

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

PRINCE COUNTY OFFICE
3 Summer Street, Summerside, Phone 8031 News, Subscriptions, Advertising Representative GEORGE CLOW and GEORGE WOTTON House Phones: 8032 and 8033 —BARGAINS— Pre-stock-taking bargains at Bracc's.

—DANCE Spring Valley hall, Tuesday, January 12th.

—HOCKEY Tuesday night, January 12th, at 8:15, Bedeque rink, South Shore League, Summerside Aces vs. Albany St. Pats. Admission 35 cents.

—HOCKEY Bedeque rink, Monday, January 11th, 8:15. South Shore League, Albany St. Pats vs. Freetown Royals. Admission 35 cents.

—JUNIOR HOCKEY, Bedeque rink, Wednesday, January 13th, 7:30 p.m. Double header, Wilnot versus Upper Freetown and South Freetown versus Kinkora. Admission 25 cents to all

—HOCKEY Bedeque Rink Monday, January 11th at 8:15. South Shore League R.C.A.F. Flyers vs.
Freetown Royals. Admission 35 cents. League executive will meet immediately after the game.

—GUEST SPEAKER — Miss Margaret MacDougall, regional secretary for the Board of Christian Education in the Maritimes was the guest speaker at the Presbyterian Church last evening where she gave an inspiring and instructive talk on Christian education. —S.

—RECEIVES INJURIES — Mr.
Kenneth Smith, Alberton, was taken to the Western Hospital last Saturday night suffering from bruises and cuts about the head and legs apparently as the result of being struck by a motor vehicle. A deep cut on the head required seven stitches. Mr. Smith was on his way home and was in the driveway at the time of the accident.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside, gathered at Trinity United Church on Saturday afternoon to pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her acquaintance. Her many acts of kindness throughout her life will be long remembered. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Charlottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And they shall see His face and His name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was under the direction of the organist, Miss Mary Geldart and the hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Everlasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Summerside. The many floral offerings were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—RECEIVES INJURIES — Mr.
Kenneth Smith, Alberton, was taken to the Western Hospital last Saturday night suffering from
bruises and cuts about the head
and legs apparently as the result
of being struck by a motor vehicle. A deep cut on the head
required seven stitches. Mr. Smith
was on his way home and was in
the driveway at the time of the accident.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The ser-
vice was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The ser-
vice was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The ser-
vice was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The ser-
vice was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The ser-
vice was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The ser-
vice was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The ser-
vice was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

—FUNERAL SATURDAY —
Many friends and relatives of the
late Mrs. G. W. Phillips, Summerside,
gathered at Trinity United
Church on Saturday afternoon to
pay their final tributes of respect.
The deceased was well and favorably
known throughout Prince
County and her high standard of
Christian living was an influence
to all who had the privilege of her
acquaintance. Her many acts of
kindness throughout her life will
be long remembered. The funeral
service was conducted by Rev. Horace
F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., of Char-
lottetown, with Rev. C. Daniel
Mathison, B.A., presiding. The service was based on the text "And
they shall see His face and His
name shall be in their foreheads."
(Revelation 22:4) The music was
under the direction of the organ-
ist, Miss Mary Geldart and the
hymns sung were "The Lord's My
Shepherd" and "Praise Be The Ever-
lasting God." The pall bearers
were Messrs. G. W. Hogg, Lloyd
Miller, Robert Carruthers, Fred
Robertson, Bertram Phillips, and
Reginald MacFarlane. Interment
was in the People's Cemetery, Sum-
merside. The many floral offerings
were expressive of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held. —S.

Mayor Wedge
Suffers Injuries

—Mayor Henry Wedge of Summerside was rushed to the Charlottetown Hospital last evening suffering from a fractured jaw bone, a broken nose and a broken bone over his eye as a result of being thrown from a sleigh while exercising his young, half broken, colt at the Summerside Raceway, late yesterday afternoon.
As far as could be learned, the young colt shied at some object, causing the sleigh to overturn throwing Mayor Wedge to the frozen ground with the resultant injuries. He was rushed by ambulance to Charlottetown last night for observation and treatment.—S.

S'side Athletic Ass'n Meeting

—The Summerside Athletic Association held a meeting at the Fur Pool office yesterday to discuss plans for a hockey program for the present season. President Bob Clark was in the chair, and he called upon Jimmie Hogan, secretary of the association, to outline what is planned in the way of practice for the minor hockey groups at the Raceway Stadium. It was suggested that Mr. Harold Gaudet be approached with a view to having a special skate on Saturday morning (11 convenient) of the children of grades I, II and III so that they might learn to skate unmolested by the bigger boys and girls.

Cape Traverse
Defeat Aces 6-2

A good game of hockey was played in Borden rink, Saturday night, between Cape Traverse Rovers and Summerside Aces which ended in a 6-2 win for the Cape. There was a good sheet of ice and about 250 in attendance. The lineup: Summerside, Goal, Lefurgy; Defence, Woodside, Shields, Farmer; Forwards, P. Schurman, M. Schur-man, Harris Grady, Gaudet, Cameron.
Cape Traverse, Goal, Jordan; Defence, Dalziel, Outway, Muttart; MacLean; Forwards, Howatt, Des-Roches, Williams, Clutiff, Noonan, Carruthers, Peters, W. Mac-Fadyen, G. MacFadyen.
Summary
First period
1. Cape Traverse, DesRoches
(Williams, Howatt)
2. Cape Traverse, Williams (How-att)
Second period
3. Cape Traverse, DesRoches
(Howatt)
4. Cape Traverse, Carruthers (Dalziel, Noonan)
5. Cape Traverse, Muttart, (Carruthers) Penalties — Woodside, Howatt.
Third period
6. Summerside, Schurman (Woodside)
7. Summerside, Cameron (Grady, Gaudet)
8. Cape Traverse, Peters (W.
MacFadyen, Outway)
Penalties, Woodside.
Shots on goal, Jordan 15, Lefurgy 26.
Referees — Campbell and Ozon.

Wings Defeat
Canadiens 2-1

DETROIT, (CP) — Detroit Red
Wings surged back into the first place in the National Hockey League Sunday night with a 2-1 victory over Montreal Canadiens here.
The season's largest crowd watched the game expecting action as Montreal drew first blood on a goal by centre Ken Mosdell at 2:06 in the first period.
But sixteen seconds later Detroit evened the count. The production line of Red Lindsay, Gordie Howe and Butch Reibel combined from the face off with Lindsay getting the goal after being set up by passes from Reibel and Howe.
Forward John Wilson scored the winning goal in the second period when he skated around Bernie Geoffrion to take a pass from Metro Prystal and beat goalkeeper Gerry McNeil from close in.
Richard Boeod

P. W. C. Edge Sport Lodge 42-41 In League Opener

The Ivan Dowling coached Prince of Wales College basketball team won the opening game of the City League on Saturday night by defeating the Sport Lodge Trojans 42-41 in the P. W. C. auditorium.
The Trojans closed fast to score five points in the last minute and 30 seconds but the Welsh-men controlled the ball during the final third of a minute to preserve their victory.
The game was closely contested throughout. At the end of the first quarter the Welshmen led 14-13. It was 22-22 at half time but the Welshmen moved away ff. the third quarter to lead 34-26.
—Mark Ladner led the P. W. C. attack by racking up 14 points, six of them on foul shots. Donnie MacLeod was runner-up with 10 followed by Malcolm MacFadyen with eight.
Coach Harold Howatt was high man for the Trojans with 14 points followed by Des Burge with eight and Walter LePage and Wendell Gillis with six.
The Welshmen exhibited smart passing and accurate shooting.
The Trojans showed best in a defensive light with Irving Mac-Kinnon and Moe Goodwin standing out.
The game was well handled by Earl Nicholson and Bernie Hughes.

Wings Defeat
Canadiens 2-1

DETROIT, (CP) — Detroit Red
Wings surged back into the first place in the National Hockey League
Sunday night with a 2-1 victory
over Montreal Canadiens here.
The season's largest crowd watched
the game expecting action as Montreal drew first blood on a
goal by centre Ken Mosdell at 2:06
in the first period.
But sixteen seconds later Detroit
evened the count. The production
line of Red Lindsay, Gordie Howe
and Butch Reibel combined from
the face off with Lindsay getting
the goal after being set up by
passes from Reibel and Howe.
Forward John Wilson scored the
winning goal in the second period
when he skated around Bernie Geoffrion to take a pass from Metro Prystal and beat goalkeeper Gerry McNeil from close in.
Richard Boeod

Wings Defeat
Canadiens 2-1

DETROIT, (CP) — Detroit Red
Wings surged back into the first place in the National Hockey League
Sunday night with a 2-1 victory
over Montreal Canadiens here.
The season's largest crowd watched
the game expecting action as Montreal drew first blood on a
goal by centre Ken Mosdell at 2:06
in the first period.
But sixteen seconds later Detroit
evened the count. The production
line of Red Lindsay, Gordie Howe
and Butch Reibel combined from
the face off with Lindsay getting
the goal after being set up by
passes from Reibel and Howe.
Forward John Wilson scored the
winning goal in the second period
when he skated around Bernie Geoffrion to take a pass from Metro Prystal and beat goalkeeper Gerry McNeil from close in.
Richard Boeod

The Meteor Rideau sedan, shown above, is one of 11 models for 1954, which will go on display in Mercury-Lincoln-Meteor showrooms the week of January 11. Both the Meteor Rideau and Meteor Niagara series will have 125-h.p. V-8 engines. The Rideau, a completely new series this year, will also include the Skyliner, a two-door luxury class automobile with transparent green Plexiglas roof panel, and eye-catching new upholstery and trim combinations. Meteors for 1954 include a wide range of special features as either regular or optional equipment, including power steering, power brakes and four-way power seat.

Aircraft Leave
On First Leg
Of Tour To U. S.

—Two Lancaster aircraft of Central Navigation School, Summerside, yesterday took off from their base on the first leg of a tour of the Eastern and Southern United States. The first aircraft took the air at 10:30 a.m. under command of F. L. Vernon Ehlman and the second at 2:05 p.m. commanded by
P/O Ralph Emery.
The scheduled flight calls for a first stop at the naval air base on the Patuxant River in Maryland.
It is expected that they will be gone about three weeks and during that time will visit bases in Virginia, Ohio, Florida, Texas and California.—S.

Aircraft Leave
On First Leg
Of Tour To U. S.

—Two Lancaster aircraft of Central Navigation School, Summ-
erside, yesterday took off from their
base on the first leg of a tour of
the Eastern and Southern United States. The first aircraft took the
air at 10:30 a.m. under command
of F. L. Vernon Ehlman and the second at 2:05 p.m. commanded by
P/O Ralph Emery.
The scheduled flight calls for a
first stop at the naval air base on
the Patuxant River in Maryland.
It is expected that they will be
gone about three weeks and during that time will visit bases in Virginia, Ohio, Florida, Texas and California.—S.

Aircraft Leave
On First Leg
Of Tour To U. S.

—Two Lancaster aircraft of Central Navigation School, Summ-
erside, yesterday took off from their
base on the first leg of a tour of
the Eastern and Southern United States. The first aircraft took the
air at 10:30 a.m. under command
of F. L. Vernon Ehlman and the second at 2:05 p.m. commanded by
P/O Ralph Emery.
The scheduled flight calls for a
first stop at the naval air base on
the Patuxant River in Maryland.
It is expected that they will be
gone about three weeks and during that time will visit bases in Virginia, Ohio, Florida, Texas and California.—S.

Aircraft Leave
On First Leg
Of Tour To U. S.

—Two Lancaster aircraft of Central Navigation School, Summ-
erside, yesterday took off from their
base on the first leg of a tour of
the Eastern and Southern United States. The first aircraft took the
air at 10:30 a.m. under command
of F. L. Vernon Ehlman and the second at 2:05 p.m. commanded by
P/O Ralph Emery.
The scheduled flight calls for a
first stop at the naval air base on
the Patuxant River in Maryland.
It is expected that they will be
gone about three weeks and during that time will visit bases in Virginia, Ohio, Florida, Texas and California.—S.

Aircraft Leave
On First Leg
Of Tour To U. S.

—Two Lancaster aircraft of Central Navigation School, Summ-
erside, yesterday took off from their
base on the first leg of a tour of
the Eastern and Southern United States. The first aircraft took the
air at 10:30 a.m. under command
of F. L. Vernon Ehlman and the second at 2:05 p.m. commanded by
P/O Ralph Emery.
The scheduled flight calls for a
first stop at the naval air base on
the Patuxant River in Maryland.
It is expected that they will be
gone about three weeks and during that time will visit bases in Virginia, Ohio, Florida, Texas and California.—S.

Aircraft Leave
On First Leg
Of Tour To U. S.

—Two Lancaster aircraft of Central Navigation School, Summ-
erside, yesterday took off from their
base on the first leg of a tour of
the Eastern and Southern United States. The first aircraft took the
air at 10:30 a.m. under command
of F. L. Vernon Ehlman and the second at 2:05 p.m. commanded by
P/O Ralph Emery.
The scheduled flight calls for a
first stop at the naval air base on
the Patuxant River in Maryland.
It is expected that they will be
gone about three weeks and during that time will visit bases in Virginia, Ohio, Florida, Texas and California.—S.

Leafs Squeeze
Past Bruins 3-2

TORONTO, (CP) — Toronto
Maple Leafs scored three goals in the first period and then held off a strong offensive to defeat Boston Bruins 3-2 in a National Hockey League game Saturday night.
Forwards Harry Watson, Sid
Smith and Ron Stewart gave Leafs their victory. Toronto has been defeated on home ice only once this season and that was a 3-2 loss at the hands of the Bruins Oct. 24.
Cal Gardner and Dave Creighton scored for Boston.
Sugar Jim Henry and Harry Lumley starred in the nets. Henry made 27 stops and Lumley 28 as Bruins tried desperately for the equalizers in torrid second and third periods.

Leafs Squeeze
Past Bruins 3-2

TORONTO, (CP) — Toronto
Maple Leafs scored three goals in
the first period and then held off
a strong offensive to defeat Boston Bruins 3-2 in a National Hockey League game Saturday night.
Forwards Harry Watson, Sid
Smith and Ron Stewart gave
Leafs their victory. Toronto has
been defeated on home ice only
once this season and that was a
3-2 loss at the hands of the Bruins Oct. 24.
Cal Gardner and Dave Creigh-
ton scored for Boston.
Sugar Jim Henry and Harry
Lumley starred in the nets. Henry
made 27 stops and Lumley 28 as Bruins tried desperately for the
equalizers in torrid second and
third periods.

Leafs Squeeze
Past Bruins 3-2

TORONTO, (CP) — Toronto
Maple Leafs scored three goals in
the first period and then held off
a strong offensive to defeat Boston Bruins 3-2 in a National Hockey League game Saturday night.
Forwards Harry Watson, Sid
Smith and Ron Stewart gave
Leafs their victory. Toronto has
been defeated on home ice only
once this season and that was a
3-2 loss at the hands of the Bruins Oct. 24.
Cal Gardner and Dave Creigh-
ton scored for Boston.
Sugar Jim Henry and Harry
Lumley starred in the nets. Henry
made 27 stops and Lumley 28 as Bruins tried desperately for the
equalizers in torrid second and
third periods.

Leafs Squeeze
Past Bruins 3-2

TORONTO, (CP) — Toronto
Maple Leafs scored three goals in
the first period and then held off
a strong offensive to defeat Boston Bruins 3-2 in a National Hockey League game Saturday night.