LIKE MOTHER MADE. Local and Other Items.

"You're pretty good in your line, and all that," said Snickers, "but you can't make the biscuits that mother used to make."

"Is that so?" said Mrs. Snickers coldly. "No," said Snickers. "You lack the subtle touch; you don't seem to have the insight that mother had. A woman's intuition is all right, but it don't teach her how to make biscuits—not like mother used to make."

"I am glad to hear it," said Mrs. Snickers.

"I'm telling you for your own good," said Snickers.

"Of course," said Mrs. Snickers. "You don't understand—you can't grasp the inner meaning of a biscuit," said Snickers.

"There is something lacking about your biscuits. You miss the effect somehow." "Probably you'd better get your breakfast down town," suggested Mrs. Snickers.

"I doubt if I could do any better if I did," sighed Snickers. "The art is lost mother's gone, and I'm afraid the secret of mother's biscuits has gone with her."

"Is a wonder you're not ashamed to talk like that," exclaimed Mrs. Snickers. "Alas! alas! We shall never look upon her like again," said Snickers. "As a biscuit maker and good general cook, mother was unsurpassed."

"Before I'd talk about my dead mother like that," said Mrs. Snickers. "Oh, your mother?" said Snickers. "She couldn't make biscuits. Why, she couldn't even make both ends meet."

"You perfect brute," said Mrs. Snickers, and burst into tears.

It certainly was nasty of Snickers to jolly his wife like that, especially as her biscuits were just as good as his mother's or anybody else's. It was his appetite that was poorer, that was all, owing to an overworked stomach. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets would have made all the difference in the world in his idea of his wife's cooking.

Have You Catarrh?

If you are troubled with Catarrh and want to be cured, use Catarrhazone, which is a guaranteed cure for this distressing disease. There is no mystery about Catarrhazone though its effect is magical. Ointments and snuff cannot reach the diseased parts and have thus proved useless, but Catarrhazone is carried by the air you breathe directly to the diseased parts, where it volatilizes, killing the germ life and heal the sore spots. It cures by inhalation. No danger, no risk, sold by all druggists or by mail, price $1.00. For trial outfit send 10c in stamps to N. C. POLSON & CO. Box 540 Kingston, Ont.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if fails to cure. See E. W. Grove's signature on each box.

NATURAL HISTORY.—The first meeting for the season of the Natural History and Antiquarian Society will be held next Monday evening when a report will be given of the work done during the recess. Members admitted by ticket. They may also obtain from the Secretary invitations for any friend whom they may wish to attend.

A CENTENARIAN GONE.—At the home of her son, Mr. Neil McQueen, Victoria Cross, Christina, widow of the late Donald McQueen, aged 100 years. The deceased came to this Island from Scotland sixty years ago, and settled at Victoria Cross which was then a wilderness. She experienced the life of the pioneers, and witnessed the change from forest to a beautiful farming community. Mrs. McQueen was highly respected by all her acquaintances. She lived to an age seldom attained by any and was buried as she desired, in Belfast cemetery beside her late husband, who died at the age of eighty, thirty years ago.

Who does not know women and young girls who are continually in tears? Who always see the dark side? Who have frequent fits of melancholy without any apparent cause? The intelligent physician will know that it is some derangement of the complicated and delicate feminine organs. The young girl suffers bodily and mentally, in silence. There is undue weariness, unexpected pain, unreasonable tears and fits of temper. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription exerts a wonderful power over woman's delicate organism. It is an invigorating tonic and is specific for the peculiar weakness, irregularities and painful derangements of woman. Careless, easy-going doctors frequently treat their woman patients for biliousness, nervousness, dyspepsia, liver or kidney troubles, when the real sickness is in the organs distinctly feminine, and no help can come till they are made perfectly strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

More than 2000 Families in Halifax and Dartmouth use Sunlight and Lifebuoy Soaps exclusively in their homes, and all say they would not have any other kinds.

This information is correct having been gained by competent and trust-worthy advertisers, leaving samples at every house and making careful enquiries.

These families never knew what pure SOAPS meant, until they tried SUNLIGHT and LIFEBOUY.

Why should not others learn and be healthier and happier for the learning.
