HAMPTON

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncy Pearson have returned from an enjoyable motor visit among friends in Montreal. Relatives and friends of Mr. Earle Callbeck regret to learn of an unfortunate accident sustained by the accidental falling of a heavy door upon his foot, requiring medical attention, and the necessity of discontinuing his duties as a building contractor. An early recovery and return to duty are among the best wishes extended.

It is pleasing to see Mr. Boyd MacQuarrie out driving his car, following a prolonged illness. Rev. and Mrs. Charman have returned to duty in this pastoral charge after attending the recent U. Church conference at Sackville, N.B.

The Orange Tea at North River on July 13, was well represented by the Lodges from the surrounding districts, ideal weather favoring a very large gathering.

The large assembly of relatives and friends at the funeral of the late Mr. Ernest Sturdy, whose death occurred at Crapaud on July 12, funeral services from his late residence, bore testimony to the respect for one who was widely known and respected, whose years had reached four score and one on life's journey. The interment was made in Crapaud Cemetery.

WRESTLER CHARGED

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va. (AP)—Gorgeous George, professional wrestling's glamor boy, was jailed here pending a hearing on a felonious assault charge. The golden-tressed performer was picked up Friday night on a warrant signed by the parents of Ray Curtis Clark, 12, who charged that during a match at Newhaven July 11, George picked up the boy and "threw him into a corner."

Sherbrook 4-H Plan Concert

The Sherbrooke 4-H Club will present a mammoth variety concert at Sherbrooke Hall on Wednesday night, July 24. The members are ready to demonstrate to the public the advantage of being a 4-H member in both the educational and recreational fields, and tickets are selling briskly.

Included on the program will be a short business meeting a debate with six members taking part. The topic is "Resolved That Country Life Offers More Advantages For Young People Than City Life." This debate will be judged by three other members of the club and will be chaired by a 10-year old boy.

Other highlights will be a public speaking exhibition by two members, and a dairy cattle judging demonstration. There will also be wrestling with a one fall 5 minute time limit. The contest will also be favoured with two skits and other "facilitating" and "his magic" which will see the entire club being hypnotized and taken on imaginary trips by the doctor. Two movies will be shown and a fall dance "Texan Whirl" will be another feature. There will be dancing for all after.

This club is nearing the end of its 10th year. It had the top dairy cattle judging team for P.E.I. in 1949. From 1951 to 1955 inclusive, this club sent five different speakers to the Maritime Winter Fair at Amherst which means they finished first or second in Island competition for 5 consecutive years.

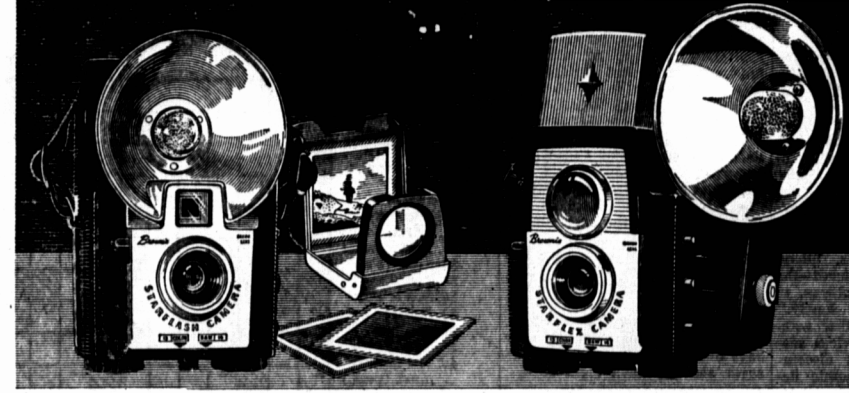

In 1952 the Sherbrooke 4-H Club won the Island Debating Championship. This club also won the Island square dancing title on two occasions and took part in the Maritime Square Dancing Contests at Amherst.

LEARN BY DOING The 4-H Club motto is "Learn To Do By Doing." The presidents since 1949 have been Urban Laughlin (3 years), John Dekker, Leighston Milligan, Kathleen Dekker, Arnold Madison. The late Junior Colwell, Elita Compton, Allison Laughlin and Peter Dekker. The Secretary-Treasurers have been Kathleen Dekker (2 years), Francis Colwell (5 years) and Merilyn MacDonald has served this office for the last three years.

The 1957 members of the club, who will be performing Wednesday night are: Merilyn MacDonald, Peter Dekker, Allison Laughlin, Violet Compton, Woodland Paupit, Allison Chappell, Carl Paupit, Vera Chappell, John MacDonald and Ruth Kristiansen. The two supervisors of the club are Urban Laughlin, who has been
