

ALMOST DEAD

The beacon in Cristie's light-house is flickering and assuming a paler hue daily. We think that after the 23rd inst., it will become extinguished for ever more.

3/4 A MINUTE

The legal luminary of Palmer Road was wild in his speech at the meeting which took place there on Thursday afternoon. In sixteen minutes he made no less than fifty two false assertions—an average of 3 1/4 per minute. Not so bad for the ex-speaker.

A FITTING PLACE

The corner "Satellite" is busy preaching "Sankhya" or in other words Hindu Philosophy. His doctrine is as useful to this country as an obolus would be in buying a Kingdom. A fitting place for the poor Gothamite is in the Blue Berry Barrens at Gloucester.

WHERE WAS HE ?

Where was Perry at the Palmer Road meeting on Thursday afternoon? Surely he knew about it, he was personally invited to attend, apart from the notices which were copiously posted in the district. Stili Perry was absent. Same old story: "will not meet an adversary openly".

HE WANTS TO KNOW

One of our correspondents brings to our notice this very hard question: "Who is running the election as liberal standard bearer in West Prince? Is it Perry or Rogers? I take notice that Perry says little, but Rogers all. Would it be possible that Mr. Rogers hankers after Perry's old shoes?"

All we can say to the above is that Perry dares not face an audience, because he cannot give satisfactory explanation of his votes on the Remedial Bill. Messrs Rogers, Barney and Jim White are his mouthpieces on that question: One peculiarity—the three have each a different story.

A WORD WITH Mr. JERRY BUOTE

Mr. Jerry M. Buote, at the shore, makes a statement that we challenge as to its veracity. Here it is: "Perry has in his possession a letter from a catholic clergyman stating that he (Perry) did right in voting against the Remedial Bill". We claim that this is a fabrication got up by Perry or his lieutenants to tarnish the name of some of our clergymen. If Perry has such a letter why does he not read it out in public meetings? But why ask Perry to attend public meetings? When invited he acts like the ant that runs into its burrow at the least sound of danger. However, if Perry has such a letter why not publish it in the columns of the very truthful Pioneer? Surely the electors would believe it? That rabid liberal organ has the reputation of publishing nothing but the truth (?) Perry comes next, Jerry, last but not least.

ANOTHER WORD WITH MR SYLVAIN GAUDET

Mr Sylvain Gaudet, at the shore, states that the rumor about Father Dugald having urged the electors to vote for Perry was fabricated in this office. Read your grit organ [Guardian] of the 18th inst.

and be man enough to admit that you make a false statement and have the decency to apologize for it. The local government official who circulated the false report in Summerside on Tuesday last, would blush to own you as his party man, so much do you exaggerate things.

ENCORE UN MENSONGE!

ET LE PLUS HONTEUX DE TOUS

Nous avons sous les yeux une petite feuille que les libéraux circulent à profusion pour se gagner des votes.

L'entête de cette petite feuille se lit en grandes lettres: "PRESCRIPTION OF THE HOLY SEE"

ISSUED, SEPTEMBER 13th 1881 TO THE ARCHBISHOP OF QUEBEC

Cette lettre envoyée dans ce temps là n'avait pas à se prononcer sur une question comme celle qui se présente aujourd'hui. Dans les circonstances où nous sommes aujourd'hui, l'Eglise parle parce qu'elle voit le danger où se trouvent exposés ses enfants. Les évêques et tout le clergé sont unanimes dans leur sollicitude à éloigner ce danger, et il est du devoir de tout catholique digne de ce nom d'écouter et de suivre les conseils de leurs supérieurs. Nous ne croyons pas nous tromper en disant que cette feuille sort des ateliers du Pioneer de Summerside. Cela est suffisant pour indiquer aux catholiques ce qu'ils ont à faire.

LAURIER

Chef du parti libéral—à force de bassesses, a dit M. Tarte. Elève de Doutré et Pappin, est resté fidèle à ses maîtres, mais a honte de l'avouer. Vent être premier ministre et a déjà trahi sa race et sa religion pour cela: S'est déshonoré par son alliance avec McCarthy. Est canadien français, mais ce n'est pas sa faute; préférerait être anglais. Grand parleur; petit diseur; encore plus petit faiseur. A évolué entre toutes les théories économiques. Fut tour à tour libre-échangiste et protectionniste; prozact aujourd'hui de ménage des manufactures que la Protection fait vivre. Se proclame un partisan zélé du lien colonial et raille tous les annexionnistes autour de lui. Pose à l'honnête homme, mais a fait les élections de 1891 avec de l'argent volé par ses amis. A érigé son autorité en opposition à celle des évêques, en matière religieuse. S'applatit en ce moment devant les pires ennemis de sa race. Ses amis veulent le faire passer pour grand homme.

DAVIES

Chef des libéraux dans les provinces Maritimes; aspire à la chéferie dans la politique fédérale. Fut premier ministre de l'île du prince Edouard. En profita pour abolir les écoles séparées. Dirigea l'obstruction durant la dernière session, de complicité avec McCarthy et Wallace. Sectaire comme ses collègues les chef libéraux protestants. Se promet bien de tupplanter Laurier au premier jour, presque aussi violent que Cartwright. A la spécialité de discours qu'il désavoue ensuite, quand il a changé d'opinion, ce qui lui arrive souvent. Adversaire de la langue française. Qualifié d'indignité le droit qu'ont les Canadiens-français de parler leur langue dans les tribunaux de la province de Québec et ne se gêne pas de le dire. Dangereux parce qu'il est sans principes et sans scrupule

MARTIN

Connu parmi ses admirateurs pauvres gens! sous le nom de "fighting Joe", Débute comme instituteur près d'Ottawa et s'y fit remarquer par son affectation de libre-pensée; aussi par une conférence dans laquelle il se fit l'apôtre de l'école athée. C'est un brutal, mal dégrossi, mais tenace. A Maudit où il émigra ensuite, il devint député, puis ministre. Dans cette dernière position, fut compromis dans l'affaire du "Northern Pacific"—genre Baie des Chaleurs. Pour détourner l'attention publique, souleva la question scolaire, prépara la loi de 1890, la fit adopter par la Législature. Fier de ses exploits, résolut de se faire élire pour Ottawa. Fut battu dans une première élection, mais élu dans une autre. Cela lui valut un télégramme de félicitation de M. Laurier qui le présenta à la chambre. Devint le confident de M. Laurier et l'intime de Tarte. Continua sa guerre à tout ce qui est catholique et français. Seru battu le 23 juin, tout comme Tarte.

TARTE

Ami de Martin. Entrepreneur d'agitation religieuse et nationale. Fut tour à tour ultramontain, conservateur, rielliste, conservateur, libéral, et passa par toutes les couleurs de l'arc en ciel politique. Carotta sous tous les gouvernements; fut de tous les scandales et de toutes les trahisons. Trahira, encore; c'est
