CARDIGAN NOTES.

The schr. Carmena sailed for St. Pierre on Thursday last with a general cargo, shipped by Jas. E. McDonald.

Mr. Jos. A. McDonald, for many years bookkeeper in the employ of Jas. E. McDonald, general merchant, left on last Friday for San Francisco, Cal. By his departure Cardigan loses one of its most prominent young men. If integrity, uprightness and ability are valued on the Pacific Coast, we feel assured of his success.

We are glad to see our friend, Mr. John C. Flanagan around again. He has fully recovered from his attack of la grippe.

At a mat-hooking party held here recently, a young lady made a cruel attack at an elderly gentleman with a mat hook. A refusal of proferred love is said to have been the prime cause of the bellnine outrage. At latest accounts the victim was improving.

The Chief Supt. of Education examined the Cardigan High School on last Thursday. There were about twenty visitors present. Addresses touching on education were delivered by Rev. A Gunn, Rev. Dr. McMillan, W. P. Lewis, Esq., and J. G. Scrimigeour. Mr. McLeod expressed himself as well pleased with the progress made since his last visit. Owing to the illness of the Principal, the school closed for vacation on 6th inst. It opens again on the 27th May.

The Government dredge, "Prince Edward" has undergone extensive repairs during the last two months. As the river is clear of ice, digging operations will soon commence.

Mr. Joseph Robertson launched his new boat. "Hermiona" on last Wednesday. She went on her trial trip on Thursday, and proved to be a fast sailer. She was built by Mr. W. McLean, Mitchell River.

At the show rooms of Messrs. Lewis Bros., marble workers, may be seen a large assortment of tablets and monuments. Those who wish to raise storied urns to the memory of their departed friends should pay a visit to Lewis Bros.

Mr. David Lewis is erecting a large and commodious dwelling. Mr. John McCormack is the contractor.

The schr. Telephone, Capt. G. Crawford, sailed for Launching on last Saturday with a cargo of fittings for D. C. Morson's & Co's. lobster factory at that place.

The youth of Cardigan seem to be taking a great interest in athletc games during their leisure hours. These manly exercises seem to have taken the place of the unmanly practice of loafing and lounging at the corners and on the railing of the bridge.

The ladies of All Saints Church intend holding a grand tea party on or about 10th July.

Miss Katie Lewis has returned from Grafton, North Dakota, where she has been spending the winter.

Mr. Daniel Stewart has been appointed mail carrier on the Cardigan-Dundas-Annandale route.

BELLONA.

Cardigan, May 7th, 1895.

Japan has given proof of national wisdom. A foolish country, flushed with victory, might have refused to consider the protest of the three European nations. But Japan has conceded what was asked and will not take possession of the mainland in Northern China. China is apparently ready to give away anything for the sake of peace, but Japan knows how to be moderate and cautious even in the hour of triumph. The conciliatory message to Russia, France and Germany seems like good statesmanship in a nation which is beginning to take rank among the great powers.

THE NICARAGUAN AFFAIR.

According to a dispatch from Corinto, Nicaragua, to the Boston Herald, the British occupation of Corinto came to an end on Saturday evening. At six o'clock the commander of the port, General Roberto Gonzales, arrived by special train with his force and peacefully resumed possession of the town. The Nicaraguan flag was hoisted at six o'clock Sunday morning. Subsequently it was saluted by the Royal Arthur with 21 guns, and the salute was replied to from the shore. The Sattelite, Arthur and Wild Swan sailed on Sunday. Gratification is expressed universally at this ending of the trouble. Great credit is due Dr. Constantino Fiallos, the minister representing Honduras, for the manner in which he conducted the negotiations with Rear-Admiral Stephenson. He expresses the utmost satisfaction with the terms agreed upon. Dr. Fiallos was formerly secretary of the legation for Honduras at Washington.
