo thought I was a misprint, but he was told the figure was correct. He endorsed it "Aldo Ray, star of The Marrying Kind" and showed it around the lot. A producer paid a dollar for it, Aldo figuring he couldn't pass up a 300-per-cent profit.

But the cheque turned up on Cohn's desk. Aldo was called in and bawled out unmercifully for trying to show that the studio was cheap. Shortly afterward, he received another cheque — a bonus of $10,000.

Cohn and Ray have clashed numerous times. After a heated exchange in the latest encounter, Aldo was ordered off the lot. Nowadays he visits only the mail room to pick up personal letters. "But it will all be over in August," the actor tiled. "That's the end of my seven-year contract. And what a happy day that will be!"

LABRIEVILLE, Que. (CP) — Roland Bernier, 38, of Ste. Anne, Matane County, died in a snow slide Monday night near this community on the St. Lawrence north shore, 250 miles east of Quebec.

Bernier was working on a road-clearing operation when 15-foot-high snow banks toppled onto him. The slide was started by a tractor working with the crew. The body was discovered five hours later.

Q—Please explain as fully as possible the statement that a drone has no father but has a grandfather on his mother's side.

A—A drone, which is the male bee, has no father; but strange to say, he always has a grandfather (a maternal grandfather). There are three kinds or classes of bees that produce drones from which drones are produced. The queen, after she has mated with a drone, lays two kinds of eggs, fertile and unfertile. The fertile eggs produce worker bees which are undeveloped females and the unfertile eggs produce drones or male bees—a clear case of parthenogenesis, or virgin birth.

A virgin queen, one that has not mated with a drone, due to abnormal conditions, will lay only unfertile eggs which produce only drone bees. So these drones have no father but they do have a grandfather on their mother's side.
