Guides Holding Annual Roundup

The second annual "Merry go roundup" of P.E.I. Lone Guides begins on July 3rd when lone guides from various Provincial centres will assemble at Central Royalty Hall to begin an active five-day program. On July 4th, the guide leave by bus at 6:45 a.m. for Nova Scotia, where they will travel along the Sunrise Trail and tour Fort Beauséjour before returning to the Island via Borden on July 5th. On the 6th, the guides will participate in a fun parade at Central Royalty Hall, beginning at 7:30 p.m. and a Church parade is scheduled for July 7th. For the latter event, the guides will assemble at 10:15 a.m. at the Confederation building following which the parade will move off to Trinity United Church for the Protestant party and St. Dunstan's Basilica for the Roman Catholic group. At 8:00 p.m. a badge presentation ceremony will be held and the guides will hear a brief address by Mrs. Harry Cudmore.

Heavy Holiday Traffic To P. E. I.

Traffic over the Holiday weekend to and from Prince Edward Island by the ferries at Borden, and Wood Islands, the Railways, the Bus Lines and Maritime Central Airways was reported to be very heavy.

A number of kind remarks were heard by Transportation officials about the new paving at Borden Pier which has been of great assistance. The pier roadway is rather narrow and when heavy traffic is lined up caution has to be used but so far as is known there have been no accidents.

At Wood Islands traffic so far is much above this time last year and there is an increase of over fifteen hundred passengers for the months of May and June.

St. Mary's Alumnae Has Its Graduation Class Tea

To the beautiful strains of the Alumnae song, the annual tea sponsored by Saint Mary's Alumnae in honour of the Graduating Class at Souris High School was opened on June 12 at the Convent Hall at Souris. Mrs. Arthur MacDonald, president of the Alumnae, warmly welcomed the graduates of Souris High as members and auxiliary members of the Alumnae, encouraging them to be always true and faithful to their Alma Mater.

Catherine Chaisson of Grade Eleven read an amusing prophecy of the lives of the graduating class and Maureen Wood, one of the graduates, read the last will and testament for the members of her class. Flora Peters thanked Mrs. MacDonald on behalf of the Graduating class for her kind words of welcome.

Rt. Rev. Monsignor J. A. Murphy, gave his timely words of advice to the class as the tea was brought to an end. Then, to the lively tunes played on the Convent piano dancing was enjoyed by the younger set for almost two hours.

The tea was very fittingly followed by a Holy Hour conducted in the Convent Chapel by Reverend Father Steele.
