

Would "extra" money make your summer vacation "extra" special? Then here's how to get it: make up a list of articles around your home which you no longer need. Outgrown children's playthings, for instance, or perhaps that old washing machine, an idle bike, sports equipment, or just about anything that others can use.

Next, Dial 8506 and describe what you have to offer in a fast acting Guardian-Patriot Want Ad!

P. E. I. folks are always on the lookout for second-hand articles in good condition. And because the Guardian-Patriot carries many of these in Want Ads they turn to its classified columns to fill their needs. If you have what they are after, they'll make quick contact and offer cash.

So get busy now rounding up articles around the cellar and attic which you no longer need and offer them to thousands in these widely read columns. Here you'll reach many many local prospects

IN MEMORIAM

RAMSAY — In loving memory of Andrew Ramsay who departed this life, August 30, 1949.

We do not need a special day to bring you to our minds, The days I do not think of you, Are very hard to find.

Always remembered by wife, Georgia.

KEENAN — In loving memory of Roy Keenan, who was killed at Wilmet crossing August 30th., 1947.

Oh, what would I give to clasp his hand, His dear, kind face to see, To hear his voice, to see his smile, That meant so much to me.

Loved and remembered by his sister Vernita and family.

ROSE — In loving memory of Preston L. Rose who passed away, August 29, 1954.

Its hard to think of sunsets, Or the glory of the dawn, Its hard to smile with courage When the one you loved has gone But he left us treasured memories

Of many happy years And they always will be with us As we journey through the years. Sadly missed by Mom, Dad, brothers and sisters.

ROGER — In loving memory of George Rogers who passed away August 31st., 1957.

Peacefully sleeping and resting at last Your weary tarils and troubles are past; In silence you suffered in patience you bore.

THU God called you home to suffer no more.

Loving remembered by his wife Mary and family.

MACARTHUR — In loving memory of George Hudson MacArthur drowned August 30, 1956

There is still a heartache in my heart today That countless years can't take away

A place in my heart that nothing can fill, I miss you dear and always will. People often think I am happy When they sometimes see me smile

But they do not know the heart-ache That lies with me all the while. Sadly missed and ever remembered by wife Ida and daughter, Gloria.

KING — In loving memory of my wife, Mrs. James King who passed away, August 30, 1957.

Just today for you I am thinking But then dear "Marion" that's nothing new. I thought about you yesterday And the days before that too.

Ever remembered by Husband.

KING — In loving memory of our dear mother Mrs. James King who passed away August 30, 1947.

God took your hands we had to part, He eased your pain but broke our hearts

Although we smile and seem carefree No one missed you more than we. Our hearts still ache with sadness, Our eyes fill up with tears

Only God knows how much we miss you At the end of one long year. Ever remembered by Daughter Tillie and Sons.

KING — In loving memory of our dear mother Mrs. James King who passed away August 30, 1957.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last

The world's weary troubles and trials are past In silence she suffered In patience she bore, Until God called her home to suffer no more.

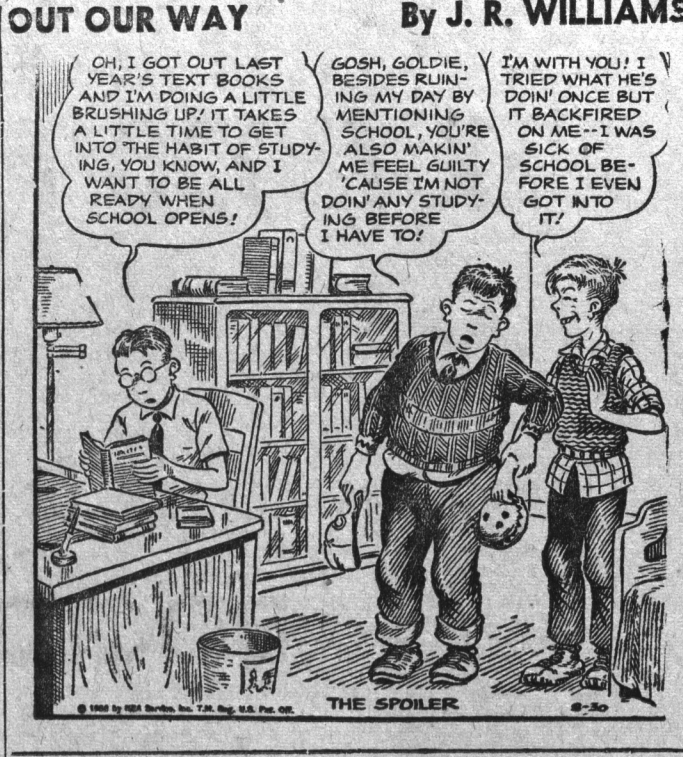

Always remembered by daughter, Lena and Annie, son-in-law Walter and grand-children Leonard and Cathie Jean Bell.

MACINNIS — In loving memory of Ernest Macinnis, who passed away, August 31st., 1956.

We cannot say and we will not say That he is dead - he is just away! With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand

He has wandered into an unknown land, And left us dreaming how very fair

It needs must be, since he lingers there. Lovingly remembered by wife and sons.
