How to Treat a Cold.

Don't stuff a cold, as the old adage advises; if you do you will have a fever to starve. A genuine cold is a shock received by the many million nerves which approach near the surface of the human body, and which control the nearly seven million pores of the skin. This shock closes the pores of the skin, is transmitted to the nerve centres and back to the mucous membrane, forcing a great amount of blood to those membranes, creating more or less irritation and consequent fever, inflammation, dryness, then watery discharge and cattarrh. The shock may have its cause from a chill, from improper eating a nervous fright and various other causes which irrirate the nerves of the skin and mucous membranes of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes. Excess of food in the stomach still more clogs the system and pores of the skin so that effete matter which should be carried off by the natural courses is retarded; which is ample reason for not stuffing a cold. Experimenting with a severe cold is a dangerous custom, as most persons try one remedy only until some friend suggests another "sure cure." When slight hoarseness or tightening of the nasal membranes warns one of a skin exposure or chill from whatever cause, act promptly; delays are dangerous, with children it may mean croup and strangulation; with adults, catarrh, bronchitis, perhaps pneumonia. If neglected, nothing can prevent the sneezing, red nose and woe begone look of a person with a cold. Scores of mothers would as soon go to bed without matches in the house, as without that old-fashioned remedy, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, near at hand for colds and croupy children. Used with a mild laxative, as described on the wrappers or in the pamphlet which I. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass., will send free to anyone. Johnson's Anodyne Liniment will cure a cold quicker than any known remedy. A mild, nutritious diet, a gentle physic to open the secretions, and a bottle of that old Anodyne from your druggist, will cure any cold.

God Save the Queen.

The absorbing topic of the day is a Free Trip Around the World, offered by "The Home Fascinator," Pub. Co., to the person sending us the largest number of words constructed from from letters contained in the sentence "GOD SAVE THE QUEEN," and found in either Webster's or Worcester's Dictionary. The publishers have arranged with the C. P. R. General Pass. Agent, Mr. D. McNicoll, for the trip by their new palatial steamer, leaving on its famous globe-circling excursion about March 15th next. Also the order of merit, additional prizes of:—A free trip to Florida; Silver Tea Sets, Sewing Machines, Lady's or Gent's 14k. Gold Watch, etc. Every one whose list contains not less than twenty-five words will receive a prize. Enclose them 50 cents to pay for a grand Premium Catalogue. Complete Rules, and a six months' trial subscription to their beautifully illustrated family story paper. As the successful competitor may not care to make the extensive trip offered, the publishers offer the option of a thousand dollars in cash. Contest is open to any person in Canada or the United States. Address "The Home Fascinator," Montreal, Quebec. jan3 1m sat & wky
