THE ELLIOTT.—The steamer Elliott is in port. She arrived last evening from Sydney with a cargo of slack coal for Captain McMillan. After discharging she will load with hay for Cape Breton, and on return to Charlottetown she will have another cargo of coal for Captain McMillan.

SUMMERSIDE, Oct. 10th.—Shipped by A. M. Wright per bgte. Caspian, Gordon, master, for Barbadoes, W. I., 20,000 bushels oats, $5,000. R. C. McLeod shipped 43 horses, $3,000 by same vessel. The schrs. Ida and Mystery and bkte. Pride of the Channel are also loading for Mr. Wright.

STRUCK ON THE BEACH.—According to the Pioneer a telegram from North Sydney Cape Breton, says that the schooner Jessie Newell, of Summerside (owned by Mr. David Montgomery) while coming up the harbor on the 4th inst., struck on the beach at south bar below the lighthouse. She was towed off next morning by the tug Gladiator. No damage is reported.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon, George Offer was convicted of a third infraction of the Canada Temperance Act and sentenced to two months imprisonment. The cases against Annie Hynes, Angus Macdonald, Charles Collings and Arthur Thorne were adjourned for one week. Edgar McCarron was fined $90 or 90 days for drunkenness. James Curbic and J. Euman were each fined $2 or 10 days for drunkenness.

THE STAGE.—There was a very large attendance at the Opera House on Saturday evening, when the Ethel Tucker Company gave their closing performance, presenting "The Fugitive," a celebrated English melo-drama, in a most effective manner. From Charlottetown the company go to Summerside, Amherst, Moncton and St. John. The company is a first-class one, and will always be sure of a warm welcome in Charlottetown.

SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court is still in session at Summerside. The case of Perry vs. Chaisson was not concluded up to the time of going to press. The counsel addressed the court this forenoon. This case has been before the court since Friday. The Pioneer reports that in the case of Wesley Myers vs. Chas. Waugh, over the gold watch found by the latter at the Bedeque Presbyterian Church last winter, Mr. Waugh lost the case. In that of Thos. Murray vs. Constable Coughlan the latter gained. This was an action for false arrest—claim $500. Verdict for defendant.

CLARK'S LADY MINSTRELS were to give performances at the Opera House in Charlottetown on the evenings of the 23rd and 24th inst., but the managers of the Opera House have cancelled the engagement in view of the reports that have reached the city regarding the show. The company showed in the Institute, St. John, a few evenings ago, to a full house, but the performance was of such an inferior character that the management would not allow them to repeat it on the following evening. The managers of the Opera House here are evidently determined not to allow their patrons to be imposed upon if they can help it.

A gardener of Sommant took his little boy, three years old, out into the field with him where he was going to mow. The child was sent to play, but unbeknown he approached his father on his hands and knees in the long grass. His father did not notice him, and with one sweep of the scythe cut his son's head off. Mad with grief, the unfortunate man went at once and hanged himself.

KEEP ON YOUR OWN SIDE.

The following good advice is taken from a cycling circular, and will bear careful reading:—

"It is such an easy thing to keep on your own side of the road, and yet it is a daily occurrence to meet people who pay not the slightest attention to where they are riding, whether they are a nuisance to everyone in general, or whether they are directly disobeying one of the most common courtesies of the public at large. As some wise person has said: 'Of course every man has a right to half the road, but he hasn't the right to pick his half out of the middle of the street.' But that is exactly what a great many people insist on doing, and for which reason occur a great many unfortunate and serious collisions that could have been easily avoided. Bicycle collisions are a species of accident that it is wise to avoid, not only on account of the danger to life and limb, but because a bicycle, though built to withstand rough use, is not bound to be accident proof against the force of a collision. Stop and think for a moment of the damage that may ensue from the colliding of two bicycle riders in rapid motion. A man weighing one hundred and eighty pounds and moving at the rate of twelve feet a second (which is but a trifle over 8 miles an hour), has a momentum of 1,800 pounds, and this leaves out of account altogether the weight of the wheel. This is sufficient to upset any pedestrian with terrific force. A collision between two wheels, each carrying a hundred and eighty pound rider, running along at the moderate speed of eight miles an hour, would result in a smashup with a force of nearly four thousand pounds. It has been thought that the pneumatic tire forms a sort of safe guard which would prevent serious concussion in case of a collision. Perhaps it would have a slight modifying effect, but it would be of little or no account. Taking these facts into consideration, it is very evident that a bicycle collision is not the most pleasant thing in the world, and every good wheelman should avoid such chances by keeping on his own side of the road.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

IMPROVEMENT SOCIETIES.

SIR,—The short but pithy article in Saturday's EXAMINER, under the heading "Mutual Improvement," reminds the writer of days gone by, when the old Debating Society and Mechanic's Institute of Charlottetown were important factors in moulding public opinion on questions of vital importance affecting the dearest interests of our people. The facts referred to, relating to the organization of literary, debating and other mutual improvement societies should surely serve to awaken among our young people, at the present time, a desire to devote some portion of their time during our long winter evening's to literary pursuits, and in no way can they do so, to better advantage than by forming such societies as those mutual improvement organizations referred to. To your allusion to the old debating society, held during many winter months, in connection with the "Charlottetown Reading Room," we may add that in addition to those gentlemen named by the EXAMINER, who were members of the old debating society, were the late Mayor N. Rankin, Hon. B. Davies, M. McLeod, Esq., Q. C., G. W. Howlan, now our deservedly popular Lieut.-Governor Howlan, Robert Harris, now one of the leading artists of Canada, W. W. Sullivan, now Chief Justice of P. E. Island, N. McLeod, now Judge McLeod of Summerside, the late Robert Shaw, and many others whose names the writer from memory cannot at present recall.

WONDERFUL are the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and yet they are simple and natural. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes PURE BLOOD.

In Kingston penitentiary on Thursday, last, a negro named George Hewett was shot by a guard and died in a few moments. He had been acting disorderly in his cell, and when being removed to the dark cell he made an attack with a pair of shears on the guard, who fired on him, the ball entering the convict's head below the eye.

A despatch received from Manilla says that a company of native soldiers at Mindana, an island in the Malay Archipelago, and second largest of the Philippine islands, has mutinied and killed its officers.

Mr. Daniel Buchanan, formerly of Mount Buchanan, in this province, died at South Dunedin, New Zealand, recently. The cause of death was inflammation of the lungs. Mr. Buchanan was in his forty-fifth year. He had been a resident of Dunedin for about twenty-three years, and was deservedly esteemed by all who knew him.

The Pioneer reports that Mr. W. C. Commins, of Oakville, Ont., Inspector of the Sons of Scotland, was in Summerside last week endeavoring to establish a camp of that Order. The object of the Society is to cultivate Scottish sentiment, and it has an insurance feature in connection. The nearest camp is that at Moncton N. B.

It is stated that F. J. Jones, Ottawa correspondent of the St. John Telegraph, Halifax Recorder and other eastern papers, is to be appointed Commissioner of Patents. In connection with this, it is said to be a part of Mr. Laurier's policy to remember his newspaper friends, and other correspondents of Liberal papers are to get good positions.

Hands and Feet Got Stiff

AS THOUGH PARALIZED.

A grateful young lady is Mis Annie Shepherd, of North Pelham, Ont., who writes as follows:—I had two very bad spells of it and was obliged to call in the doctor My hands and feet would get stiff as though I was paralyzed. I had to quit work and tried doctors' medicine, but did not get any help until I got Manley's Celery Nerve Compound. After taking five bottles I am restored to health again and can highly recommend it to any one who may suffer as I did. I am gaining in flesh and at work now.
