Remember When

(By The Canadian Press)

Bill (Young) Stribling and Paul Berlenbach, promising young light-heavyweight boxers, battled to a six-round draw at New York 15 years ago tonight. Berlenbach reached the top of the division the next year, while Stribling went int oheavyweight ranks, but was killed Oct. 2, 1933.

Dominions Favored

Charlottetown Dominions were heavy favorites to playoff with Summerside All-Stars for the Island intermediate baseball title as they chalked up their second straight victory last night against the Victorias by a 5-2 score.

Each hurler allowed six hits in last night's encounter but the Dominions blows were much more effective as the players came through in the clutch when hits meant runs.

MAISIE HOWARD RETAINS GOLF CROWN

DOWN - THE - BACK STRETCH

Jane Azoff 1.59 1-2 and Millie Kalmuck 2.12 were shipped Thursday morning in charge of caretakers Austin Tierney and Charles Reardon to Presque Isle, Maine, where they will race next week. Willard Kelly, who will drive them, left today for Presque Isle. Following there they will race at Fredericton and Woodstock and then possibly make a tour of the late Maine fairs.

Barney Hanover went a surprising mile over the Moncton track last Wednesday when he won the first heat of the Free-for-All in 2.09 defeating Walter Brown 2.05 1-4 Walter won the next two heats and race however. The Moncton track record is said to be 2.08 3-4 made by Tarzan Grattan 2.03 1-2 some twelve years ago.

Our readers will remember Tarzan Grattan as the horse Monte Gerow brought down here from Maine. He was owned by Reed Brothers and won the Free-for- Alls at Charlottetown and Halifax. He also lowered the track record at New Annan to 2.12-12, but that was subsequently lowered by Billy Cope.

Tarzan Grattan was one of the famous Grattan tribe, a son of Grattan Royal 2.06 1-2. As a four-year-old he showed great speed and good manners, and his owner-trainer-driver entered him in the $25,000 Kalamazoo Derby the following spring. To the surprise of himself and a great many others he won and took a record of 2.03 1-2.

Happy L. as expected, won the 2.19 Trot and Pace at Moncton handily. Miss Victoria, Power Brothers greatly improved pacer, was 4-3-3. Happy L.'s best mile was 2.09 1-2 and our information is that he was not extended.

An effort was made on the Saturday morning after the Exhibition by a trio composed of two local horsemen and a Montrealler, to purchase Hapy L. from owner Robichaud. It is understood that they were prepared to put up $1,500 for the son of Bill L. and, Mary Sue mainly on the strength of his mile of 2.06 3-4 paced on Thursday. However, owner Robichaud thought that it should be $2,500 and that is as far as negotiations went.

The match race between Rainey G. Henley 2.06 and Direct L. 2.09 1-2 at Truro was a win for Rainey G. Anything else could hardly be expected as Rainey G. Henley showed speed of an extraordinary kind in parts of the Free-for-All at Charlottetown. Given the right day and kind of track he is liable to pace in 2.05. Last year the writer remembers reading an account of a big pacing stake he won in the mid-West United States from a field of ten horses. The purse was $2,500 and the disregarded Rainy G. Henley at its conclusion had won the two necessary heats, one of which he paced in 2.06. It was a half-mile track.

Charlie Ballard, who has been moving in rather hard luck, had the goddess smile on him at Truro where he won two races, one with Rainey G. Henley as above and the other with the trotter Model T., that took the 2.24 class horses into camp in three straight heats. Quaker Girl 2.08 1-2 that rewarded her backers so profusely at Charlottetown, showed that she had lost none of her speed by beating a good field which included Aaron L. 2.08, Aaron L. taking the final heat.

Quaker Girl is one of the best bred living. Her sire was Peter Volo 2.02 and her dam Etawah Girl 2.03 1-2 by the great futurity trotter Etawah. When her racing days are over she should be a super-brood mare. The wonder is that some of the big stock farms in the United States have not been after her. Probably because she is a pacer, as they prefer to buy fast class trotters rather than fast class pacing mares as brood mares.

Fredericton Exhibition race days are September 12th, 13th and 14th and the classes and purses are as follows: Free for All, purse $500; Free for All Trot, purse $400; Junior Free for All, 2.11 class, purse $400; 2.14 Trot and Pace, purse $350; 2.16 Trot and Pace, purse $350; 2.19 Pace purse $350; 2.22 Pace, purse $350; 2.17 Trot, purse $350; 2.22 Trot, purse $350. Entries close Saturday, August 26th, so horsemen who intend to go to Fredericton and have not entered should wire Secretary D. W. Griffiths today.

Our New Brunswick correspondent, writes us that he was very disappointed in not being able to get over to our Exhibition, but kept in touch with it through the broadcast, and thinks there must have been a wonderful meeting from what he heard. He wa very interested in the fact that Dannie Steele was racing here, and states: "It must be nearly twenty years since Dannie left the Island to train for the Newport Stock Farm, Newport, Vermont. I remember Dannie when he was driving Vesta Boy. I was very sorry to hear of Mac Steele's death. It must have cast quite a gloom over the Island."

Later on in his letter he states that Harry Jewett is confined to his bed with pernicious anaemia, and that is bad news as Harry Jewett is one of the squarest horsemen that ever raced. He imported quite a number of good horses from the United States including The Exposer 2.08 3-4, with which he lowered the Canadian trotting record at Chatham, N. B. to 2.09. Harry also had other good race horses and was the breeder and trainer of Addie McGraw, giving her a record, if I remember correctly, on the trot of 2.10 1-2, then selling her to McNeill and Reymond. I am sure all who know Harry will join with me in wishing him a speedy recovery from his illness.

Earle Avery of Woodstock, N. B., bought the trotter Protector Brooke 2.12 1-4, the pacer Sam Hanover 2.05 3-4 and B. C. Mayo, a two-year-old sister to Symbol Green 2.02 3-4 from George S. West of Allston, Mass. last week.

Walnut Hall Farm has issued its catalogue of 85 yearlings with their breeding and the breeding of the sires kept at the farm. They will be on view September 24th when it is expected hundreds of visitors from all over the United States and some from Canada will be present. A buffet lunch will be served to visitors. Anyone interested in purchasing a high class colt can secure a catalogue by writing Walnut Hall Farm, Donerail, Kentucky.

This week Maine had two fairs operating, one at Bangor and the other at Acton. Bangor's Free for All Pace did not fill; had it done so Jane Azoff would have been a starter.

A horse that was used for six years under saddle and is now twelve years old surprised everyone by winning a heat and taking a record of 2.10 1-4 at Skowhegan, Maine, last week. He is Iosola's Forbes by J. Malcolm Forbes 2.08, and was bred by the late Fred Field. By the way, Fred Field was the man that made Brockton Fair the greatest of its type in America. During Field's management it went on to one success after another and the name Brockton was synonomous with a wonderful exhibition, and vast crowds. After Mr. Field's demise the Fair went down until today, while Brockton is a good fair, it is not in the class it once was.

They evidently go in for harness racing up in Quebec as newspaper accounts say that over 12,000 race lovers attended the four days meet at Valleyfield in conjunction with the Exhibition. The meeting opened on Sunday, August 12th, and on account of rain the last two heats of the three events were raced on the following Tuesday August 15th. Great credit is given to Mr. Gosselin, race secretary and Dr. LaRoche President of the Fair.

The butchers of Montreal have organized a monster picnic to be held at Richelieu Park, near Montreal, September 10th, For entertainment they are providing three classes for harness horses.

Hon. Earl Rowe, M. P., who is very fond of race horses and drives quite frequently and whose best performer is Peter Chillcoot 2.06 1-2 is feeling rather [illegible] because Peter stepped in a hole recently, cut his quarter and will not be able to race for a considerable time.

The Canadian Sportsman, published at Tilsonburg, Ont., is a very newsy turf paper widely read by Canadian and some American horsemen. It devotes quite a lot of space to Prince Edward Island harness racing and has one and one-half pages giving summaries and a good account of the Provincial Exhibition races last week.

Next week the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition will be on at Halifax and with good weather there should be some splendid racing. All the events are on the dash plan, each heat a separate and distinct race with $100 divided among the winners of most of the dashes, $80 for some and $120 for the Free for All Trot and Pace. Races start on Tuesday, August 29th, the events being 2.15 Trot and Pace, 2.23 Trot and Pace, Three Years and Under Trot and Pace, Free for All Trot and Pace. Thursday, August 31, 2.20 Trot and Pace, 2.27 Trot and Pace. Friday, September 1, 2.13 Trot and Pace 2.24 Trot, Free for All Trot.

Races will also be held on Saturday if the day is favorable, with from six to nine dashes carded. Horses that raced at Charlottetown have been performing at Moncton and Truro this week then will converge on Halifax. The writer of this column hopes that Secretary Frank Lordly will have a whale of a Fair, the best attendance on record and excellent weather.

St. Stephen race dates are August 30th to September 1st, and entries close August 26th. There is a 2.11 Trot and Pace, 2.14 Trot and Pace, 2.16 Trot and Pace, 2.18 Trot and Pace, 2.21 Trot and Pace, 2.23 Trot and 2.24 Trot and Pace. Purses are $250 with the exception of the 2.11 class which is $300.

Babe Siebert, National Hockey League Star Is Drowned In Lake Huron

ZURICH, Ont., Aug. 25—(CP) —Albert (Babe) Siebert, famous defence player of the Montreal Canadiens hockey team, was drowned late today while swimming in Lake Huron at St. Joseph, Ont.

Siebert, 34, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Siebert of Zurich. He recently was appointed coach of Canadiens for the next National Hockey League season.

Siebert was swimming with his two children and a friend, Clayton Hoffman of Zurich. The hockey star called for help and disappeared about 150 feet from shore when he swam after an inflated inner tube which had drifted away from his little daughter.

Fifteen men started to watch the shoreline for the body and to dive in the spot where Siebert disappeared. A fishing boat set out from Grand Bend to start dragging.

One of the great defencemen of hockey in the last few years, both with Boston Bruins where he costarred on the Kraut Line with Eddie Shore and later with Canadiens, Siebert originally was a forward.

His first fame was achieved with Montreal Maroons where he teamed on a spectacularly robust forward line with Nels Stewart and Hooley Smith. In those days he was regarded as one of the fastest skaters and hardest shooters in the N. H. L.

But as a defencemen he reached his greatest heights on the ice. For two or three seasons his effectiveness was scarcely less than that of Shore himself.

Third Game Series Slated For Weekend

With their backs solidly to the wall Sporting Club Victoria's will be fighting to ward off elimination from the intermediate baseball semi-finals tomorrow afternoon at the park diamond when they tackle the Dominions in the third game of the best of five series that will determine the team to meet Summerside All-Stars in the Island final.

Set back on their heels in the first of two starts by the smooth-working Dominions, Victorias, far from downhearted and confident they will yet pull the series out of the fire can be expected to furnish plenty of fight in tomorrow's game. Apparently in a slump the team has failed to hit in the pinches in the two games already played and this fact has been a contributing cause to their defeats.

However, tomorrow is another day and another game and the Vics will be already to send the series into a fourth game if at all possible. In all likelihood "Fiddler" Macdonald will again be on the mound and Rovers will likely send Elmer Larter to the hill seeking his second victory of the series after being returned the winner in the first by a 3-2 score. "Fiddler" if right however is going to prove very tough to beat and it is almost an even bet that the series winner is still a long piece from being known.

The game will get underway at 1.30 sharp and players are asked to get there and be ready to start at the appointed time.

Dominions Chalk Up Second Straight Win In Semi - final Series

Driving in four runs with two ringing singles and scoring another himself, Wilf Whalen personally conducted the Dominions to their second straight victory over the Victorias last night in the best out of five series for the city intermediate baseball title and the right to meet the Summerside All-Stars for the Island crown. "Whackey" McEachern's squad overtaking the Fred McCabe team's 1-0 lead that they gained in the first inning, with a three run rally in the third, scored two more counters in the fifth and then cut down several dangerous Dominions' rallies in the closing innings to come through with the 5-3 victory. The game ended in fast manner as the Victorias, with one run across the plate in the ninth and a runner on first saw their last chance fade as the winners came through with a double play to end the game.

But it was anybody's game right up to the final out. Dominions had a 5-1 lead at the end of the fifth but the Victorias fighting with their backs to the wall forced their opponents to their best defensive measures to put down dangerous looking threats. And it was a scrappy contest also between two squads that a lot of rivalry has developed between. Jockeys rode opposing players hard on every occasion and once fireworks threatened as two players very nearly came to blows before cooler heads intervened.

Both hurlers McCormack of the Victorias and "Skinny" McKinnon of the Dominions were found for six hits, all singles, but Whalen's blows in the third and fifth, each single coming with two men riding the paths, turned the tide in favor of the Dominions' hurler. Outside of that both waged a keen hurling duel with honors even and both saw their mates come through with brilliant fielding plays at various times during the contest. Jay's catch of Gallant's drive to left that appeared going for a home run in the third, Bill Murley's beautiful running catch in left centre and Joey McDougall's snaring of a high pop fly in short left field being the outstanding features of a game that literally sparkled with brilliant defensive work.

Result of last night's win gives the Dominions a big edge on the series but Victorias are still very much in the picture and their supporters are confident they will snap into a winning stride in the third game that is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.

Victorias after turning their opponents back scoreless in the first half of the first took a 1-0 lead in the same half of the frame as Pud Roach, beating out a bunt for a base hit with one out scored on a single by Tic Williams.

The score remained unchanged up to the third when Dominions took the lead with three runs. McCallum and McKinnon opened the inning with singles, McInnis advanced the runners to second and third; Squarebriggs popped to third base but Wilf Whalen with a two and two count on him lined a single to centre to score both men. Whalen stole second on the first pitch and scored the third run of the game as McCormac let go with two wild pitches before retiring Jay on strikes to end the inning.

Whalen's big bat was again the deciding factor in the fifth. McKinnon started the frame with his second single; McInnis followed with another one base blow as McKinnon went to third; Squarebriggs flied out to left field but Whalen coming through with his second hit drove both runners home with a single through shortstop.

Retired in order from the second to the seventh innings Victorias accounted for their second run in the seventh. Williams flied to centre to open the half of the frame; Sherry was safe at second on a wild throw to the sack on his grounder to the pitcher; Bolger grounded to first but Charlie Ryan drove home the runner with a single before he retired the side as he was thrown out at second base attempting to steal. It appeared as if the Dominions second sacker had dropped the ball on the play but base judge McKinnon's decision stood. A fast double play engineered by Snag Squarebriggs with one out snuffed out the most dangerous looking rally of the Victorias during the game Starting the inning Jack Gallant got on on an error; Tic Williams was thrown out at first as the base runner advanced to third, Sherry came through with a hit to score Gallant but Pius Bolger hit to Squarebriggs at second; Snag promptly stepped on the sack to retire Sherry and his throw to the initial sack beat Bolger by a step to end the game

Maritime Boxing Title At Stake At Sporting Club This Evening

With both freely predicting a knockout victory George Graham, Maritime heavyweight boxing champion puts his crown on the block at the Sporting Club tonight against the challenge of the man whom he defeated for the title, big George Leslie of Souris. Both scrappers are fit and ready for the fray. Both tapered off in their conditioning workouts last night and both declared their confidence of winning by the kayo route.

And two better conditioned battlers never stepped into a ring. Graham and Leslie are never very far from top shape and both have trained hard and furiously for the scrap. Friends outside the ring Graham and Leslie forget completely as the bell sends them from their corners for the opening round and as a result fans can expect a scrap tonight between two men who battle earnestly and vigorously every second the fight lasts. It should be another close gruelling battle with both being given an even chance of being returned the winner.

The second title of the night will be at stake when Jim Mooney of Peakes and Danny Mullins of St. Peters trade wallops for the junior light heavyweight title of the Island. The title is a new one to be fought for hereabouts but the participants are by no means new to each other. Fans will remember the bristling scrap this same pair furnished the last time they met in a local ring. At that time Mullins was returned the winner in a hair-raising scrap. This time Mooney vows he will atone for that setback. Both boys hit hard with either hand and both fight every minute they are in the ring so fans here have a pair of mitt-slingers matched that might very well steal the show. Whether they do that or not fans can be assured of a fight all the way.

The popular Bomber Shepherd stacks up against a tough foe in one of the preliminaries on the card in the person of clever Jimmy Allen. Allen a smooth boxer always comes through with a workmanlike job and he will probably give the hard-hitting Shepherd the toughest battle the Cardigan boy has had for a long, long time.

The first bout of the evening starts at 8:30 sharp with the main bout going on at 9:30. Indications are pointing to an overflow crowd attending the card—one of the best of the season.

Thousands Attend Opening Of Expo.

TORONTO, Aug. 25 —(CP)— Thousands of feet tramped the great white ways of the Canadian National Exhibition tonight, a few hours after the 61st annual Fair was opened officially by Lord Maugham, High Chancellor of Great Britain.

It was estimated that "opening day," aided by bright skies and clear weather, would record an attendance of from 40,000 to 50,000 by the time the last turnstile clicked tonight. The figure is expected to be exceeded tomorrow—warriors' day —when thousands of Toronto and district veterans of the Great War and their families will be admitted free.

All-day visitors, footsore after attempting to take in all the Fair's attractions, said they believed the exposition—largest annual Fair in the World—to be "bigger and better than ever."

Defeats Barbara Trites Five And Four In Final Of Maritime Tournament

Smooth-stroking Maisie Howard of Gorsebrook, Halifax, played a steady brand of golf yesterday to turn back Barbara Trites of Bridgewater, five and four, and retain her Maritime women's golf championship.

Matching strokes with an experienced tournament player over the lengthy Belvedere course here, Maisie found the hard, dry fairways to her liking. Extra yardage on her drives combined with near perfect approach shots gave her the victory. The Bridgewater girl who won the title at the 1937 meet and lost it the next year was inaccurate on the greens and her extra putts cost her holes that appeared slated for her side of the win column.

Brilliant Recovery

The champion won the first hole with a par four and went on to take the second after a brilliant recovery. Her drive on the 209-yard hole hit the lip of a sand trap midway in the fairway and the ball bounced to a halt while Miss Trites drive reached the green. Miss Howard's approach rolled to the far edge of the green but she sank a 20-foot putt for a par three. Miss Trites three-putted to loose the hole.

The challenger won the third after both had faltered on the green. She posted a one-over par to Miss Howard's six.

They halved the long uphill fourth with one-over-par sixes and Miss Howard won the fifth with a par four. Miss 'Trites' drive found its way into the brush on the side of the fairway and her recovery shot rolled only a few yards out of the rough.

Both chalked up one-over-par fours to halve the short sixth hole.

Scores Birdie Five

The winner played her best shot of the day when she won the 545-yard dog's-leg seventh with a birdie five While Miss Trites followed the prescribed route on the dog's-leg to card a respectable seven, Maisie took an iron for her third shot and zoomed the ball over 180 yards of rough to find the green. She two-putted for an easy five.

With the Bridgewater girl three down, they halved the eighth and ninth in par fours and fives. They halved the 10th with one-over-par fours and likewise the 11th with one-over-par sixes.

At the 12th it was the beginning of the end for Miss Trites. The champion returned to par golf to win the 12th in three, one under Miss Trites, and the 551-yard 13th in par four. Her win at the 13th gave her a dormy five and made it necessary for the challenger to win the remaining holes to stay in the match.

Miss Howard revealed she was a real tournament player on the 14th which she halved with Miss Trites to win the match. Her second shot off the fairway was too strong on the dog's-leg hole and rocketed into the brush. Her recovery came well out on the fairway and towards the hole. She nearly clipped the pin on her approach and then one-putted for a par six.

Other Final Results

In the other finals played, Miss Maggie Chestnut of Fredericton defeated Mrs. R. T. Holman of Charlottetown one up at the 19th hole after a close game to win the championship of the first flight.

Ethel Howard of Gorsebrook, Halifax, defeated Greta Beaton of Sydney five and four to win premier honors in the second flight.

The consolation playoffs saw Jean Fitzgerald of Gorsebrook, Halifax, defeat Mrs. Alex Horne of Summerside, six and four, to emerge as best shotmaker of those who were eliminated from the championship division in the first round.

In the first flight consolation final Miss Keith Moss of Amherst defeated Betty Large of Charlottetown, three and two and in the second flight consolation final Sally Hughes of Charlottetown defeated Jane Kuhn of Gorsebrook, Halifax, six and five.

Women's Golf Record Again Beaten Here

The women's record on the par 76 Belvedere Golf course here took a beating this week during the play of the Maritime tournament.

Earlier in the week, Maisie Howard, the Maritime champion, toured the course in 82 to break the former record score of 84, held for the last five years by Mrs. Manning Bagnall of Charlottetown

NARCOSIS

"My last round is all over the club," said the very inferior golfer to his caddie, suspiciously. "You didn't discuss it with anyone did you?"

"No, sir", replied the caddie. "I crept straight 'ome, and stayed in bed till I'd forgotten it."
