A GLOUCESTER, MASS., despatch of the 2nd inst. says that "the provincial schooners Annie Robertson, Festina and Lenta arrived at this port a week ago to fit for mackerelling on our coast. The Canadian authorities repeatedly order American fishermen from their ports, but provincial fishermen lay in our ports unmolested by bait, fit for fishing and sell their fish. Three vessels during the week had painted, repaired seines and taken all the necessary articles for fishing voyages."

The Myrtle Navy tobacco is not burdened with the usual costs which swell the price of most articles in the consumer; the firm employ no travellers whatever, their orders come to them instead of being sought by them. The merchant does not require to keep a large stock on hand swelling its price with interest, for the factory is an immediate source of supply to him, at the cost of a postal card, or at most a telegram. He loses nothing, therefore, from being overstocked. The article is a staple one, for which there is a constant demand as for wheat or flour, and the merchant can therefore sell it at a minimum rate of profit.

The market to-day was fairly well attended and the prices were as follows: Beef (small) 7 to 10 cts per lb; do per qr 4 to 7 cts; mutton, 5 to 8 cts; pork (carcase) 4 to 5 cts; pork (small) 6 to 8 cts; lamb, 6 to 8 cts; ham, per lb, 13 to 14 cts; fowls, each, 25 to 35 cts; butter (fresh), 23 to 25; do (tub) 18 to 20 cts; eggs, per doz, 10 to 12 cts; clover seed, 16 to 18 cts per lb; flour per 100 lbs, $2.25 to $2.75; oatmeal, do, $2.30 to $2.50; oats, 32 to 33 cts; hay per 100, 55 cts; potatoes, 18 to 20 cts; geese, 50 to 70; cabbage, per doz, 35 to 50; turnips, per bush, 12 to 15 cts; seed Timothy $3 per bush; veal, 3 to 7 cts per lb; turkeys, 80c to $1.75; Redfish per bunch, 6 cents; herring, (fresh) 10 to 12 cts.

The motion was seconded by Senator Montgomery. Senator Haythorne moved in amendment, seconded by Senator Power, that the Bill be referred to a committee for amendment. Senator Howland quoted the 70th rule of the House, showing the amendment to be out of order and the speaker ruled against it. Senator Haythorne then moved, seconded by Senator Power, that the Bill be not read a third time. The amendment being put was lost on division 10 to 30. The original motion was carried unanimously.

The first sod of the Halifax Dry Dock, the biggest job of its kind in the world, was turned on Saturday afternoon last at 3 o'clock, by His Worship, Mayor McIntosh. The Pall Mall Gazette gives the people of Halifax some good advice. After describing the great natural advantages of the port and stating that the proposed new graving dock will be the largest in the world, it says that the city would probably have a great future before it if its citizens had some of the energy that characterizes the founders of the Canada Pacific Railway and would sink their individualism and work together for the interest of their city and port as well as for the welfare and progress of the great Dominion of Canada. The Pall Mall Gazette has struck the nail on the head. The people of Halifax are too sleepy and too provincial. If the city is ever to have a great future it will be because the people wake up to the fact that they are not an isolated community, but a port for the Dominion of Canada for all time, and the only way to secure prosperity is to be alive to the commercial opportunities of Canada.

The Dorchester correspondent of the Chignecto Post says:—A daring attempt to set fire to the country boarding house was made on Tuesday evening by the notorious Dan James Gillis, who is at present confined in that institution waiting trial for shooting Constable Bulmer, already referred to in THE EXAMINER. It appears that some good Samaritan (B) managed to smuggle a bottle of ardent to Mrs Grant of Moncton, another inmate of the institution, and she being of a friendly disposition managed to divide with Dan, and the brace of beauties got gloriously hilarious and uproariously drunk, and made the old walls of the jail echo with the choicest Billingsgate. During the evening Jailer Tait being out, the members of his family noticed a strong smell of smoke and could not tell from whence it proceeded. Becoming alarmed, they looked up the jailer, who, upon going up stairs and glancing into the room occupied by Gillis saw a fire nicely started in one corner, the flames reaching nearly to the ceiling. He immediately entered the cell and extinguished the fire, and found Dan James on the bed in a drunken sleep. Gillis had collected a lot of shavings and other materials and after setting fire on them had thrown himself upon the bed and fallen into a stupor.
