THE SACRED HEART.—The feast of the Sacred Heart was elaborately celebrated at Alberton on Friday. The church was beautifully decorated with green boughs, relieved by the flowering cherry and pear, and the grand white marble altar made more beautiful if possible by a profusion of palms, apple blossoms, tapers and fancy lights. A superb programme of appropriate music was executed by the talented Mrs. Doiron and a competent choir. The Solemn High Mass took place at 8 o'clock, and was followed by Benediction. Rev. Dr. Chaisson was the celebrant, Rev. Fathers McGrath and Turbide the deacons and Rev. Fathers Gallant and Burke directed the ceremonies. There was a large attendance. A very solemn part of the service was the general dedication to the Sacred Heart.

CONVENT DE NOTRE DAME

Exhibition of Plain and Fancy Sewing and Painting.

To anyone having a taste for the beautiful there is now presented an excellent opportunity for gratifying that taste. The annual display of fancy work by the young ladies of Notre Dame was opened this morning and it is certainly well worthy of a visit. The artist and instructress, Rev. Sr. St. Pierre, has good reason to be proud of the splendid work done by the young ladies. This includes a painting on china by Miss Y. Shehyn, which is especially deserving of notice; also a fire-scorer of very pleasing design with hand-painted panels, the work of Misses Van derstine and Shehyn, and numerous oil paintings of special merit by Misses Shehyn, Van derstine, E. Hornsby and A. Hogan. In this connection must be mentioned a pastel, the work of Miss A. Bearnes, also several specimens of crayon work by some of the young ladies already mentioned. Of this exhibit the gem is the representation of the "Resurrection," a splendidly-executed piece of crayon work by Miss Eugene's Hornsby. That the accomplishments of these young ladies are varied, is shown by the beautiful display of embroidered doilies, tea cozies, pin cushions and other articles both useful and ornamental, among which is a head rest showing some very skillful hand painting on satin, the work of Miss A. Hogan, who, with Misses E. Hornsby, S. Hornsby, B. McDonald, M. Larkin, F. McLean and Nellis Morgan, shows some very fine work in this department. Of plain sewing there is also a good exhibit, the work of the following: Misses Doucet, Dillon, S. Coyle, M. McCourt, A. Clarkin and A. Kelly. Last, and by no means least interesting, is the work of the little tots in the Kindergarten, tracing designs, clay moulding etc, etc, all of which is very well done and deserving of praise. After viewing the work visitors must conclude that these young ladies have received the most careful instruction from the talented Sisters of Notre Dame, and that they have profited by it is evident by the quantity and more particularly by the excellence of the work. The exhibition of work is open to visitors today and tomorrow.

DIPHTHERIA PREVALENT.—Diphtheria is prevalent in the township of Amherst. Six deaths occurred there lately from the disease.

CONVENT DE NOTRE DAME.—The closing exercises of the convent de Notre Dame will take place on the evening of the 22nd inst. A choice programme is being made ready for the occasion.

AN EXPLANATION.—The windmill at St. Dunstan's College, to which reference was made in Saturday's EXAMINER, was erected by Mr. John McLellan. It was imported through Mr. T. A. McLean.

THE ISLAND STEAMERS.—The Northumberland went to Picton today for her usual cleaning. Her place will be taken by the Princess. The Stanley replaces the Princess on the Charlottetown-Picton route.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.—Fire at Augusta, Ga., last week did $250,000 damage. During the height of the excitement ten thousand rounds of cartridges in the armory began to explode and for about an hour there was an incessant fusillade of shots that sounded like a real battle.

A VICIOUS BIRD.—On Thursday evening the two-year-old daughter of Mr. James Smith, Summerside, was attacked by a rooster, while playing in the yard, and had her face considerably torn and bruised by the vicious bird's spurs and wings.—Journal.

FLOWER MISSION.—The flower mission of the Y's will meet at the Y C T U rooms, Grafton Street, on Tuesday afternoon during the summer. The committee tries as far as possible to supply the sick in the houses and hospitals with flowers, fruit, reading matter, and also distribute literature to the sailors. Donations of above named articles will be thankfully received.

THE BREWERY.—Colonel Curran, of Halifax, one of the directors of the Halifax Brewing Company, is in the city. It is understood that Col. Curran comes to Charlottetown to confer with the government regarding the future of the brewery at Brighton. If favorable arrangements can be made with the government the company will spend considerable money on the brewery, increasing its size and enlarging the plant. But if this cannot be done the brewery will be closed permanently and another one opened in Halifax to supply the Island market.

GRAFTING.—Mr. P. McLaughlin, the efficient draftsman, and Mr. D. A. Sharp, Summerside, were at Alberton last week grafting out some undesirable sorts in the young orchards of Rev. Father Burke and J. T. Weeks, Esq. We understand that the work done met with the hearty appreciation of these experienced orchardists and that such services as Mr. McLaughlin renders cannot fail to be of incalculable benefit to the fruit industry of this province. The great pity is that more of it could not be effected this season. We hope that with another's advent a thorough examination of the orchards of the country will be possible.

THE JUVENILE BRIDESMAID.—The Boston Herald says: It is sometimes better to have no bride-maid at all than one so shy she gets a stage fright and has to be carried ignominiously from the church. This happened not a hundred miles from town the other day, where the bride was being accompanied by an infant cousin to the altar. The three-year old's emotion overcame her at the sight of the congregation, and so, when the parson's not unkindly glance rested on the tot she could not control herself and burst forth into lamentations. For an instant the service was forgotten, and bride and bridegroom doubtless blessed the child as the mother and other relations bore her away to seclusion, a howling mass of snowy lace and muslin.
