IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MAURICE WHITE

The death occurred at the City Hospital Charlottetown in the early morning hours of Sept. 19, 1953 of Mrs. Maurice White nee Catherine Feehan in her 63rd year. For some time she had not been enjoying good health and in May 1952, she underwent a major operation. From this she recovered temporarily and was able to enjoy her family and friends, so much so that she spent the greater part of the winter of 1952, visiting with her daughters in Virginia. She returned in the early spring accompanied by her daughter Fatsy, who gave up her position and lovingly and tenderly cared for her mother until about a week previous to her death, when it was deemed advisable that she enter the Hospital, where on the above named date, and fortified by the rites of the Roman Catholic Church, her soul took its flight to meet her Maker. Although suffering from, and having the knowledge that she had a malignant disease, her interest and thoughts were ever of her family and friends. She was always happy and glad to receive visitors and invariably, in the most assuring manner, talked of the Great Beyond and the joys awaiting her, frequently mentioned how she would have the privilege of sharing eternal joy sooner than those with whom she was conversing. To visit her was a joy and inspiration. When in good health her door was always open to the poor and needy, and many a weary soul found rest and consolation in her home. She will be missed by a host of friends, but most of all in the home. She leaves to mourn her husband and six daughters viz: (Margaret), Mrs. Roland Alchorn, Rocky Point; (Olga) Mrs. Trevor Davies and (Reta) Mrs. James Atkinson, Charlottetown; (Catherine) Mrs. Philip Hogan, Toronto and (Eileen) Mrs. Ernest Hartune and Fatsy, Virginia, also a sister, Mrs. George Cowell and a brother, William Dechar of Lowell, Mass. The funeral which was largely attended by relatives, friends and neighbours was held on Monday morning, Sept. 21, 1953, from her home at Rocky Point to St. Martin's Church, South Shore where solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father Enright assisted by Rev. Father Murphy as deacon and Rev. Father Coyne sub-deacon. The burial took place in the family plot where all that was mortal of a devoted wife, mother, and friend was laid to rest there to await a glorious resurrection. The honorary pallbearers were Messrs. James Smith, John Morehead, Seymour Murphy, Wellington Murphy, Malloy Norman MacDonnell, Albin MacMillan, Gordon McEwen and Peter Morrison. Active pallbearers: Messrs. Jos. Dolron, Stanley Taylor, Herbert Gorveath, Edmund Handrahan, Richard Griffin and John Smith. The floral tributes, Mass Cards and spiritual bouquets, were many and bore silent tribute to the memory of the deceased.

spouses were over, "do you consider, in all honesty, you've lived up to that!"
Whether or not we have, we agree with one who reminds us: "We ought daily or weekly to dedicate a little time to the reckoning-up of the virtues of our belongings—husband, children, friends—contemplating them in a beautiful collection. And we should do so now, that we may not pardon and love in vain and too late, after the beloved one has been taken away from us to a better world."
For "Sweet is the smile of Home; the mutual look
When hearts are each of each other sure;
Sweet all the joys that crowd the household nook,
The haunt of all affections pure."

path will be made a great deal easier. Domestic affairs and social interests are under excellent aspects during the next three months.
A child born on this day will be endowed with enthusiasm, ambition and an overwhelming determination to succeed.
The Day After Tomorrow
Extra effort may be needed if you would achieve results this day. Take the initiative. Go ahead on postponed plans and do not be too personal about displaying your skills and talents to superiors and co-workers. Make the most of every opportunity—even if it means taking on additional responsibilities at this time.
There may be some complications in social, domestic or romantic affiliations due to interference and opposition from elders, but you can handle such situations if you meet them with dignity, self-control and, above all, a sense of humor.
For the Birthday
If Monday is your birthday, you may, at present, be under some tension which could, unless you are on guard, result in serious discord early in December. Be alert, therefore, in all business and personal affairs, bending backward if necessary, to maintain the most amiable of relationships with all.
Once this restrictive period has passed, however, you should be well on your way toward achieving the goals you set for yourself at the beginning of 1953. Your horoscope indicates the favor of the next three or four months. Self-confidence and a little more aggressiveness on your part could speed results more quickly. Emphasize methodical thinking in your activities.
A child born on this day will be a sincere and loyal friend, gregarious and jovial by nature.
