TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Softer prices dominated dull trading Thursday at the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Base metals paced the decline as Canada's large copper producers were caught in the American government's squeeze on United States producers to cut back the price of copper to 36 cents a pound. North American producers last week raised prices by about 2 cents a pound following increases by Chile and Africa.

Inco and Cominco both dipped 1¼ to 100½ and 50½, Noranda 1⅛ to 51 and Falconbridge ¼ to 109¾.

Among industrials, which were down .94 on index to 168.14, B.C. Forest lost ⅞ to 20, Moore Corp., ¾ to 80¼, Stelco ⅜ to 26⅛, Rothmans ¼ to 23 and Dominion Stores ⅛ to 25¾. However Algoma Central led the main list in volume and climbed ¾ to 61⅜ while Imperial Oil added ½ at 53¾.

Bank stocks were mixed with Nova Scotia gaining ¼ to 71½ and Royal was unchanged at 72½ while Toronto - Dominion eased ½ to 60¾, Montreal ¼ to 60 and Imperial-Commerce ⅛ to 62.

On index, base metals were off .74 to 85.31 and the TSE index .81 to 158.51. Golds advanced 1.53 to 159.34 and western oils .99 to 105.23.

NEW YORK (AP)—A New York man whose wife was lost in the cruise ship Yarmouth Castle disaster has filed a $2,250,000 damage suit in Supreme Court.

Harry Ebner, 54, a U.S. government meat inspector, named as defendants three firms involved in operation of the ship: The Chadade Steamship Co., Inc., Yarmouth Shipping Lines, and Yarmouth Cruise Lines, Inc.

The ship burned and sank Saturday, with a loss of many lives. Ebner and his wife, Sylvia, were among the passengers aboard for a weekend cruise from Miami to Nassau.

In his complaint, Ebner charged that the vessel was not equipped with "sufficient, adequate and proper fire fighting apparatus, life preservers, life boats or in anywise equipped or maintained in a manner adequate to cope with a fire."

Also, Ebner charged, that the vessel was not maintained by "competent crew measuring up to that standard of training, experience and efficiency necessary to cope with a fire aboard ship."

He also alleged that lifeboats wre in an unseaworthy condition and improperly manned.

In court papers, Ebner said his wife was trapped in her stateroom and he tried to rescue her but was prevented by smoke, fire and other conditions.

Thd court papers said he was "in such close proximity that he could observe her distress and helplessness, but as heretofore stated could not reach within any distance to be of any help to her."

Ebner said he suffered burns and other injuries in attempting to reach his wife, and that in observing her plight suffered "excruciating psychic trauma and emotional distress, which is so severe that it is of a permanent and lasting nature."
