FIRE AT MONTROSE - A fire at the home of Mr. Hudson Pridham of Montrose on Thursday was brought under control before it gained serious headway.
It was thought to have originated from the chimney in a small store room above the kitchen. Just after dinner Mrs. Pridham was sitting near the door of the stairway which leads to this room when she heard a crackling sound. When the door was opened flames could be seen. The fire was quickly extinguished before they arrived.
Damage was of a minor nature.

Nine Mile Creek
Defeat Monarchs

The Nine Mile Creek Bulldogs downed the Charlottetown Monarchs 6-4 in a North River Hockey League clash at the North River rink last evening that provided plenty of rugged action and crowd-pleasing hockey.

Banging home two goals to their opponents' one in the first frame, Monarchs held the edge in the period play, but were swamped by a powerful four-goal rally by the Bulldogs in the middle session to reverse the decision 5-2 at the end of that time.

To attain that goal, however, he believes a long-range program of planning will be necessary, directed by energetic groups in cooperation with rink managements and backed by the fans.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 5 - (AP) - Gill Hodges, fancy fielding and hard-hitting first baseman, today signed his 1951 Brooklyn Dodger contract. Hodges, who was converted from a catcher a few years ago, belted 32 home runs and hit .283 for the Dodgers last year.
Hodges is the 28th Dodger to sign.

Monarchs repeated their performance of the first period play to again outshoot the Bulldogs in the final frame 2-1, but the big lead built up by the Creek boys in the middle session stood them in good stead for a victory.

Harvey MacEachern, who bagged three of Bulldogs goals was the winner of a special prize donated by Kelly and McInnis of Charlottetown for the highest scorer.

mance.

Expect Britain
To Develop Own
Hockey Players

LONDON, Feb. 5 - (CP) - Take it from a keen student of the game, the day is in sight when Britain no longer will look to Canada or other distant fields for her top-flight hockey talent.
She has a future source of supply right on her own playing fields.

The optimistic prediction comes from Robert J. (Doc) Brodick, Montreal's gift to the Old Country hockey wars, in his book "Ice Hockey", just published (Nicholas Kaye).

The author, who led London's Streatham club to a National League title last season during his stay in England on a postgraduate medical course, is convinced Britain eventually will develop a crop of native-born and-trained players equal to the sternest test of international competition.

To attain that goal, however, he
planning will be necessary, direct-

Suspend Crystals
Coach, Player
Three Days

A meeting of the executive of East Prince Intermediate "A" Hockey League was held at the Armouries yesterday morning. The meeting was called to receive the referee's report on Saturday night's hockey game between R.C.A.F.
Meteors and Summerside Crystals.

The referee's report was read and fully endorsed by the executive. A verbatim report of the referee follows:

"I was referee-in-chief of a hockey game played in Crystal Rink, Summerside, on Saturday, Feb. 3, 1951, between Summerside Crystals and R.C.A.F. Meteors. At approximately 17.30 of the third period one of the Crystals players, James Grady, who was in the players' box at the time, started to bang the boards with his stick. I gave him a 10-minute misconduct penalty for this infraction of rule 85, (A) (page 45).

"After some hesitation (approximately ten minutes), Grady proceeded to the penalty bench. Before play could be resumed the coach of the Crystal team, Reginald Phillips, got on the ice and came towards me. I immediately went to the office to get the police, to put Phillips out of the rink. (rule 68 (H) page 37). There was no policeman in the rink so I appealed to the rink manager to have Phillips removed from the rink. This he attempted to do but without success. I again told Phillips to get out of the rink. Phillips threatened to take his team off the ice. I warned him that he would be suspended from hockey for two years, without appeal, if he did this.

(rule 77 (A) page 42). Realizing that it was useless to talk to Phillips, I went to Gordon Kelly, alternate captain of the Crystal team and told him to get Phillips out of the rink. Through the co-operation of the team in general Phillips was removed from the players' bench.

"In the meantime Grady had left the penalty bench without permission.

"I ordered him to return to the penalty bench. He abused me with some 'choice' language. I then tagged him with a match misconduct penalty and ordered him to the dressing room. Play resumed.

"In summing up the situation I hereby recommend that Grady and Phillips be suspended from further participation in the East Prince League for a period of three (3) days.

"Respectfully submitted, James T. Hogan."

The Summerside Crystals and the R.C.A.F. Meteors tangled again at Crystal rink tonight and all indications are that the game will be a hard-bumping, give-and-take affair from beginning to end. The Crystals are still smarting from the 6 to 1 trouncing they received at hands of the airmen last Saturday night. They want to prove to their supporters that the airmen are not that good, and they will be giving all they have to reverse that verdict tonight. Fans can expect a much closer fight with the Crystals fighting mad and the Meteors, improving every game, determined to show that Saturday night's victory was no accident.

S'side Man
Injured; Car
Fails To Stop

Mr. Frank Gallant, one of the proprietors of the Imperial Filling Station on the highway just west of Summerside, is a patient in the Prince County Hospital with moderately severe injuries after being struck by a hit-and-run driver about 7.45 last evening.

Mr. Gallant was assisting in pulling a car from the ditch near the filling station and was standing on the road facing towards Summerside when he was struck by a car which came from the west. The car did not stop and Mr. Gallant was thrown about thirty feet. His injuries were described as consisting of a bad gash on one leg, possible fractures of the ribs and shock.

It is understood that a description of the car has been obtained.
R. C. M. P. and Summerside Police are investigating.-S
