GLADYS KLARK COMPANY A YOUNG GIRL'S ROMANCE

Opening Play at the Prince Edward Monday, Sept. 23rd.

Commencing Monday, September 23rd Gladys Klark and her company will be the attraction at the Prince Edward for six nights and five matinees. On the opening night Julia Herne's play, "A young girl's Romance" which is the story of an outsider will be the bill. A real American play, "A Young Girl's Romance" is the story of Katie Murray, a western creation of femininity, what Easterners call a cow-girl straight from the town of Pocatello, Idaho.

Katie Murray is a character so clearly drawn that she goes out of the theater with you when the play is over. She lives in your heart, you fall in love with her. "A young Girl's Romance" shows all the vicissitudes that come up in Katie Murray's life. Tells how she overcomes them with her rugged philosophy of the plains. How she comes into contact with uncongenial spirits and in the end conquers them. You cannot help but admire Katie Murray. She meets Peter Cortland Crandall, scion of a wealthy family, who is on business in Pocatello, during a serious illness, through which she nurses him. They are married. His family physician, Dr. Barlow, who answers a hurried call to the youth's bedside, does not like the plain western style of Katie and spirits Peter away from her influence, not knowing they are married. They arrive back to Peter's New York home only to be followed by Katie.

The remainder of the story will be told at the Opera house, September 23. The play is in four acts. Seats now on sale at the box office 1478-9-19 M ii

"THE FETTERED WOMAN"

From the Novel "Ann's Bridge" by Robert W. Chambers
The story of a young girl's struggle to regain love and respect after she had been Railroaded to Prison.

Alice Joyce, Vitagraph's talented and versatile star has the leading part, that of the young woman, and she is supported by Webster Campbell, one of the best known juveniles in photoplay, and Donald McBride, Lionel Grey, and Temp'ar Saxe.

The picture is tense throughout with human interest and there are many gripping scenes, as when the girl just robbed by death of her father and the victim of a plot to rob her of her inheritance, is sent to prison on perjured testimony, following a shooting affray in a cafe. The young man who loves her is convinced she is innocent and investigating the case brings about her vindication and wins her as his wife.
