ON Saturday, 13th instant, Donald McDonald recovered a portion of a man's body on the shore of Pictou Island, supposed to be the body of one of the Inveralls' crew. On the next day, Alex. CHAIRS will be reserved on the platform at Joseph Cook's lectures for all clergymen holding tickets, who may apply at the Diamond Bookstore, before noon, on the days of the several lectures. THE TURF.—On the 27th inst., a one mile race for $300 took place at Pictou, between the horses Long John, of Truro, and Maud Morgan, of Halifax. Long John, driven by Brown, won the first heat, but Maud Morgan won the next three. Time 2.47, 2.45, 2.45 1/2. Long John's backers allege that another horse was substituted for Maud Morgan, and the race is protested. LIET. COL. McSHANE last evening inspected No. 3 Company of Infantry, in command of Capt. Stewart. Lieut. Col. Beer and staff were present. No. 3 Company presented a splendid appearance. The men were thoroughly equipped and had their uniform and equipments scrupulously clean. Lieut. Col. McShane after the inspection of the company, complimented the men on their soldierly appearance, and stated that he was highly pleased with his visit to the Island and what he had seen of the militia. ACCIDENT.—Mr. John Mills, of Bay Fortune, met with a painful accident, while engaged in ploughing on the afternoon of Monday last. Having occasion to go to the forward part of the plough, one of his horses kicked him, breaking his leg about six inches below the knee. Dr. Muttart was summoned and attended to the case. Mr. Mills is an industrious and prosperous farmer, and in his affliction he has the sympathy of neighbors and other friends. MR. FERDINAND DE ANGUERA, representing W. H. Johnson, Halifax, agent for the celebrated KNABE and CHICKERING PIANOS, is in town, and stopping at the Revere House, and has the finest pianos with him as samples ever imported to this Island. Special prices will be offered for cash or on instalments, and second hand pianos or organs will be taken in exchange as part payment. ONE of those happy events, interesting particularly to the ladies, occurred at Dorchester, N. B., on the 27th inst., in which one of the fair daughters of Dorchester—Miss Amanda Moran—took a prominent part. Mr. Inglis Bent, of Amherst, was the "willing sacrifice." The happy couple left for Prince Edward Island on the afternoon train, where they will spend the honeymoon, which we trust will be prolonged into a lifelong honeymoon, in which case the major portion of that interesting period will be spent in Amherst, where Mr. and Mrs. Bent will take up their residence.—Moncton Transcript. The New Celtic Singer

(Vide Charlottetown Herald, October 14)

Oh, Spirit of Poesy! however Could one of our race have been led To make such a wretched endeavor At singing a psalm o'er the dead?

The old land that weeps by the waters Has children on every shore, Has talented sons and fair daughters Who wear many garlands for Moore.

Her harp, once so famous in story, That had fallen from Carolan's hand Had been rescued by Moore to the glory And pride of the song-loving land.

But weep, oh! dear Erin, in fetters, O'er the day when this new bard was born; Bewail that he'er learned his letters Or that poetry his pleadings did scorn.

He seized Tom Moore's harp with rude fingers And beckoned the muse to his aid, But she coyly refused him and lingered By Moore's tomb in a foreign land laid.

The youth struck the harp nothing daunted, It answered in measure that jarred, And the people who heard it were haunted For fear that the ghost of the bard

Would rise from his tomb in Devises, And float on the winds to this shore To punish the youth who unwise is In touching the sweet harp of Moore.

Parnassus is further than Fordham, And the youth who courted the muse Will find that she will not accord him Moore's fame, nor his harp nor his shoes.

Bought Part of His Stock at a Sacrifice.

Prices are Still Tumbling and Purchasers will Reap the Benefit Thereof!

REID BROS. have purchased a large Invoice of Fine Saxony All-wool Tweeds in a Manufacturer's Agent, whose name we are not intended to mention, at a great sacrifice to the mills, and we intend giving our patrons the advantage of this purchase. These goods have never in the history of P. E. Island been retailed at less than $1.40 to $1.75 a yard, and we now can offer them at 95cts a yard, or will make up suits from them to order, with linings worth $1.10 a yard and other trimmings to match, at the popular price, $1.50, worth just $2.50 over this country. Will produce letters from some of the best men in town and country which must satisfy the most fastidious that our cutter, Mr. Bruce, and his helps, are equal to the times, and his garments are always neat, strong, perfect-fitting and full-fashioned. Experience has taught us that many persons have been driven away in disgust from houses who are continually advertising goods at extraordinary prices, which they are unable to produce when called for, and to meet this difficulty we ask intending purchasers to call and examine our stock and we are confident that one inspection will satisfy the most skeptical that we never advertise a humbug. 50 Men's Suits, heavy black worsted goods, winter weights, only $6.00 a suit. 30 do do fine quality, $8.50, worth $12. 20 do do Scotch Tweeds, fine quality, $9, worth $14. 100 pairs Men's Black Worsted Pants, only $2, worth $3. 50 pairs very heavy Black Worsted Pants, only $2.50, worth $3.50. 100 pairs Men's heavy working Pants, $1.25, $1.50, $2 and up. 20 pairs Island Tweed Pants, our own make, $2.75 and up. 100 Tweed Suits, made up to order, $11, $12, $13 and up. 100 Children's and Youths' Suits, $1.75, $2.50, $3 and up.
