New York Stocks Were Hesitant During Week

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market backed and filled in a hesitant manner all week and then flared up in a rally in the final session.

Railroads, at present enjoying their best freight business in five years, spearheaded the final drive ahead.

It left brokers and traders in a hullabaloo of mind. All week they had watched the market sag a little or mark time within narrow confines, and the final show of strength was cheering.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks on the week lost 20 cents and closed at $188.70.

CAUTIOUS BUT STEADY

It was just two weeks ago that the average reached its record high mark of $191.50. Since then the market has gone down in a soggy manner. Many believed that an unexpected piece of bad news could tumble prices quickly. They watched for just that kind of a development and naturally were cautious.

However, one piece of news after another brushed past the market without apparent effect.

Among Canadian issues on the New York exchange, Aluminium Ltd. gained 1/2 over the week's trading and closed Friday at 121 1/4. Canadian Pacific was down to 84 1/4. Distillers Seagram lost 1/4 to 37. Dome Mines was off 1/4 to 14 1/4. Grayby Mining lost a point to 16. Hudson Bay Mining was down 1/2 to 65 1/2. International Nickel gained 1 1/2 to 92. McIntyre was down 1/4 to 89 1/4.

On the American exchange, Brazilian Traction lost a point to 6 1/4. Canadian Marconi was unchanged at 5 1/4 and Preston East Dome was unchanged at 6 1/4.
