THE ENGINEER'S BI-WEEKLY

This page is humour for the sake of humour. The opinions expressed here are not necessarily the opinions of The Gem or the Engineering Society and may not necessarily be opinions at all. Any fools who take this page seriously and offend themselves should start trying to develop a sense of humour.

HORNY'S HERO'S

As most followers will already know, HORNY'S HOCKEY HERO'S, continue to display a fine example of sportsmanship and a desire to crush their opponents by exponential scoring margins. The same will hold true for this year!

HORNY'S HOKEY HERO'S will try and regain the campus cup, although last year we failed to provide a campus cup ring for our last remaining toe.

The management has made a few major adjustments with the line-up this year. It has been rumored that a 12 million dollar trade was made with the Edmonton Oilers in exchange for three fist round daft choices. Although this is a significant cost for a player, HORNY believes that increased revenues from the Sale of tickets will result.

Another change rumored in the halls of Duffy has informed us that the team has researched a new jersey. Instead of the old purple and yellow, with that ancient crown on the front, management has clearly stated the new attitude will be either black or white.

A second addition to our fine line-up will be the honorable coach "STEVE CHERRY". With his ruff and tumble fighting style, he will surely make an impact on some of the players boxing fees. Apparently, say some sources, Steve hasn't been the same since he was involved in a legal battle with BLUE. Some sources revealed that STEVE shouted, "GOD, YOU'RE A DOG GONE ASSHOLE!" and BLUE took offence. Resulting in BLUE changing his name to SUDS MACKENZIE and doing BEER commercials with luscious babes. He will be remembered for his on the bench, "PISSING ON PEOPLE" attitude.

Also in regard to the accusations of HORNY'S HOCKEY HERO'S on ROIDS, we have profitably sold the rights to the highly acclaimed Gem. (to be seen later) it was speculated that the Gem bought the story in return for supplying the engineers with free beer till the year 2001.

In review, it should be a very good hockey season, and HORNY would like to wish everybody the best of *uck! if it sounds like were being cauky, then you're not as stupid as we thought.

P.S. It's rumored that a press conference will be held to reveal the mystery player from Edmonton who cries.

HINT: It's believed that he knocked up some island girl and is coming back to live with the mother-in-law.

Island Breweries Amends Dispute

In a previous issue of the Gem, (Volume 6, Number 6) the Engineering Society published an editorial that spoke of an incident involving Island Breweries. As a result of that article, Jamie Rix, Promotional Manager of Island Breweries, set up a meeting with several members of the society. At the outset of the meeting, Mr. Rix agreed that he had erred in his handling of the situation and apologized for any inconvenience to us. We accepted his apology and in addition, arrangements were made to produce a policy regarding any future sponsorship by this company towards any UPEI society.

We look forward to reaffirming our old ties with this company, so that we may do business with them in the future as we had in the past. Now that the previously mentioned policy will soon be implemented, we encourage all societies to support this local Island company, as we will in upcoming festive season.
