IN MEMORIAM

ALLAN E. McISAAC
 The death occurred at his home in Hebron of Allan E. McIsaac in his 96th year. The deceased was born in the neighbouring district of Greenwood, the youngest and only surviving son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McIsaac.
 The deceased had been in failing health for some time, being confined to his bed for the past four years. A heavy cold hastened the end.
 "Uncle Allan", as he was called, was well known both to old and young alike, being possessed of a keen mind and an amazing memory for happenings of the day, both old and new. He could converse at will upon any subject the present day newspapers carried in their columns up until a few days before his death.
 In 1876 he left his native home for California and became head foreman on the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad. He was also their master mason and bridge builder.
 In the year 1887 he met and married Emma Webb in Denver, Colorado. She is a native of Snow Creek, Virginia, having moved to Colorado at the early age of ten years. They returned to P. E. I. in the year 1892.
 He is survived by his wife, four sons and three daughters. They are: Allen of Ferris, Ont.; Charles of Montreal; Harry of Penny, B. C.; Alton at home; Nell (Mrs. W. Clavel) of Winnipeg; Ethel (Mrs. M. McElhenry) of Fort Arthur; Anne (Mrs. A. Lecky) of Milburn.
 His funeral took place on Oct. 4th from his late residence to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Brae, Mass being celebrated by his pastor Rev. Fr. Dooley, who also officiated at the grave.
 The pallbearers were as follows: Clarence McWilliams, Steven Stewart, Frank Stewart, Alexander Morrison, John Herlihy, and James Griffin.

IN MEMORIAM

DANIEL CHAS. MacEACHERN
 The death occurred at the Provincial Sanatorium, Charlottetown on October 15th, 1951 of Daniel Charles MacEachern in his 31st year. Born on the home-stead at Cardigan he was the elder son of George MacEachern and the late Mrs. Annie Warry MacEachern. Dannie as he was familiarly known was at his work as usual until four weeks previous to his death. The seriousness of his illness was not apparent until he was taken to the King's County Memorial Hospital on Montague on October 4th. There he was carefully observed by the attending physicians and tenderly cared for by special nurses until it was discovered he had developed tubercular meningitis. He was moved in a semi-conscious condition by ambulance to the Provincial Sanatorium and despite all the medical assistance available passed away to his eternal rest on the above mentioned date.
 He had been employed as a mechanic at Daniel Acorn's Community Garage at Cardigan for the past several years where his services will be greatly missed by the large circle of friends and customers in the surrounding districts to whom he was ever willing to render assistance to the best of his ability. He was deeply interested in his work and had great patience and perseverance in difficult tasks.
 Having possessed a very quiet disposition, was not outspoken concerning his thoughts but nevertheless gravely concerned over the welfare of his family. Being a devoted husband, a kind and loving father to his small children his absence in the home will be sorely felt.
 Besides his sorrowing father he leaves to mourn his wife, the former Sandra Ferguson of Lorne Valley, two children Katherine 5 and Bobby 3, also a sister Margaret, Mrs. Alfred Birt, Everett, Mass., and a brother Arthur of Cardigan.
 The funeral service which was largely attended was conducted at the home on October 18th by Rev. F. N. Young, Montague, who brought a very comforting message to the bereaved family. The hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Nearer My God To Thee" and "Abide With Me". Following the service the remains were transferred to the Cardigan Presbyterian Church Cemetery and tenderly laid to rest. The pall bearers were Cecil Rice, Russel MacAulay, Philip MacEachern, Warren MacInnis, Richard Quinn and Cecil MacNeill. The funeral direction was under the capable management of N. D. MacLean, Charlottetown. The many friends who called and cards received testify to the esteem in which the deceased was held.
 The following are the floral tributes:—

Montreal Shooting
 MONTREAL, Nov. 16 —(CP)—While a radio blared a soap opera, two men were shot to death in a rooming house yesterday in what police said was a murder-suicide case.
 The men were identified as Jean-Paul Fremont, 33, and Georges Hemond, 28.
 Police could find no motive for the affair beyond the possibility of a quarrel.
 The bodies were found near each other in the shabby back room. Fremont, stripped to the waist, was shot through the head. A hunting rifle lay between his legs.
 Hemond's body was at the foot of a double bed. Shot in the lower abdomen, Hemond was fully clothed.
 In the room police found a wastebasket full of empty bottles and another bottle, half-filled
