NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CANADIAN.
LISTOWELL, ONT., June 10.
The large woollen factory of B. F. Brooks was completely destroyed by fire this afternoon, loss upwards of $10,000; insurance $3,000. There was in the building a large quantity of wool, a large part of which was got out, but is badly damaged. No insurance on the stock.

QUEBEC, June 10.
Capt. and Madame Prevost, Lt. and Major Fraser and Lts. Herbert and Shepherd had the honor to dine with His Excellency the Governor-General and Her Royal Highness yesterday. The laying of the corner stone of Kent Gate will take place to-morrow, precisely at noon.

RIMOUSKI, Que., June 10.
News has reached here that two men belonging to this town were drowned at Betseamis last Friday, during the storm. They were employed on a bateau belonging to Batchart Bros., which broke adrift from a ship and was dashed to pieces on the bar at this point.

MONTREAL, June 10.
The Quenville inquest was resumed today by the examination of a number of carter, but nothing of importance was elicited. A meteorite fell on the property of Alfred Perry, Long Point, last night during a storm, shattering three old trees and making a terrific noise.

OTTAWA, June 10.
In the Supreme Court to-day argument in the case of Montreal Loan Co. vs. Fauteux was completed, after which the first case on the Ontario list, viz., Reynolds vs. Barnard's Banking Co., was taken up. There are five cases remaining to be argued.

At a meeting of the School Management Committee of the Separate School Board it was decided to present a report to the Board recommending the closing of schools until after the summer holidays, owing to the prevalence of small-pox in the city.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.
Another dyke on the Po has burst and the water pouring through the breach has done immense damage in the Province of Mantua. Great distress prevails.
Germany has applied for the release of the steamer Luzon, detained at Callao by Peruvians for carrying contrabands of war.
The Russian evacuation of Eastern Roumelia has been postponed till after July 3rd.
The U. S. Congress will adjourn on 17th inst.

SAVANNAH, June 10.
A terrible riot occurred yesterday at McIntosh, Liberty County, between a party of negro excursionists from Bryan County and those belonging there. It began in a fight between two negroes, whereupon John Randall, captain of the negro militia company from Bryan County (a part of the excursionists), ordered his men to charge, which they did, bayoneting everybody within reach, the Captain himself killing one man by running him through with his sword. There was intense excitement at this outrage. The Liberty County negroes rallied and drove the military company into the cars, opened fire on them, killing four and wounding many more, and only stopped shooting when the train got out of the way, which they tried to prevent by tearing up the rails. All the parties were negroes.

A Ruskin Society.
A Ruskin Society has been formed at Manchester, the aim of its members being to study the works of Ruskin and to form a just estimate of them and of their writer's character. At the late meeting of the society, Mr. R. Bailey Walker, the President, said that the opinions which had been formed concerning that distinguished man were most diverse. Some persons would speak of him as the foremost master of the English language, the foremost art critic and teacher of the present day. Other people looked upon Mr. Ruskin as a man who held extreme and unpopular views on various subjects, and took exception to his ideas on the abolition of railways, his denunciation of usury of all kinds, and his objection to the use of machinery. It was their duty to arrive at the truth and to benefit by the teachings of the great art critic.

Goldwin Smith's Opinion.
Mr. Goldwin Smith, in a letter to the Telegram says that local and personal considerations had prevailed over the National issues. The National Policy, too, had received a heavy blow, and the result would be the discouragement of manufacturing and other enterprises. In his opinion, a local election so affecting a national issue is an argument in favor of making local legislatures municipal instead of political assemblies.

Grant vs. Beaudry.
Mr. David Grant has filed his answer to the plea filed by the City Attorney on behalf of Hon. J. L. Beaudry, of which the following is a condensation:—
The law referred to by the defendant, chap. 10 of the Consolidated Statutes of Lower Canada, was originally passed by the Special Council as an ordinance. That the said ordinance was passed for the prevention of the administration of unlawful oaths and for preventing treasonable and seditious practices, and at the time when said ordinance was passed, several parts of Lower Canada were in rebellion against Her Majesty's Government. That the members of the Orange Association, especially in Lower Canada, have never had other ends or objects by associating together than to protect Her Majesty's Government. That it is utterly false that the members of the said Orange Association, and the plaintiff as a member thereof, ever countenanced or authorized the administration of an unlawful oath. That the refusal alleged in said plea of certain legislatures to grant acts of incorporation to members of Orange Association was not, as is averred, based upon apprehensions of illegal or unlawful conduct from such associations, but merely on the ground that all citizens or subjects are bound, either by natural born duty, or by naturalization, to uphold Her Majesty's crown and supremacy. That the meeting of magistrates mentioned in the said plea did not, and could not, confer upon the defendant the duty or right of doing anything contrary to law. That the defendant as mayor of the city could not prohibit any lawful meeting intended to be held by any class of Her Majesty's subjects. That the excitement mentioned in said plea as existing among the citizens of Montreal was not created by the meeting of the members of the Orange Association, but was caused by the acts and doings of the defendant, who congregated together a mob, organized and paid for preventing the exercise of an undeniable right by plaintiff and other members of the said Orange Association. Therefore the plaintiff prays that the said plea be dismissed with costs. That the 500 constables were under the personal direction of said defendant without any authorization of the City Council. That the names of the special constables could never be obtained from any source. That it is false that the plaintiff acquiesced in his own arrest. That neither the police magistrate nor the grand jury had probable cause for either committing the plaintiff or returning a true bill against him, but that both acted in unison with defendant's illegal animus and acts and were induced by defendant to dereliction of duty through common oppressive prejudices and illegalities as alleged in the declaration.

The Treaty With Afghanistan.
Advices from Simla, dated May 27, give a summary of the Articles of the Treaty of Peace concluded between Cavagnari and the Ameer of Afghanistan. These are as follows:
Art. 1 declares that peace and friendship shall henceforth subsist between the contracting parties.
Art. 2 proclaims an amnesty guaranteeing the Ameer's subjects from all punishment or molestation on account of their intercourse with the British forces.
Art. 3 stipulates that the foreign affairs of the Ameer shall be conducted under British advice, and that the Ameer shall be supported by the British Government against foreign aggression.
Art. 4 A British resident is to be appointed at Cabul, provided with a proper escort, and having power to depute British Agents to the Afghan frontier on special occasions. The Ameer is also permitted to depute Agents in India.
Art. 5. The Ameer guarantees the safety and honorable treatment of British Agents in his dominions. Commercial facilities from the subject of a separate agreement, concluded for a term of 12 months.
Telegraph communication is to be established with Cabul via the Khurum Valley.
The territory at present in British occupation is to be restored to the Ameer, with the exception of the Khurum, Pisheen, and Sibi Valleys, the latter remaining as districts assigned to the British Government, the Ameer receiving the surplus revenue after the payment of the administrative expenses.
The British authorities are to have complete control of the Khyber and Michni Passes, as well as of the relations and independence of the frontier tribes in the district in which the passes are situated.
The Ameer is to receive an annual subsidy of six lakhs of rupees contingent upon his strict execution of the Treaty.
A mixed Commission will determine Anglo-Afghan boundaries.

'Go out young man, she's not here,' said a Kentucky preacher last Sunday, in the midst of his sermon, to a youth who was hesitating in the doorway.
