BRISTOL

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elder,shaw have returned from a wonderful three weeks vacation with their daughter, Lois, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Simont, in Mitchell, Ont. On the way home they stopped off in Montreal for a week to visit with Miss Elder's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Arsenault. Both Charlie and Mrs. Eldershaw said "we waited for many long years for a vacation like this one, and at this season of the year it is nice to travel by train with no car worries."

Mrs. Connor O'Donohoe and young daughter who arrived here Christmas Eve from New York City on a sad mission, called by the sudden passing of Mrs. O'Donohoe's father, P. H. Simont, leave this week on return to their home. Mrs. O'Donohoe was the former Frances Simont and worked in the Income Tax office in Charlottetown.

With the skating season here again we like to recall the greatest skater of all time here, John Lapierre, who skated from St. Andrews, the east end of the river in Charlottetown in fifty-five minutes some seventy years ago in a feat that has never been beaten. A brother of John Stannis Lapierre, now eighty-nine recalls his brother's great feat, using a pair of handmade stock-skates fashioned from two blacksmith rasps by the late John O'Brien in his blacksmith shop where John Lapierre was learning his trade.

Last week we had a pleasant call from Miss Lida Webster, a school teacher in the Harbour school fifty years ago, long before Bristol had a school. There are only a few of the pupils of Miss Webster who is now living in retirement in Westport, Canada. She believes her age and his hard to believe it's so long since the old Harbour school days with its long deck and wood burning stove.

One lady here over eighty-three waited thirteen years for her old age pension cheque, and was informed she had never made a application, thinking it was not necessary to apply, as the government knew people's ages. So remember your age if you are near 70.

The death of John T. Berrigan a former Bristol boy, occurred recently in the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax and despite the fact he left Bristol many years ago to reside in Halifax, and later to return to Charlottetown to make his home, he always called Bristol home. Johnnie, as we all knew him, was flown to Halifax for an emergency operation but failed to come through surgery.

Sister Mary Gerard, the former Teresa O'Brien, who is stationed in Louisiana, writes her mother, Mrs. Walter O'Brien, that the deep south was white with snow on New Year's Day, the first time they had snow for sixty-one years. Very few of the older residents remembered ever seeing snow while the younger class thought it was wonderful. But she writes it was all gone in a couple of days, snowmelt and all, with the return of sunny weather.

The weekly dances in the village hall still draw a large attendance of the younger class and many who are not too young in years but young at heart.
