FAREWELL SERVICES.—Prof. H. K. Burt, Ph. D., will preach for the last time at the Christian Church, Upper Great George Street, next Sabbath evening at 6.30. In the morning at 11 o'clock he will preach at Lot 48.

GOOD RESULTS.—According to the Summerside Journal the Alberton Tea made $700 on the first day and a little over $500 on the second. The Four National at Esquimaux Bay on the 15th realized $500 and at Fifteen Point $300.

WELL EARNED.—Nicholas Murphy, a watchman on the Boston tea wharf, was presented, on Saturday, with a gold headed cane by his employers, for his bravery in having saved 100 persons from drowning during the past five years.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Says the Journal; Last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gavin, of Nail Pond Road, were preparing to go to the Alberton Tea Party. Mr. Gavin went to the barn for the horse and when he returned to the house his wife was dead.

THE LYCEUM.—The Zera Semon Co. had another good house last evening, and the performance was much appreciated. The gold watch was won by Robert E. Smith, the tea set by John Duffy, and the chamber set by Mrs. R. Thorne. Several other valuable presents were given away.

KISSED WHILE ASLEEP.—A Georgia girl aroused the whole household, screaming and declaring that some one had kissed her while she was asleep. Her father rushed in, with a pistol in one hand and a candle in the other, when the intruder was discovered in the shape of the damsel's pet kitten, nestling behind her pillow.

THE COLOR LINE.—The Rev. C. O. SATISFACTION EXPRESSED.—An Ottawa despatch says that Hon. Mr. Tupper, who has just returned from a personal inspection of the fishing grounds, expresses satisfaction at the manner in which the protection service is being conducted. Regarding the river fisheries he is of the opinion that the law prohibiting the sawdust nuisance must be more stringently enforced.

EDUCATIONAL.—We would call the attention of the teachers and others interested in education to the fact that the Committee of Management of the Interprovincial Convention recently held at St. John, do not purpose as was at first intended, to publish an account of the proceedings, but that, in the August and succeeding numbers of the Educational Review, there will appear a full report of the transactions. As larger editions than usual will be issued, and persons wishing to obtain copies may do so by applying to Dr. Anderson, Editor for P. E. Island.

WHITE WINGS.—The first of the series of yacht races for the silk banner took place on Tuesday afternoon in Summerside harbor. Four boats entered: the Meteor, the Vixen, the Undine, and the Emma. After rounding the second stake boat the Vixen carried away the step of her mast and was towed to the wharf by the Frank C. Batt; the Emma leaked so badly that she had to abandon the contest when nearly out to the light house. The Meteor was heavily from the first while the Undine ran the entire course in good style and came in about 15 minutes behind the Meteor, which is unquestionably a fast and safe boat. The course was about 12 miles and the Meteor's time 3h. 33m. 55.—Journal.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

The Fisheries Treaty.

LONDON, Aug. 22. The Daily News, commenting on the rejection of the Fishery Treaty by the U. S. Senate says: "It is an admirable example of the many evils which the diabolists are bringing upon their country."

The Daily Chronicle says: "This unworthy attempt to make party capital of a question which might involve the two great countries in war, is not likely to endear the Republican party to the majority of native born Americans."

The Pall Mall Gazette, referring to the rejection of the fisheries treaty by the United States Senate, says it simply prefigures the whole question to an amicable settlement after the presidential election. Neither Americans nor Englishmen are fanatics, and the world will not be plunged into a bath of blood because opinions differ over a kettle of fish.

Another Steamship Disaster

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22. The coast steamer City of Chester was run down and sunk, about 10 a. m. to-day, by the Occidental and Oriental steamer Oceanic, 33 lives being lost. The accident occurred in the Bay of San Francisco, a short distance from the Golden Gate. The City of Chester had started on her regular trip to Eureka, on the northern coast of California, carrying an unusually large number of passengers.

Liberal-Conservative Picnic.

HALIFAX, Aug. 22. Owing to the heaviest rain storm of the season which prevailed to-day, and must have greatly injured crops, it was impossible to hold the picnic for which the Halifax Liberal-Conservatives had made such elaborate preparations. Sir John and Lady Macdonald leave for Cape Breton to-morrow morning.

Would Not Play.

LONDON, Aug. 22. At the Irish Exhibition in Barrack Street yesterday, a band from Cork refused to play the National Anthem, and was hissed by the spectators. Members of the band afterwards stated that they would not have dared to return to Ireland if they had played the anthem.

Terrific Cyclone.

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 22. A terrific cyclone or waterspout wrought terrible havoc in this vicinity last evening. At least $50,000 worth of property must have been destroyed. Five persons are known to have been killed and seven seriously wounded, while a large number were more or less injured.

The Howes Murder.

ANDOVER, Aug. 22. The coroner's inquest was concluded this evening, the jury finding the following verdict: "That Susan L. Howes came to her death by a bullet fired from a rifle in the hands of Wm. Day Frank Traiton, and Henry Phillipine, and that the said Wm. Day, Frank Traiton and Henry Phillipine did wilfully murder Susan L. Howes."

An Unfounded Rumor.

FREDERICTON, Aug. 22. The rumor current at a late hour last evening that Mr. George J. Bliss had died of apoplexy was unfounded. Mr. Bliss is still alive, but lies in an unconscious condition. There are no hopes of his recovery.

Mr. Waldie Elected.

MILTON, Ont., Aug. 22. Mr. Waldie, Liberal, has been elected for the Commons in Halton by a majority of 27.

Weather bulletin.

TORONTO, August 23—10 a. m. Fresh to strong north to west winds, fair and cool.

Yesterday's Storm.

YESTERDAY we were visited by a heavy storm of wind and rain from the southeast. The storm began about six o'clock in the morning, and by nine the wind had gradually worked up to a speed of eighteen miles an hour, and continued to increase in violence till about 1.45, when the speed rose to an average of about thirty-five miles. This latter speed was maintained for some twenty minutes, after which it slackened to about sixteen miles and gradually lowered till about 9.45 p. m., when the storm was over and the weather began to clear up. The maximum speed of the wind was 42 miles; but this was only maintained for about five minutes when the storm was at its height. During the storm about two inches of rain fell, the heaviest this season. In this city there was, so far as we can learn, no damage done. The tide, however, was somewhat higher than usual and beat about the wharves with considerable violence.

Reports from the east and west are to the effect that the grain is beaten down flat in many places and considerably injured. At Souris the storm is said to have been very heavy; about 150 fishing vessels have to run inside the breakwater, over which the sea broke mast high, for shelter.

The steamer St. Lawrence left here for Picton on time, and was about seven hours reaching her destination. Captain Cameron says that he had an exceedingly rough run. The steamer arrived here on return with mails and passengers shortly after eight o'clock last evening.

At Point du Chene, the storm was also very heavy. The Princess of Wales did not leave for Summerside till midnight—after the storm had subsided—and reached Summerside at 4 o'clock this morning. The mails and passengers were brought to town by regular train this forenoon.

TO THE DEAF.—A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years standing by a simple remedy will send a description of it FREE to any person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John Street, Montreal. Am—m14

The Wanderer Returns.

A LONG LOST BROTHER APPEARS AFTER FIFTEEN YEARS.

What queer things happen at times! But the narrative given below happened at the proper time and was the cause of much happiness to at least two human beings now in this city, and no doubt before the end of the week will bring joy to at least several families in P. E. Island. It is events of this nature which lead me to attribute many of the occurrences of every day life to fate. Had Henry Hooper been three minutes later in entering the I. C. R. depot yesterday afternoon, he would have missed seeing the brother whom he lamented as dead for over 15 years. The story, which is a very singular one, bordering as it does upon the romantic, appears to be about as follows: About 15 years ago a resident of Charlottetown named John Hooper died leaving three sons, named respectively, John, Harry and — Hooper, and two daughters. To each of them he bequeathed $500, and to Harry, his second son, he gave his farm, stock, farming implements, etc., besides. Shortly after the father's death, and after the property had been divided and each received his or her allotted share, John apprenticed Harry to a blacksmith in Georgetown. A few days afterwards Harry gave his $500 to John to deposit in the bank for him, and John was never seen afterwards until yesterday afternoon. At the time of his disappearance inquiries were made; it was discovered that the money had never been deposited, and no trace of him being found the relatives, concluding that he had been robbed and murdered, have long since ceased to think of him as among the living. Harry remained in Georgetown for four years, and then went to the States working in Boston and several cities in Pennsylvania. Six years ago he came to Gibson, N. B., and married a Miss Colwell of that place. Last summer he removed to this city and went to work in the nut and bolt works, and was employed there until a few weeks ago when he gave up his job with the intention of going to British Columbia. Yesterday afternoon he was going into the I. C. R. depot for the purpose of procuring his ticket, and had just passed through the main door when he was astonished to see a man coming towards him whom he believed to be his brother. He hastened towards him, introduced himself and identified his brother beyond the shadow of a doubt by the absence of the little finger of his left hand and dislocation of the left eye—John having accidentally shot off his little finger and injured the sight of his eye before leaving home. John did not recognize Harry so readily, but when they went into the waiting room and after talking for a few minutes he was fully persuaded and the brothers joyfully embraced one another, happy in their meeting on this sphere, as neither of them expected to meet the other again. An explanation from John was then in order. He stated that after receiving the money he went to Southern California and invested it there; the speculation was a losing one and he was ashamed to write home. He afterwards acquired a share in some mining property, but it never panned out to any extent, and he constantly deferred revealing his whereabouts until he should be able to return the money. Meantime his property was becoming more valuable, and at last the opportunity arrived. He sold his property about the first of the month and realized $50,000 on the transaction. The sale was hardly effected, or the ink with which the transfer was written dried, when he started on his journey home to endeavor, if possible, to find his brothers and sisters, and make amends for the past. He arrived in the city lately, and was just passing out of the station when his brother recognized him by the marks above referred to.

The other members of the family are living in P. E. Island, and no doubt will be glad to learn that their long lost brother is alive, and that they soon may clasp his hand and welcome him back to his old home. John, it is said, will divide his wealth with his brother Harry, which will be making the amende honorable in a true brotherly manner. John is now about 35 years of age and Harry 30.—St. John Telegraph.
