A HINT.

Sir,—The young people of the C. E. would like to hear Mr. Mumford, their general reporter, speak at greater length on his subject at their next meeting night, C. E.

A BITTER WAY.

A good many of our people have been sending to Montreal for copies of Stoddard's Photographs.

Although the photographs are worth the time and money spent in procuring them, our readers who find it cheaper to get them at The Examiner office.

There will be no delay. The pictures will be delivered over our counter, or if the order comes by mail they will be posted at once. See particulars in another column.

BREACH OF PROMISE.

In May last a young man named George Binnie Dibble, Manager of the Maritime Marine Insurance Company, attended the World's Fair, and on his way home visited relatives in Moncton and St. John.

Mr. Dibble was a good-looking, well-mannered young man, with excellent social attainments and in receipt of a good income.

While in St. John he fell a victim to cupid's wiles, and became engaged to Miss Mary Robinson, a cousin of his own.

On his return home, on cooler reflection, he decided to annul the engagement and wrote Miss Robinson to this effect.

Relations of Miss Robinson induced that young lady to sue for damages. Damages were placed at the modest figure of 45000 sterling.

The amount claimed was considered too large, and a settlement was finally arranged by the payment of 2500 sterling to the young lady and 450 cents to her lawyer.

MARINE INSURANCE NOTES.

The annual statements of the British and Foreign Marine and Life Assurance Companies, represented here by Mr. F. W. Hyndman, have been laid before us.

The amount of business transacted by these large concerns is amazing. The former company covered no less than one hundred and three million pounds sterling worth of property in 1893.

They paid 25 per cent. dividend to the shareholders and carried over five hundred pounds to rest, making it 450,000 sterling.

The Reliance covered 425,000,000 sterling, paid 10 per cent. dividend to shareholders, and carried 415,000 sterling to rest, making that total 429,000 sterling.

Shippers having property to insure may feel perfect confidence in placing their risks with Mr. Hyndman, with such strong companies and facilities for placing any amount that may be required.

P. E. ISLAND RAILWAY.

The Georgetown and South trains got through to Mount Stewart last night, after working all day, and arrived in Charlottetown this forenoon.

The mail train, which was reported detained near Allany on Saturday, reached Cape Traverse last night.

The Tignish train left this morning on time this morning, but up to noon she was only a couple of miles out.

The train for the West left on time this morning. The snowplough and engineering work on the track at Royal Junction.

A wrecking train went out to the assistance, and by noon the track was again clear. The snow plough was badly damaged.

The movements of the trains will be necessarily slow and uncertain until the snow in the cuttings is removed.

BURNED TO DEATH.

A five-year-old child of Mark White, of Harmony, N. S., was burned to death on Wednesday last.

The little one was putting a stick of wood in the stove when his clothing took fire. An older sister succeeded in smothering the fire. Medical aid was summoned, but could not save the life of the child.

MAIL TRAIN.

The mail train left Cape Traverse for Charlottetown at 12.40, and is expected here this afternoon about three or four o'clock.

BOYD, Feb. 22.

Governor Greenhalge received the public in the executive chamber to-day, and more than 2,600 persons came to shake hands with him.

The governor was attended by his entire staff. The entire police force of the city was held in readiness to avert any possible repetition of Tuesday's demonstration, but none was attempted.

DIED.
