The sale of the premises offers such a chance as seldom occurs for securing a most desirable suburban residence and grounds. THE Civil Service examinations commenced in this city last week and are still in progress. Following are the names of those who are trying the qualifying examination: James Monaghan, Kelly's Cross; Joseph Morrissey, Orwell; Patrick Doyle, Summerside; W. J. Hunt, Summerside; Wallace McMillan, Alberry Plains. There are but two trying the promotion examination, viz: Messrs. Joseph McCarey and J. N. Robertson, both of the Post Office Department this city. Two sad fatalities occurred at Ottawa on Sunday night. The nine-year-old son of Mrs. Simms, an attaché of the House of Commons, was playing on the edge of the canal and fell in. Before help could be secured the little fellow was drowned. A boy named Thomas McFarlane was driving along Sparks' Street when a dog bit the horse and the animal ran away. Young McFarlane was shaken off the wagon but still held the reins. He was kicked by the horse and killed instantly. MRS. SIMS, widow of the late George Sims, of Plymouth, N. S., a lady of eighty-five years of age, according to the Yarmouth Times, displayed remarkable presence of mind a few nights ago. She was all alone in her house, when she heard some one trying to force an entrance through a window. Failing in his attempt, he went to the door, which was fastened, and shouted that he wanted some matches. Mrs. Sims got the matches and went to the door, but as she was in the act of opening it he forced his way in and took hold of her. She coolly called out, "Boys, come down stairs!" when the tramp—for such he must have been—quickly passed out, and nothing more was seen or heard of him. ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. may 17 eod & wy.
