Union Defends CBC Policies

OTTAWA (CP) — A vigorous defence of the CBC against "unfair, impractical and unwise" criticism by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation was voiced Wednesday by the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CLC).

A statement issued by the union's national executive said the publicly-owned CBC should receive five-year grants of money from Parliament and be subject to scrutiny and debate only at the five-year intervals.

The latest round of criticism against the CBC was heard in the Commons Tuesday.

Stanley Little, president of the 86,000-member union, said:

OBITUARY

JOHN LAWRENCE O'CONNELL

(Inserted by the family)

As the result of a tragic truck accident at Millview Aug. 26, 1964, death claimed the life of John Lawrence O'Connell at the early age of twenty-nine years.

Death is a severe blow at any time, but when it calls one so early in life, it is indeed severe. Jack, as he was known to his intimate friends, was a young man of cheerful disposition, beloved by all who knew him, upright and fair in all dealings, never an unkind word and always a helping hand. Born in Carleton March 29, 1935, he attended public school at Carleton, after leaving school he took up tractor-trailer driving at the early age of sixteen years, to which he devoted the rest of his life with the exception of three years spent in the Canadian Army.

He leaves to mourn his sudden passing: his mother and father, one half sister, Mary and five half brothers, James, Everett, John, Elmer, and Gary.

His funeral which was largely attended was held at St. Peters Church, Seven Mile Bay, on August 29, under the direction of Mr. Philip Monaghan. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his pastor Rev. R.F. MacDonald who also officiated at the grave, assisted by Rev. Arthur Pendergast, Palmer Road. Legion services at the grave were conducted by Mr. John Darrach. Last Post was sounded by Bugler, Mr. Aubin Gallant, Summerside.

Pall Bearers were: George O'Connell, William Coboon, John MacKay, Ralph DesRoche, Stanley Howatt, Newman Sigsworth.

Flowerbearers: James O'Connell, Arnett Stewart, Lea Stewart, Edward McMurrer. May his soul rest in peace.

IN MEMORIAM

ARNOLD — In loving memory of our dear father, James H. Arnold, who passed away November 21, 1961.
November brings sad memories
Of a loved one gone to rest
But will never be forgotten
By the ones who love you best
Though your smile is gone forever
And your hands we cannot touch
Of a dad we loved so much.
Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his daughter and son, Marion and Maurice.

MacINNIS — In loving memory of Mrs. Ralph MacInnis who passed away on November 26th 1958.
Many a silent heartache
Often a silent tear
But always a beautiful memory
Of one we loved so dear
Our emotions we keep in line
We tell ourselves we are doing fine
We shall not grieve the hours through
It was God's will, He needed you
Then some small thing reminds us dear
Of happy days when you were here
And memory like a cruel dart
Finds its mark deep in our heart
God took our Theresa, it was his will
But why so young we wonder still
Sometime somewhere he will tell us why
It broke our hearts to see her die
As angels keep their watch up there
Please God just let her know
That we down here do not forget
We loved and miss her so.
Lovingly remembered by Mr. and Mrs. George Reid Mr. and Mrs. William Weatherbie.

DENNIS — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Wilfred J. Dennis, who passed away November 26, 1960.
Lovingly remembered by Anita and family.

MacLAREN — In loving memory of our mother, Mrs. George MacLaren, who passed away on November 26th 1962.
In a quiet country grave yard
Where the breezes gently blow
Lies the one we love so dearly
That we lost two years ago.
You left behind some aching hearts
That loved you most sincere
We never have or never will
Forget you mother dear.
Lovingly remembered by daughters, Sadie and Katie.

CARD OF THANKS

THE FAMILY of the late Richard Wall, New Annan, wish to express their appreciation and thanks to all who sent flowers and messages of sympathy and friends and relatives who helped so much in their recent sad bereavement. Also "Thanks" to Dr. Moyse, Rev. Mr. Shaw and the Bowness Funeral Home.

BETTER

(Continued from page 15 and subsistence living on the farm for periodic unemployment in the towns with income supplemented by unemployment insurance and welfare payments".

"Today farm boys are lengthening unemployment lines."

"The boy who plans to farm today needs $25,000 to start."

"Are rural children second-rate citizens? Most certainly too many are. It is time for parents and educators to feel more concern when rural children drop out of classes."

On the above much can be said but it seems to add up to the belief that growing up in many rural areas isn't an unmixed blessing and that many rural people are poorly equipped to deal with urban life. Many questions arise, is it a rural responsibility to train its people for urban life? Is the urban way of life really superior to the rural way?

If urban society had the responsibility of training people for rural life what sort of a job would it do? Is it true that ni-vilization has ever survived urbanization?

RATHER FOXED

NETHERNE, England (CP) Tom Laird, 21, shot what he thought was a fox raiding his chicken coop. Sunbather Terence Fitzpatrick, 48, turned out to be the victim. Fitzpatrick said in court he had recovered from the peppering by about 30 pellets and there was no "ill-feeling." But Laird was fined £7 for malicious wounding.

Georgetown Lions Club Makes Christmas Plans

GEORGETOWN — At its regular meeting Tuesday the Georgetown Lions Club made arrangements to erect a community Christmas Tree on the corner of Kent and Richmond streets. Harold Publicover and Paul Batchilder volunteered to obtain the large tree and Frank Parker will build a suitable stand while Howard S. MacLean, who presided at the meeting, will arrange for the lighting.

It is planned to illuminate the tree with 50 colored bulbs and it is hoped to have the decorated tree erected early in December.

It was also decided to have the club sponsor a contest open to all residents of Georgetown for the best exterior decorated home during the Christmas holiday season. Three prizes will be given in this contest, with first prize being $15; second $10 and third $5.

It was arranged that five Lions will pay a visit to the Souris club tonight. At Tuesday night's meeting the Georgetown Club was visited by six members of the Souris Lions Club.

The results to date in the canvass for the Colin Muir Fund were tabled by the members of the four canvassing teams and the amount realized was termed highly satisfactory. Members volunteered to contact several organizations within the town in regard to the canvass and the fund campaign will be finalized at the next regular meeting of the club.

Routine business conducted at the meeting included the reading and adoption of the minutes and the financial report; the reading and discussion on correspondence and the authority of the meeting to pay one bill which was presented.

Following the business part of the meeting the members and visiting Lions enjoyed an hour of cards.

Another Member Retires From Lesage Cabinet

QUEBEC (CP)—Another Liberal cabinet member, the third veteran party figure to do so this fall, has retired from Quebec's political wars.

Lionel Bertrand, minister of tourism, fish and game whose oratorical range could move from fire to flowers in seconds, was appointed Tuesday to the legislative council, Quebec's upper House.

The appointment brings to two the number of vacancies in the 95-seat Quebec legislative assembly. Premier Jean Lesage set no date for by-elections.

The tourism, fish and game portfolio went to Gerard Cournoyer, 52. His transport and communications ministry went to Mrs. Claire Kirkland - Casgrain, previously minister without portfolio.

Mr. Bertrand's move leaves his Terrebonne seat empty. Attorney-General Rene Hamel retired from politics earlier this month to become a Superior Court justice, leaving St. Maurice vacant.

Georges Laplame, 57, quit as cultural affairs minister in September and says he will resign his Montreal Outremont seat once a political scandal is cleared up.
