

MR. & MRS. ANDREW P. MCKENNA

Little Flower Church Is Scene Of Lovely Wedding

Little Flower Church, Morell, P. E. I., was the setting of a pretty wedding on Saturday, July 11, when Edna Claire, (R.N.), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew MacDonald, Morell, was united in marriage with Mr. Andrew P. McKenna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred McKenna, of Iona.

The nuptial mass was celebrated and the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Floyd McLaughlin, cousin of the bride. Present in the sanctuary were Rev. Eric Robin, Rev. George MacDonald, Rev. Joseph Rossiter and Rev. Gavinn.

Appropriate hymns for the occasion were sung by Virginia Steele as soloist and Mr. and Mrs. Francis McCabe, accompanied by Mrs. Layton Coffin.

Former Farm Girl Relives Scene Of Her Childhood

"Just managed to get in under the wire" James offered with a pleased chuckle at supper time when he stopped a moment at the door to survey the mist gathering then over the farmlands. "Yes," he nodded, "just made it in time!" Our hay was ended. Only minutes before a last (bought) load had been drawn to the barnyard lifted quickly in little and larger "dips" to the

"Where There's A Will . . ."

An old Proverb says, "Where's there's a will there's a way." Speaking of a Will in a legal sense—many thoughtful Christian persons when making their Will, remember The British and Foreign Bible Society with a bequest and in so doing help spread the Gospel long after they have passed from the earthly scene. What finer thing could we do with our money than leave a legacy that "moth and rust will not corrupt." It means actually following Christ's injunction to "lay up treasure for yourselves in Heaven." When making or revising your Will—why not carefully and prayerfully consider such an investment?

Due to fantastic population growth and increasing literacy, more money is needed to meet the unprecedented demand for the Scriptures—a demand that will continue to grow along with rising costs. So, where there's a will, there's a way . . . a very special way to share. We help as we contribute regularly to the Society and we help too when we make a purchase at The Bible House the profits of which are used to maintain and extend the work. At The Bible House you will find a fascinating variety of Bibles, books, plaques, mottoes, sacred music, greeting cards and many religious novelties. You are invited to visit:

(Opposite Eaton's)
Operated by the P. E. I. Auxiliary of The British and Foreign Bible Society

The regular monthly meeting of Kingston W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Willard Proud. Meeting opened by singing "Put on your old Grey Bonnet", followed by the creed in unison. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by 11 members. One visitor, a former member, Mrs. May Willis. Institute News was passed out to members. Bills were presented and paid.

The name CHRISTIAN appears three times in the Word of God: namely, Acts 11:26, Acts 26:28 and I Peter 4:16. The CHRISTIAN is one who belongs to Christ. This divinely given name is an adequate designation of followers of the Saviour. There is therefore, no necessity that children of God wear human names which though they may bear witness to accepted traditions, can do nothing to add to the beauty of the name CHRISTIAN. It is not impossible that such human names may actually detract from the Biblical emphasis on the blessed name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Salvation is to be found ONLY in His name (Acts 4:11, 12).

Little Flower Church Is Scene Of Lovely Wedding

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown, of white azure silk with bouffant skirt and neckline trimmed with Chantilly lace. A coronet of nylon lace with seed pearls and sequins held her finger tips veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade of white lilies.

Miss Jnanita MacDonald, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was attired in an orchid ballerina length gown of silk over taffeta, with matching head-dress, mitts and shoes. She carried a cascade of white carnations and yellow mums.

The bridesmaid's, Mrs. Lornie Kelly and Mrs. Robert MacDonall, sisters of the bride and Miss Rose McKenna sister of the groom were attired in similar gowns of mint green silk over taffeta with matching head-dress, mitts and shoes. Their bouquets were similar to that of the maid of honor.

The groom was attended by his brother Donald McKenna with Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Mollison, Summerside and at the Clermont Motel.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Community centre for one hundred and fifty guests. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The toast to the bride was pronounced by Rev. Floyd McLaughlin and was fittingly responded to by the groom.

Following the reception the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to St. Anne de Beaupre, where Mr. and Mrs. McKenna are residing in Boston.
