

Mrs. P. Holland Is Laid To Rest

The funeral of the late Mrs. Peter Holland was held yesterday morning from her late residence to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Eric Robin. Rev. Preston Hammill was deacon and Rev. Charles Holland, son of the deceased, was sub-deacon.

Present in the sanctuary were: Rt. Rev. J. A. Murphy, VG, Rt. Rev. Patrick MacMahon, Rt. Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, Rt. Rev. John A. Sullivan, Rev. F. L. Mulhally, Rev. Wilfred Keefe, Rev. W. D. MacDonald, Rev. Dennis Gallant, and Rev. Thomas MacLellan. Assisting in the choir was Rev. Dr. Bernard Gillis. Members of the Catholic Women's League, Basilica parish, Overseas Nursing Sisters and the

Canadian Legion attended in a body. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery where services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Eric Robin, assisted by Rev. Charles Holland. Legion graveside services were conducted by Frederick MacAleer. Last Post and Reveille were sounded by bugler David Mills. Pall bearers were: Messrs. Thomas White, Daniel MacDonaid, Stewart MacIntyre, Joseph Harris, Russell St. John and Melvin McQuaid. The funeral was very largely attended.

FLU OUTBREAK

QUEBEC (CP)—Three Quebec hospitals have decided to prohibit visiting because of a large number of influenza cases in the city. Restrictions will start today at L'Hotel Dieu, Quebec General and St. Francois d'Assise.

RUSH BELOW EXPECTATIONS

The last minute rush to register motor vehicles proved less than expected at the motor vehicle registration office Wednesday, the deadline for registering cars, trucks, etc., for 1959. Motor vehicle registrar J. A. Gallant thought good driving conditions on paved roads played a part in keeping the rush to a minimum.

3 Remanded For Sentencing On Break, Theft Charges

Three men, residents of Winsloe, East Royalty and Milton, pleaded guilty to charges of break, entry and theft when they appeared in County Magistrate's court yesterday morning before Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet. The three were remanded for sentencing to Friday. The Milton man pleaded guilty to stealing 10 hens, the property of a Milton resident. The Winsloe and East Royalty men pleaded guilty to a similar charge and also to the theft of 20 hens, the property of a Brookfield woman and the theft of 30 10-pound bags of oats, the property of a New Wiltshire man. Gerald R. Foster is counsel for the defence, J. P. Nicholson is acting for the Crown. The preliminary hearing of a Charlottetown man charged with obstructing a sheriff who was executing a writ of seizure was adjourned for consideration until April 22nd following completion of evidence. A North Rustico man charged with having possession of intoxicating liquor at a place other than his residence was fined $20 and costs or 30 days. A Hampshire youth was fined $10 and costs or 10 days when he appeared on a charge of driving without due care and attention. Residents of Charlottetown and Middel were fined $5 and costs or five days on charges of failing to register motor vehicles for the current year. Similar fines were drawn by residents of Winsloe, one for failing to stop at a stop sign and another for driving a motor vehicle with defective equipment.

N.B. Resident Remanded

A Port Elgin, N.B., man was remanded in custody until Wednesday, April 22nd, when he appeared in City Police Court yesterday morning on a charge of obstructing a police officer, who was in the performance of his duties. Pleading guilty to a charge of obstructing a police officer, a city man of no fixed address was remanded for sentencing until Monday. Ten-day jail sentences were given by two city residents appearing on charges of being drunk and incapable. Failing to stop at a red traffic light cost a city resident a fine of $10 and costs or five days.
